Annual Security Report and Annual Fire Safety Report

October 1, 2021

For most, calendar year 2020 redefined how we view the concept of safety, how we can protect ourselves, and care for the broader community. The COVID-19 pandemic has in its own way, highlighted the ongoing need for clear and up-to-date information, an understanding of procedures designed to help keep people safe, and ongoing communication to all members of our respective communities. It cannot be overstated that the safety and success of students, faculty, staff, and guests at the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point is our first priority. A safe environment depends on the cooperation and involvement of individuals like you. We encourage all current and potential members of the UW-Stevens Point community to use this report as another guide for safe practices on and off campus.

In accordance with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, UW-Stevens Point published our Annual Security Report (ASR) and Annual Fire Safety Report (ASFR) by October 1 of each year.

The Annual Security Report contains specific information on safety and security, crime prevention, reporting crimes, campus disciplinary procedures, state and federal laws, response to sexual violence, and crime statistics for the previous three years (2017, 2018, 2019). The Clery Act requires the reporting of crime statistics that occur: (1) on campus, (2) on public property within or immediately adjacent to the campus, and (3) in or on non-campus buildings or property that the institution owns or controls. The Clery Act also requires institutions to report the number of crimes and referrals for campus disciplinary action that occurred in on-campus student housing facilities as a subset of the total number of crimes that occurred on campus. Lastly, this report includes the additional policies and statistics as required by the reauthorized Violence Against Women Act (VAWA). The Annual Fire Safety Report contains information about fire prevention, fire alarms and protections systems, and reports of fires for the previous three years.

Finally, this document includes information from the UW-Stevens Point Center for Prevention regarding alcohol and drug policies, health effects associated with use of alcohol and other drugs, and university education and prevention efforts. The information is shared in accordance with the requirements of the Drug Free Schools and Communities Act.

Sincerely,

Troy L. Seppelt, Ed.D.

University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point

Campus Geography Terms

The Clery Act requires the reporting of crime statistics for the previous three years concerning crimes that occur: (1) on campus, (2) on public property within or immediately adjacent to the campus, and (3) in or on non-campus buildings or property that the institution owns or controls. The Clery Act also requires institutions to report the number of crimes that occurred in on-campus student housing facilities as a subset of the total number of crimes that occurred on campus.

Definition of terms

On-Campus

- Any building or property owned or controlled by an institution within the same reasonable contiguous geographic area and used by the institution in direct support of, or in a manner related to, the institution's educational purposes, including residence halls; and
- Any building or property that is within or reasonable contiguous to the area identified in first statement of this definition, that is owned by the institution but controlled by another person, is frequently used by students, and supports institutional purposes (such as food or other retail vendor). Hyer Hall and Goerke Park fall into the category.

Non-Campus Property

- Any building or property owned or controlled by a student organization that is officially recognized by the institution; or
- Any building or property owned or controlled by an institution that is used in direct support of, or in relation to, the institution's educational purposes, is frequently used by students, and is not within the same reasonable contiguous geographic area of the institution.

Public Property

- All public property, including thoroughfares, streets, sidewalks, and parking facilities, that is within the campus, or immediately adjacent to and accessible from the campus.

Separate Campus

- A location that the institution owns or controls; is not reasonably geographically contiguous with the main campus; has an organized program of study and; has at least one person on site acting in an administrative capacity. Per this definition, UW-Stevens Point at Marshfield, UW-Stevens Point at Wausau, the Central Wisconsin Environmental Station, and the Treehaven Field Station near Tomahawk (WI) are considered separate campuses under the Clery Act.

Notes

1. The Clery Act does not require the reporting of crimes that fall outside of one of the above defined geographical categories, even if the crime involves a UW-Stevens Point student or employee.

University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point

Clery Act Reportable Crimes

The Clery Act requires the reporting of crime statistics for the previous three years concerning crimes that occur on the Clery defined geography. Definitions for Clery reportable crimes, hate crimes, and Violence Against Women Act offenses are shared here.

Criminal Homicide, Murder and Non-Negligent Manslaughter

- The willful (non-negligent) killing of one human being by another.

Criminal Homicide, Manslaughter by Negligence

- The killing of another person through gross negligence.

Sex Offenses

- Rape – The penetration, no matter how slight, of the vagina or anus with any body part or object, or oral penetration by a sex organ of another person, without the consent of the victim.
- Fondling – The touching of the private body parts of another person for the purpose of sexual gratification, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent because of his/her age or because of his/her temporary or permanent mental incapacity.

- Statutory rape – Sexual intercourse with a person who is under the statutory age of consent.

