

Wednesday, June 12

Arrive in Ashland, Wisconsin

Evening Orientation with Cathy Techtmann-UW Extension

Thursday, June 13

Travel to Blackbird Bad River Tribal Center and Great Lakes Indian Fish and Wildlife Commission (GLIFWIC) Odanah, Wisconsin

Planned Sessions

- Treaty Rights, Natural Resources, Culture, and Climate
- Integrating Traditional Ecological Knowledge and Scientific Ecological Knowledge in Assessing Climate Vulnerability
- Mixer with GLIFWC Biological Services staff and researchers to discuss opportunities for collaboration
- Climate impacts on Wild Rice and Ojibwe Culture: Bad River-Kakagon Sloughs Wild Rice Tour with the Bad River Tribal Natural Resources & Historic Preservation Departments
- Food Sovereignty and Climate Adaptation – Bad River Food Sovereignty Program

Friday, June 14

Travel to Bayfield Wisconsin and Red Cliff Wisconsin

Planned Sessions:

- Climate Change, Communities, and Economics: Stories of adaptation from Bayfield, WI community leaders and businesses
- Climate impacts and adaptations on Lake Superior subsistence, commercial, and recreational fishery
- Climate Impacts on Paper birch, forests, and culture
- Frog Bay Tribal National Park Climate and Culture Tour