Colleagues,

As we all anxiously brace for the results of the election next week, I will keep today's message very brief.

Specifically, I'm writing today to ask for your feedback. As thoroughly and collaboratively as we all planned for this fall semester, we have now learned from our experience that there is room for improvement.

- Please use this survey to provide feedback regarding your experience in teaching and serving students this fall.

The lessons you've learned and the suggestions you have will inform changes to academic operations in spring 2021. Your responses will remain anonymous and all tracking features have been turned off in Qualtrics. The survey will remain open through Sunday, November 8. We are eager to hear your thoughts.

Thanks very much. I wish everyone a safe weekend.

Greg