Liquor Law Violations

- Violations of laws or ordinances prohibiting the manufacture, furnishing, sale, purchase, transportation, possession or use of alcoholic beverages. * Liquor Law Arrests/Referrals: Underage drinking is a civil offense in the state of Wisconsin, not a criminal offense, and therefore tickets issued for underage drinking are not classified as “arrests,” and are not counted as referrals for disciplinary action as per Clery Act regulations.

Drug Abuse/Controlled Substance Violations

- Violations of laws prohibiting the production, distribution, and/or use of controlled substances and the equipment or devices utilized in their preparation and/or use. The relevant substances include opium or cocaine and the derivatives (morphine, heroine, codeine); marijuana, synthetic narcotics (Demerol, methadone); and dangerous non-narcotic drugs (barbiturates, Benzedrine).

Weapons Possession

- Violations of laws or ordinances dealing with weapons offenses, regulatory in nature, such as the manufacture, sale, purchase, transportation, possession, concealment, illegal carry or use of firearms, cutting instruments, explosives, incendiary devices, or other deadly weapons and all attempts of the aforementioned.

Hate Crimes

- Any of the reportable Clery crimes or others that involve bodily injury, larceny/simple assault, damage/vandalism or property, or intimidation is committed against a victim who was intentionally selected because of the perpetrator’s bias, or the perpetrator perceived the person to be in one of the protected categories (race, gender, gender identity, religion, sexual orientation, ethnicity, national origin, disability).

Domestic Violence – Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) Offense

- Asserted violent misdemeanor and felony offenses committed by the victim’s current or former spouse, current or former cohabitant, person similarly situated under domestic or family violence law, or anyone else protected under domestic or family violence law.

Dating Violence – Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) Offense

- Violence by a person who has been in a romantic or intimate relationship with the victim. Whether there was such relationship will be gauged by its length, type and frequency of interaction.

Stalking – Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) Offense

- A course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to fear for her, his or others’ safety, or to suffer substantial emotional distress.

Referrals for Disciplinary Action per the Clery Act

The Clery Act also requires the reporting of the number of referrals to the campus disciplinary process for certain crimes, specifically:

- Liquor Law Violations
- Drug Abuse Violations
- Weapons Possession Violations.

Definitions for reportable crimes are the same as above. Statistics for referrals for disciplinary action do not include those arrested for a crime or for violations of only an institutional policy.

Liquor Law Arrests/Referrals in Wisconsin: Underage possession or drinking are civil offenses in the state of Wisconsin, not a criminal offense, and therefore tickets issued for underage drinking are not classified as “arrests,” as per Clery Act regulations. Likewise, these incidents are not counted as “disciplinary referrals” as referrals must involve alleged criminal offenses.

Drug Law Arrests/Referrals: Clery Act Handbook Help Desk guidance indicates that arrests or referrals for being under the influence of drugs are not countable offenses for Clery Act reporting purposes.

University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point, Stevens Point Campus

Clery Act Policy Statements and Information

1. Campus Law Enforcement Policies

1a. Law Enforcement Authority

UW–Stevens Point University Police and Security Services is the University’s law enforcement authority for the Stevens Point campus, operating 24 hours a day in a full law enforcement capacity. They represent the first line support for emergency response, safety and security of the campus community. Sworn officers have the authority to enforce local, state, and federal laws, as well as University policies. Non-sworn security officers have the authority to enforce University policies.

1b. Arrest Authority and Jurisdiction

University Police and Security Services sworn officers meet the standards of the Wisconsin Law Enforcement Standards Board and have the power to arrest and bring before the proper courts, persons violating the law on university owned or controlled property as well as in the broader community. Security officers do not have police authority, do not have the authority to arrest, and address concerns only on university owned or controlled property.

Crime Log

UW-Stevens Point University Police maintains a log of crimes and incidents that occur on campus and make the log accessible to the public. This crime log is available at University Police in the George Stein Building during business hours, 7:45am to 4:30pm.

1b. Relationships with Local Law Enforcement Agencies

The University Police department maintains a close working relationship with local, regional, state and federal law enforcement agencies, and all appropriate elements of the criminal justice system. UWSP Police and Security Services partners with the Stevens Point Police Department and the Portage County Sheriff’s Department to address concerns. Regular meetings are held, both on a formal and informal basis, and crime-related reports and statistics are routinely exchanged.

A Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) exists between University Police and the Stevens Point Police Department outlining investigatory responsibilities of serious crimes, sharing of resources, and ongoing mutual training.

1c. Agreements with Local Law Enforcement Agencies

University Police and Security Services (UPSS) currently has a Memorandum of Understanding with the Stevens Point Police Department (SPPD). The current MOU specifies that SPPD will assist UPSS in the investigation of 1st, 2nd, and 3rd degree sexual assaults, as defined by Wisconsin state law.

