An Itinerary for 2026 Spring New Orleans Trip January 26–30, 2026

Travel with us to vibrant New Orleans, where history, culture, and flavor come alive! We'll stay in the French Quarter, surrounded by charming architecture, lively music, and world-famous cuisine. Our adventure includes a visit to the acclaimed National World War II Museum, an immersive cooking class to learn the secrets of Creole and Cajun dishes, and a delicious food tour sampling the city's iconic bites. We'll also explore the wonders of the Audubon Aquarium, take a tour of St. Louis Cemetery #1, cap off one of our nights with unforgettable jazz performance at the legendary Preservation Hall, and much more. Come experience the soul of the Big Easy with us!

Your Trip Leaders

Anne Rogalski (right), UWSP CE Associate Director, is a seasoned trip leader who brings experience and a love of learning to every journey she hosts. This will be her third time leading a New Orleans adventure, adding to a rich history of guiding groups through cultural destinations like Savannah, Charleston, and across the U.S. and Europe. Whether you're diving into Creole cooking, strolling the French Quarter, or enjoying the rhythms of Preservation Hall, Anne's thoughtful leadership and passion for people, place, and story will help you experience the soul of New Orleans in unforgettable ways.

Jennifer Hess (left), UWSP CE Associate Director, has hosted trips for Continuing Education, including New Orleans, Savannah, Charleston, Alaska and a dozen trips to New York. As a travel enthusiast, she enjoys visiting the warmer climates of Caribbean countries with her husband and friends where she seeks out opportunities to connect with nature such as snorkeling coral reefs at the base of a volcano, swimming with wild sea turtles, and observing dolphins and seals play.

Important Notes

- Traveling for this trip requires some frequent walking, especially on tours and museum visits. Please be prepared to walk up to a mile at a time. Walking several miles in a day is common.
- Travelers under age 21 must be accompanied by a parent or legal guardian.
- UWSP Continuing Education does not provide travel insurance, medical, or emergency evacuation and thus you are 100% responsible for these expenses. We advise that you purchase travel insurance as soon as possible after registering for a trip because some insurance providers only guarantee certain benefits within a short time after you make a travel deposit. We also advise carrying health insurance while on any tour as well.
- Travelers may want to consider short-term traveler's insurance that covers baggage, accident/life, trip interruption, trip cancellation, and more. Visit Travel Insurance Review to answer any of your travel insurance questions, get tips, and advice, or compare different providers.
