Old World Christmas

Market Adventure

December 8, 2022

Register by Dec. 6 at Noon

Welcome to the December 8th, Old World Christmas Market Adventure! Our first stop will be the Old World Christmas Market where you will be able to explore and shop the unique crafts and specialty items of international and regional artisans. Lunch will be at your expense at the market's German inspired Food Court. All of this is housed under a heated tent that is the size of a football field!

After the market, we will proceed to our last stop at Vintage Elkhart Lake. Vintage is a specialty wine and fine food retailer, where you are welcome to make additional purchases after our tasting/pairing.

Did You Know?

- Osthoff Resort's Old World Christmas Market was voted #1 Best Holiday Market by USA Today's Readers' Choice in 2018!
- The Old World Christmas Market is running again for the newspaper's 2022 awards. The winners will be announced December 16. Vote here!
- The first documentation of this event dates all the way back to 1628, then named Nüremberg Christkindlesmarkt (meaning "Christ Child's Market").

Registration Information:

- LIFE Members: $85 per person
- Veterans: $85 per person
- Public: $105 per person

Americans 'eager' to travel for Thanksgiving: Tips to Avoid Delays

"The holiday travel season is about to commence now that Thanksgiving is just around the corner. Travel experts are encouraging those making any sort of journey to prepare for a crowded, and possibly chaotic, one.

"The Thanksgiving holiday week is shaping up to be busy," Hayley Berg, lead economist for Hopper, told USA TODAY. "Americans are eager to visit family and friends and make up for missed holidays due to the pandemic."