2. Reporting Procedures

2a. Accurate and Prompt Reporting of all Crimes

UW-Stevens Point encourages all campus community members to accurately and promptly report crimes if they are victim of or witness, including when the victim elects to, or is unable to, make such a report.

2b. Reporting of Crimes

Crimes or other emergencies that occur on campus can be reported to the UW-Stevens Point University Police by calling 911, by calling the non-emergency number 715-346-3456, or by going to the department at 1925 Maria Drive (001 George Stein Building), Stevens Point, Wisconsin 54481.

The crimes of rape, fondling, statutory rape, or incest, as well as VAWA offenses of domestic violence, dating violent, or stalking may be reported to University Police or directly to the Title IX Coordinator. The Title IX Coordinator is Eric Roesler, 133 Old Main, 715-346-3975.

Crimes that occur off campus can be reported to the Stevens Point Police Department via the non-emergency number 715-346-1500 or by going to the department.

Students, faculty, staff, and guests are also encouraged to report crimes/violations of University policies to the Dean of Students to seek assistance for themselves or to begin an investigation: 2100 Main Street (212 Old Main) Stevens Point, Wisconsin 54481, 715-346-2611. Reports can also be made online at the Dean of Students website: <http://www.uwsp.edu/dos/Pages/Anonymous-Report.aspx>.

2c. Voluntary Confidential Reporting

If you are the victim of a crime and do not want to pursue action within the university conduct process or criminal justice system, you may still want to consider making a confidential report. UWSP University Police can file a report on the details of the incident without revealing your identity. You may also submit an anonymous report online through the website of the Office of the Dean of Students at: <http://www.uwsp.edu/dos/Pages/Anonymous-Report.aspx>.

The purpose of a confidential report is to comply with your wish to keep the matter confidential, while taking steps to ensure the future safety of yourself and others. With such information, the University can keep an accurate record of the number of incidents involving students, determine where there is a potential pattern of crime regarding a particular location, method, or assailant, and alert the campus community to potential danger. Reports filed in this manner are counted and disclosed in the annual crime statistics for the institution.

2d. Professional and Pastoral Counselors

As a result of the negotiated rulemaking process which followed the signing into law, the 1998 amendments to 20 U.S.C. Section 1092 (f), clarification was given to those considered to be campus security authorities. Campus “Professional Counselors”, when acting as such, are not considered to be a campus security authority and are not required to report crimes for inclusion into the annual disclosure of crime statistics. As a matter of policy, they are encouraged, if and when they deem it appropriate, to inform persons being counseled of the procedures to report crimes on a voluntary basis for inclusion into the annual crime statistics. The rulemaking committee defines counselors as:

- Professional Counselor: An employee of an institution whose official responsibilities include providing psychological counseling to members of the institution’s community and who is functioning within the scope of his or her license or certification.
- UW-Stevens Point does not employ any pastoral counselors.

2e. Response to a Report

Dispatchers are available at these respective telephone numbers 24 hours a day to answer your calls. In response to a call, University Police will take the required action, either dispatching an officer or asking the victim to report to University Police to file an incident report. All reported crimes will be investigated by the University and may become a matter of public record. All University Police incident reports are forwarded to the Office of the Dean of Students for review and referral to the student conduct process for potential action, as appropriate. University Police will investigate a report when it is deemed appropriate. Additional information obtained via the investigation will also be forwarded to the Office of the Dean of Students. If assistance is required from the Stevens Point Police Department or the Stevens Point Fire Department, UWSP University Police will contact the appropriate unit. If a sexual assault or rape should occur, staff on the scene, will offer the victim a wide variety of services.

3. Timely Warning Procedures

3a. Timely Warning Reports Regarding the Occurrence of Clery Act Crimes

As outlined in University Police and Security Services policy 406.00, the University of Wisconsin–Stevens Point will keep the community informed about safety and security matters on campus and maintain compliance with applicable features of the Clery Act (20 USC 1092(f)).

In the event a crime is reported or a situation arises, within the UW-Stevens Point Clery Geography (on campus, public property, or non-campus property) that, in the judgement of University Police and Security Services, and in consultation with responsible authorities when time permits, constitutes a serious or continuing threat, a campus wide “timely warning” notice will be issued.

