

A Forest For Every Classroom Registration Form

A series of workshops to offer practical ways to use place-based education in PK-12 schools.

Last Name	First Name
------------------	-------------------

School District	School Name
------------------------	--------------------

School Phone	School Email	Home Email
---------------------	---------------------	-------------------

Grade Level(s) Taught	Subject Area(s)
------------------------------	------------------------

How many students do you teach in a year? _____

Are there others from your school who plan to attend? Y or N

<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Workshop	Cost	Registration Deadline
	Inclusion and Accessibility - April 23, 2015, Poynette Forests are for everyone! Learn new ways to include students of all abilities in your place-based lessons.	$15	April 16
	Nature Play - May 7, 2015, Washburn Explore how nature play can help children learn. The idea of nature play is growing and participants will have the chance to observe nature play in action. Participants also receive an introduction to Project Learning Tree's early childhood materials.	$15	April 27
	Climate Change - May 8, 2015, Ashland Increase your ability to use place-based climate change evidence and scientific research to increase students' climate literacy.	$15	May 1

Return this form along with your check payable to LEAF to the address below.

LEAF
WCEE/CNR
800 Reserve St
UWSP
Stevens Point, WI 54481

Phone: 715-346-4956

Email: leaf@uwsp.edu

Website: www.leafprogram.org