CNR Summer Internship Spotlight - Let us know what you did!

Did you have an awesome internship this last summer? Tell us about it! Your success is highly valued, and we would be delighted to feature your journey on our CNR social media platforms. We kindly request that you check with your supervisor to ensure it's permissible to share your experience. If you're interested in being featured, and your supervisor has approved, click HERE to answer a few questions and share a photo. Your contribution will inspire others. Please note that by submitting the form, you grant us permission to publish your internship experience on our social media platforms, website, and promotional materials. If you have any questions or need assistance, please contact Stacey Allen-Bannach, sallenba@uwsp.edu, TNR 100. Please submit your information by September 22nd.

ATTENTION UWSP STUDENTS!

As you all know, hunting is an important management tool that both state and federal managers implement to ensure healthy wildlife populations. Hunting also provides an opportunity to harvest wild meat to eat and an excuse to get outside!

If you currently do not hunt waterfowl, and would like the opportunity to learn and take part in a safe and mentored waterfowl hunt then you are invited to join Delta Waterfowl's North American University Hunting Program October 7 & 8, 2023.

As part of this program, you will:

1. Complete the required hunter education course (if not already completed).
2. Participate in a shooting skills instruction day at a local shooting range.
3. Participate in a safe and responsible mentored waterfowl hunt.

Interested students should contact (ASAP):