Timely warnings may be issued for Clery defined crimes to include:

- Murder or Manslaughter by Negligence
- Sexual Assault
 - Considered on a case-by-case basis depending on the facts of the case, when and where the incident occurred, when it was reported, and the amount of information known. In cases involving sexual assault, incidents are often reported long after the incident occurred, thus there is no ability to distribute a “timely” warning notice to the community. All cases of sexual assault, including stranger and non-stranger/acquaintance cases, will be assess for potential issuance of a Timely Warning Notice.

- Robbery involving force or violence
 - Cases involving pickpocketing and purse snatching will typically not result in the issuance of a timely Warning Notice but will be assessed on a case-by-case basis.
- Aggravated Assault
 - Cases involving assaults among known parties, such as two roommates fighting which results in an aggravated injury, will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis to determine if the individual is believed to be an ongoing threat to the larger UW-Stevens Point community.
- Burglary
- Major Incidents of Arson
- Other crimes or situations as deemed appropriate

Some of the considerations prior to issuing a timely warning include:

- Nature of the crime (serious/non-serious, violent/non-violent)
- The continuing danger to the community or continuing crime pattern (yes/ no)
- The nature of the threat (general/specific target)
- The possible risk of compromising law enforcement efforts

3b. Issuing a Timely Warning

When UW-Stevens Point University Police becomes aware of a situation that meets the criteria for a timely warning, University Police will issue a timely warning through all-campus emails and posting on the University Police website. Timely Warning Notices will be distributed as soon as pertinent information is available, in a manner that withholds the names of victims as confidential, and with the goal of aiding in the prevention of similar occurrences. For time-critical, urgent threats, the University may use the Pointer Alert system. Timely warning notices may include information about the type of crime, a description of the assailant(s) if known, how those with information can connect to law enforcement, and safety precautions.

Timely Warning Notices are typically written by UW-Stevens Point Chief of Police Tony Babl, or designee. Other entities on campus learning of an incident in which a timely warning may be needed will share the information with University Police. University Police will determine if the incident meets the criteria for a timely warning.

UW-Stevens Point is not required to issue a Timely Warning with respect crimes reported to a pastoral or professional counselor.

3c. Emergency / Immediate Notifications

UW-Stevens Point has developed a process to notify the campus community in cases of emergency. While it is impossible to predict every significant emergency or dangerous situation that may occur on campus, the following identified situations are examples which may warrant an emergency (immediate) notification after confirmation: armed/hostile intruder; bomb/explosives (threat); communicable disease outbreak; severe weather; terrorist incident; civil unrest; natural disaster; hazardous materials incident and structural fire.

In the event of an emergency, UW-Stevens Point will initiate and provide, without delay, immediate notifications to the appropriate segment(s) of the University community upon the confirmation of a significant emergency or dangerous situation involving an immediate threat to the health or safety of students, employee and visitors.

If the UW-Stevens Point University Police staff, in conjunction with other University administrators, local first responders, Public Health Officials and/or the National Weather Service, confirms that there is an emergency or dangerous situation that poses an immediate threat to the health or safety of some or all members of the UW-Stevens Point community, UWSP Police and Security Services will initiate, determine the content of, and determine the appropriate segment or segments of the campus community to receive the notification. UWSP Police and Security Services will use some or all of the systems described below to communicate the threat to the UW-Stevens Point community or to the appropriate segment of the community, if the threat is limited to a particular building or segment of the population.

UW-Stevens Point will, without delay and taking into account the safety of the community, determine the content of the notification and initiate the notification system, unless issuing a notification will, in the judgment of the first responders (including, but not limited to: the Stevens Point Police Department and/or Stevens Point Fire Department and Emergency Medical Services), compromise the efforts to assist a victim or to contain, respond to, or otherwise mitigate the emergency.

Pointer Alerts is the name for UW–Steven Point’s emergency notification system. The system is designed to provide information about an active emergency that requires the community to take immediate action in order to stay safe. Students and employees are automatically entered into the Pointer Alert via their university email accounts and their cell phone information provided in accessPoint and at MyUWSystem, presuming phone numbers have been updated within each of these separate systems by the student or employee.

Depending on the exact nature of the situation, the system may utilize one or many of the components described below:

- Text messaging: UW-Stevens Point will text subscribers to reach mobile users who may be away from their computers or offices.
- UW-Stevens Point email: UW-Stevens Point email users may receive a mass e-mail warning message.
- Personal email: Students, faculty, and staff can add a personal email address.
- Campus computers: The campus community is alerted to a concern via a full-screen pop-up.
- Face-to-Face communication may be used in addition to the methods described above.
- Campus webpages (banner at top)

The content of the message will vary depending on the situation. At a minimum, the messages will describe the emergency, provide basic instructions to the community, and will direct them to where they can receive additional information.

Follow-up information will be distributed using some or all of the identified communication systems (except fire alarm).

