

Costs and Aid

Choosing your new university is a hard decision; costs and financial aid are important factors to consider.

UW-Stevens Point is an affordable and great place to continue your education. Total direct costs to the student from the university range from $12,000 to $20,000 per academic year.

To help with costs, our Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships is here to help you! From filling out the Free Application For Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to helping you understand your award package, UWSP is here to make everything as easy as possible. UWSP's FAFSA code is 003924.

More information can be found on the Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships website (www.uwsp.edu/finaid/Pages/stepsToApplying.aspx).

Housing

As a transfer student, you'll find a large selection of housing opportunities available on campus and in the Stevens Point community.

Suites@201

Suites@201 offers apartment-style living for individuals who graduated from high school two or more years ago. Each suite has four private bedrooms, a full kitchen with all appliances, a living room and a three-part bathroom.

Hyer Hall

Hyer Hall is available to students who are 21 years of age or older prior to the start of the fall semester. Students will have a single room occupancy and can choose to opt out of a meal plan.

UWSP is conveniently located on the city bus route which makes it easy for students living in residence halls to take in a movie, go shopping, or go out for a meal with friends.

UW Board of Regents policy requires students to live in a residence hall if you graduated from high school within the past two years. Exceptions are made if you are a veteran with two years of active service, live with your parents (within a 40-mile radius of Stevens Point), have dependent children, are married or are 21 years of age or older. UWSP does not have accommodations available for married couples or families.
