

Future Land Use Policy

Calumet County, Wisconsin

Map 6.3

Targeting Priority Working Lands Pilot Project

Map Description

This map displays the scoring criteria based on the preferred future land use districts articulated in town comprehensive plans. Future land use districts that limit development and work to protect working lands received high scores. Future land use districts that promote development or are already protected because of their environmental status received low scores.

Methods

Future Land Use Districts that:

- Pursue future development receive 0 Points
- Are currently protected through other measures receive 0 Points
- Foster protecting rural character receive 75 Points
- Promote continuance in forestry and agriculture receive 80 Points
- Protect working lands and limit development receive 100 Points