Just a Chat!

Women in Natural Resources will be meeting in Schmeeckle Reserve at the gazebo off Maria Drive at 5:00 pm on April 11th. Women from Pheasants Forever will be there to talk about careers and experiences before leading a hike!

“How to Survive Treehaven”

Are you not sure what to expect at Summer Field Experience? Stressing over what to bring and what kinds of clothes to pack? Women in Natural Resources is hosting a “How to Survive Treehaven” workshop to answer all of your questions and offer tips and tricks! It will take place virtually over zoom on Wednesday, April 13th at 6:00 PM. Click HERE to join the Zoom!

New Podcast Alert!

Keep an eye out for this week’s new episode on the CNR Reporter Podcast! Your host Grace Kober sits down to chat with Dr. Doug Miskowiak from the Department of Geography and Geology in the College of Letters and Science to discuss all things GIS!

Possibilities, Not Disabilities

The Disability and Assistive Technology Center has updated their name, mission, and values to better reflect the nature of the center’s work. Starting this summer they will be known as the Disability Resource Center and be located in the Collins Classroom Center room 108. Click HERE to read more about how this center is helping students succeed.

Nominate Someone Today!

Is there someone in your classes who you feel deserves to be recognized for all of the hard work that they do? Is there a faculty or staff member that you would love to show your appreciation to? Do you know someone doing some cool research? All of these are reasons to nominate someone to be featured in the CNR Spotlight! We are very proud of our College of Natural Resources community and we want to celebrate our victories together. Make someone’s day by nominating them HERE!
Have something you want added to the CNR Reporter, want to submit a photo, or want to nominate someone for the CNR Spotlight? Please send all CNR Reporter submissions and photos to
