The Wisconsin classroom is a microcosm of the world beyond the university. Political, economic, social, and cultural conflicts sometimes arise that require faculty and instructors to facilitate dialogue.

This systemwide interactive workshop is designed to engage participants in concepts and approaches to creating space in your classrooms for rich, respectful, and substantive dialogue.

UW-System will provide lunch for all participants.

Monday, August 28, 2023
10 a.m. - 3 p.m.

Dreyfus University Center - Alumni Room
UWSP Facilitators: Erin Speetzen and Dona Warren
Live-streamed on Zoom from UW-Parkside

Presented by:
Dr. Sarah MacDonald
Center for Excellence in Teaching & Learning, UW-Milwaukee - Inclusive Teaching Toward Justice

Dr. Jonathan Shailor
Communication, Conflict Analysis & Resolution Certificate Program, UW-Parkside

REGISTER by scanning the QR code or go to uwsp.edu/citl and find the link in Opportunities.