Schmeeckle Reserve Family Nature Programs

Join UW-Stevens Point student naturalists for free, hands-on programs that explore the outdoor world. All ages are welcome! Programs will meet at the Menzel Pavilion unless otherwise noted in the description below. Please dress for the weather. In case of inclement weather, programs will be moved indoors.

March 2024

Schmeeckle's Hidden Treasures

Friday, March 15, 5 p.m.-6 p.m.

Land ho! Explore the wetlands, forests, and under the snow to unlock the secrets they hold. You will release our inner pirates as we unearth Schmeeckle's natural hidden treasures. Presented by Grace Henes.

Here a Deer, There a Deer

Saturday, March 16, 11 a.m.-12 noon

Bound on over to the Schmeeckle Visitor Center to discover more about deer ecology, why the deer population is so high, and participate in fun deer-related activities. Presented by Meredith Abbs.

Soaring Through Schmeeckle

Friday, March 29, 5 p.m.-6 p.m.

Fly on over to Schmeeckle to find out what makes a Bald Eagle a raptor. Discover the tools Bald Eagles use to survive and how threats can affect these beautiful creatures. Presented by Hannah Higgins.

Busy Beavers

Saturday, March 30, 11 a.m.-12 noon

Beavers are talented engineers with a knack for innovation. Witness a model demonstration and discover the masterminds behind lodges and dams. Presented by Grace Henes.

Nuts for Squirrels

Saturday, March 30, 2 p.m.-3 p.m.

Dig up interesting "nuts" of information about your favorite furry friends at Schmeeckle Reserve. Branch out and come get "squirrely" about squirrels. Presented by Liz Schmutzer.

Registration is required to attend these free nature programs. Please register by email (schmeeckle@uwsp.edu), phone (715-346-4992), or in person at the Schmeeckle Visitor Center. We will email you a confirmation and more information about the program. Reasonable accommodations for special needs will be made with advance notice.

Hunter Education for Women and Girls

Are you interested in having a deeper connection with nature through harvesting your own food? This hunter education course instills in students the knowledge and skills to be responsible, safe hunters and promotes ethical use of the environment and our resources. There is a $10 course fee. Enrollment limit is

20. Class meets Monday nights, 5:30-8:00, for 5 weeks

beginning April 1 and ending April 29. Anyone born on or after Jan. 1, 1973, must complete a hunter education course to purchase a hunting license in Wisconsin. Hunter education graduates receive certification that is accepted in all states, Canadian provinces, and Mexico.

If you are majoring in natural resources, this is important information for you to learn even if you don't think you will ever hunt.

Email pfarrell@uwsp.edu to be added to the class list.

NRES 390/590: Nature Interpretation in Wisconsin: Connecting People and Place

Interested in learning how to interpret major ecological communities of Wisconsin, their relationship to landforms and climate, key plants and animals, their interrelationship and the effect of human activities? NRES 390 is a 1 credit weekend course being held 8am-5pm on Sat, April 13 and Sun, April 14 where students will travel to local sites, exploring local peoples and places

NRES 210: Hunter Education Certification

Get 1 credit while also becoming a DNR certified Hunter Education Instructor at the same time. This is a fun and easy way to get an extra credit, build your resume, and be a contributor to the outdoor community by teaching others safe hunting practices, ethics, and conservation principles. Classes are Monday nights, 5:00-8:00, March 25 – April 29. Request permission to register, pfarrell@uwsp.edu and provide your student ID number AND your DNR customer ID number.
