2022 Schmeeckle Candlelight Hike

October 28th 6:00pm-9:00pm

Check out this AWESOME Event! Students and Public Welcome!

Join us as we explore the “Lights of the Night” and walk half-mile, 1-mile, and 1.5-mile loop trails lit by torches and hundreds of jack-o’-lanterns through the autumn woods and around Lake Joanis. Arrive and leave when you like!

Cost: Suggested donation of $2/person or $5/family helps fund future programs/events.

“Lights of the Night” character programs: Family-friendly programs presented by environmental interpretation students take place at 6:30 and 7:30 pm in the Pankowski Friends Amphitheater.

Other events all evening:
- Live raptors on display, courtesy of Rex Runke
- Popcorn, hot chocolate, and s’mores for sale
- Passport stations featuring hands-on activities.

Volunteers Needed. Visit the Friends of Schmeeckle page to learn more!
Trick or Trash is a candy wrapper recycling program that turns Halloween candy wrappers into dog waste bags for animal shelters! Keep an eye out for these special boxes in many locations on campus this spooky season, now accepting all kinds of candy wrappers.

Congrats to the UWSP Soil Judging team on a 3rd place finish at the regional contest in Champaign, IL this past week! This performance qualifies the team for the national competition next spring. Special congrats to co-captains Allison McCann and Nathan Stremcha for individual places of #8 and #11. The team sends a huge thank you to Dr. Scharenbroch and his assistant coaches Rosalind and Spody!
Did you know? Forestry students are required to complete the Foundational Forestry Skills Assessment to satisfy milestone requirements on their degree progress report and must achieve passing marks at each level of this assessment before graduating with any forestry degree from the College of Natural Resources at the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point. This two-part assessment occurs at three levels and is based on the accrued knowledge, skills, and abilities presented in the core forestry courses. Cumulative Core Courses include NRES 250, FOR 232, FOR 322, and FOR 332.

WRITTEN ASSESSMENT

NOVEMBER 7 – DECEMBER 9, 2022

DESCRIPTION: To pass the self-assessment written component, you must achieve at least a 70%, or greater, on the independent online assessment regardless of level. If you receive unsatisfactory marks in the evaluation, you may study to improve your skills and repeat as needed. This assessment of learning will be available on Canvas.

DATES: The written assessment will be open from November 7th through December 9th. You may complete this online assessment at any point to work towards achieving the written portion at the respective milestone.

COURSE LEAD: Dr. Richard Hauer

FIELD ASSESSMENT

NOVEMBER 7 – NOVEMBER 18, 2022

DESCRIPTION: The field component emphasizes the identification of 61 common trees and shrubs in central Wisconsin. You will be asked to identify 20 woody plants by common name. To successfully meet the passing criteria for the field component of the milestone, you need at least 70% (Introductory Level) or 75% (Intermediate Level).

DATES: You may register for a field assessment opportunity on Canvas. The initial field assessment will run from November 7th through November 18th. During the initial evaluation, you will have one opportunity to pass. If you receive an unsatisfactory mark during their initial field assessment, then you may study to improve your skills and repeat the assessment as needed during the available times the weeks of November 28th through December 9th.

To satisfy the milestone requirements, forestry students must achieve passing marks in both the written and field assessments within the allotted time to move on to the next level. Please visit the Canvas site for more information and instructions and reserve your field assessment time slot. In cases you cannot attend any scheduled field assessment appointment time or have accommodation needs, contact the proctor (jenatzke@uwsp.edu) to schedule a time to complete the field assessment. You must have justification and have initiated the communication before 5 pm CDT, November 18, 2022.
