

	GETTING STARTED	MAKING PROGRESS	MAKING PROGRESS	PREPARING FOR WHAT'S NEXT
YOUR COURSE JOURNEY	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Establish a 4-year plan with your adviser Take relevant General Education Program (GEP) courses Ask for help from the Tutoring-Learning Center (TLC) and your professors if you wish to improve in your courses 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Take foundation courses in psychology Take relevant GEP courses Consider adding a minor Consider taking PSYC 295: Career Development in Psychology 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Select and take advanced psychology courses in consultation with your adviser Consider adding a minor 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Take advanced courses in psychology Take capstone in psychology Apply for graduation
KNOWLEDGE AND SKILLS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Consider volunteering in the community Maintain a 2.25 GPA or higher throughout your degree program 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Consider volunteering in the community Apply for department scholarships 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Consider becoming involved in research experience Consider gaining relevant work and volunteer experience 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Consider becoming involved in research experience Consider gaining relevant work experience
ACT LOCALLY AND GLOBALLY	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Consider getting involved in clubs and organizations at the university and/or in the psychology department Consider studying abroad 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Consider getting involved in clubs and organizations at the university and/or in the psychology department 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Consider applying for research experience with a faculty member Consider gaining relevant work and volunteer experience 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Consider applying for research experience with a faculty member Consider gaining relevant work and volunteer experience
CAREER READINESS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Explore the numerous career pathways that a psychology degree provides with an adviser Create a college resume Complete your Handshake profile Learn about and practice networking by attending a Networking Workshop or the All-Major Career and Internship Fair 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Talk with you adviser about whether graduate school is right for you, or if it makes more sense to aim for jobs which require a bachelor's degree Conduct an informational interview or job shadow with someone who works in a field of interest Further develop application materials, including a cover letter, more curated Handshake profile, and/or creating a LinkedIn profile 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Gain experiences to broaden your education and employability (e.g. relevant work or research experience) Consider applying for a psychology internship If considering graduate school, research your options, understanding testing requirements, application timelines and prepare a CV Pursue opportunities at the All-Major Career and Internship Fair 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Apply for graduate school or start job searching Meet with a Career Coach to finalize your resume and cover letter Join and get involved with relevant professional associations Complete the Graduation Exit Survey when you receive it via email; we want to celebrate your accomplishments!

CAREERS

- Guidance Counselor
- Clinical Psychologist
- Case Manager
- Crisis Professional
- Community Organizer
- Behavior Researcher
- Professor
- Animal Trainer
- Victim's Advocate

and many more!

AVAILABLE ONLINE

Major Map documents are available online with additional information!

The staff and faculty at the University of Wisconsin Stevens Point want to help you craft your personal journey. Use this map as a jumping off point for conversations about your goals.

