Program Notes:	Springtime Heralds was composed during the Winter of 1999/2000 and completed at the brink of Springtime. As a result, the work is a musical celebration of Springtime and the festivities that accompany it. Not surprisingly, the work juxtaposes and develops several tonal themes that are celebratory, playful and heroic. These themes play with one another throughout the work before “blooming” at the climactic conclusion. Springtime Heralds was commissioned by Valley Commissions for the Valley Southwoods Freshman High School, William Bird, Conductor and premiered in the Springtime of 2000.
