

Wisconsin's Regional Centers
are staffed by specialists who help families.

Contact a Regional Center Specialist
for guidance on a wide range of topics:

- ❖ Information on your child's condition
- ❖ Problem-solving
- ❖ Partnering with your doctor in a medical home
- ❖ Health transition from child to adult health care
- ❖ Health insurance/benefits assistance (for example, Medicaid)
- ❖ Services in the community
- ❖ Parent-to-parent support
- ❖ Finding doctors and dentists
- ❖ Parent training events

We want to help you.

Wisconsin has five Regional Centers dedicated to supporting families with children and youth with special health care needs.

Children and Youth with
Special Health Care Needs

“Thank you for providing much needed information at a time when we didn’t even know what questions to ask. I wish I had known about your Center years ago!”

– A parent of a child with a special health need

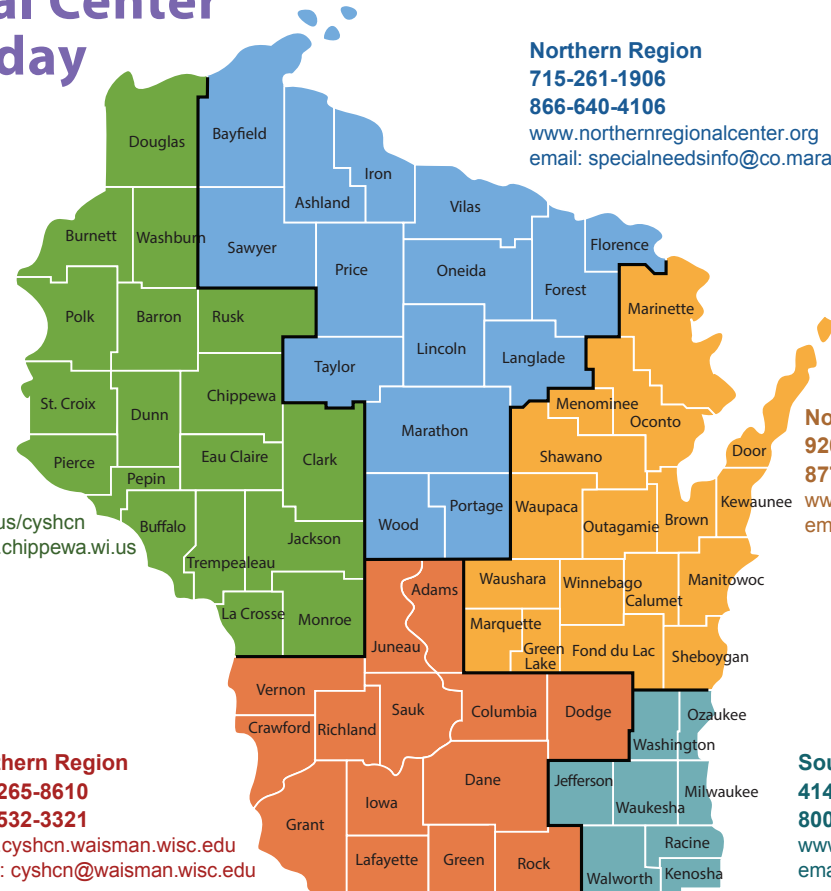

Children and youth with special health care needs:

- ❖ Are between birth and age 21.
- ❖ Have a physical, behavioral, developmental, or emotional illness, or condition which is expected to last from one year to a lifetime.

Parents tell us:

- ♥ You listened.
- ♥ You helped me with what I thought was important.
- ♥ You helped me find my next step!
