

Counseling and Mental Health Services and Opportunities in the Human Services Industry

Wednesday, July 30 | 1–5 p.m.

This workshop will explore, examine, and engage participants in learning related to the human services industry. The focus of the workshop will include an overview of the Goodheart-Willcox publication, Counseling and Mental Health Services. The workshop will focus on building strong pathways in human services that includes a focus on counseling and mental health services pathways, transferable skills in human services, entrepreneurial and career opportunities. The workshop will also include best practices for utilizing the curriculum and activities as relevant resources.

Who Should Attend: Current or Future FCS Teachers

UW-Stevens Point, College of Professional Studies, Room 329, 1901 4th Ave.
Fee: $25 Includes box lunch and all supplies

Registration Closes July 11

School of Health Sciences & Wellness
University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point

715-346-3838 | uwspceweb@uwsp.edu

• Our Presenter •

Alyson L. McIntyre-Reiger, Director of Advancing Connections Inc and former State CTE Program Leader for Work Based Learning, Family and Consumer Sciences, and Agriculture in Indiana.

Ms. Alyson McIntyre-Reiger, and the Advancing Connections Inc team bring multiple years of experience in Career and Technical Education fields along with project management and strong backgrounds in program and curriculum development and implementation.