The local news media may be utilized to disseminate emergency information to members of the larger community, including neighbors, parents, and other interested parties. The larger community can also access emergency information via the UW-Stevens Point social media.

If there is an immediate threat to the health or safety of students or employees occurring on campus UW-Stevens Point will follow its emergency notification procedures and provide follow-up information to the community as it is needed.

Students, faculty, and staff are encouraged to update their contact information or learn more about the Pointer Alerts at <http://www.uwsp.edu/rmgt/Pages/em/pointer-alerts/default.aspx>

4. Emergency Response and Evacuation Procedures

4a. Oversight

The Office of Emergency Management provides the UW-Stevens Point campus with leadership and direction in the areas of emergency preparedness; individual, team, and campus leadership training; and incident response and recovery.

Emergency procedures, including the Emergency Operations Plan for UW-Stevens Point, are located on the office website: <https://www.uwsp.edu/emergency/Pages/emergency-procedures.aspx>

The purpose of the Emergency Operations Plan is to provide guidelines for the preparation for, prevention of, response to, and recovery from natural or induced campus emergencies. An Emergency Planning Team meets as necessary to evaluate campus readiness and plan for improved responses to possible emergency situations. This team is led by the institution's Emergency Management Specialist and will oversee and evaluate emergency response training on campus.

In most cases, University Police serves as UW-Stevens Point incident command. Any member of the Emergency Operations Team may request activation of the Emergency Operations Center (EOC) via the designated EOC Manager. The EOC Manager will assemble and lead an Emergency Operations Team (EOT) comprised of specialized personnel specific to the event. The EOT shall:

- Determine the type and magnitude of the campus emergency
- Determine how the team will meet and communicate internally
- Implement the Emergency Operations Plan
- Assess and implement all necessary response steps to ensure safety, health, and promote effective recovery
- Determine necessary resources for response, including outside assistance as needed
- Coordinate necessary actions and resources throughout campus and with outside organizations
- Appoint specialized resource teams/leaders and delegate assignments
- Notify UW-System Administration and Wisconsin Department of Administration of an emergency and status
- Serve as Crisis Communication Team and implement Emergency Communications Plan
- Consult with the Chancellor on steps to preserve and maintain operational integrity
- In the recovery phase, debrief, evaluate response and advise improvements to the Chancellor's Office and Emergency Planning Team
- Delegate any needed response to appropriate UW-Stevens Point staff.

4b. System Tests

In conjunction with other emergency agencies, the University conducts emergency response drills and exercises each year, such as tabletop exercises, field exercises, and tests of the emergency notification systems on campus. These tests, which may be announced or unannounced, are designed to assess and evaluate the emergency plans and capabilities of the institution. The campus conducts at least two tests of the Pointer Alert system annually. The tests are assessed based on how well they conform to EOC and campus goals. A description of the test, the exercise, the date, time, and whether it was announced or unannounced is recorded with Emergency Management. These reports are retained in accordance with the institution's records retention policies.

4c. Emergency Evacuation Procedures

The emergency evacuation procedures for residence halls are tested at least twice each year and other facilities annually. Students and employees learn the locations of the emergency exits in the buildings and are provided guidance about the direction they should travel when exiting each facility for a short-term building evacuation. UW-Stevens Point does not tell building occupants in advance about the designated locations for long-term evacuations because those decisions are affected by time of day, location of the building being evacuated, the availability of the various designated emergency gathering locations on campus, and other factors such as the location and nature of the threat. In both cases, University Police or other staff on the scene will communicate information to students regarding the developing situation or any evacuation status changes.

The purpose of evacuation drills is to prepare building occupants for an organized evacuation in case of a fire or other emergency. At UW-Stevens Point evacuation drills are used as a way to educate and train occupants on fire safety issues specific to their building. During the drill, occupants 'practice' drill procedures and familiarize themselves with the location of exits and the sound of the fire alarm.

General Evacuation Procedures

Evacuation from buildings may be required due to emergencies such as fire, chemical spill, bomb or other threats, terrorism, or during other immediate safety and health crisis. Supervisors, Faculty, Department Heads, Managers, and other staff must advise their employees, visitors, and students on evacuation procedures.

Be familiar with all exit locations of buildings you frequent prior to an emergency. Never ignore an evacuation alarm. To do so puts your life and responding emergency personnel lives in extreme danger. It is your responsibility to evacuate and is also required by Wisconsin law. Violators will be fined.

In the event of a fire or other event (e.g., chemical spill) requiring building evacuation:

- Pull a fire alarm and leave the building. Notify others to the nature and location of emergency on your way out. Remain calm and do not panic, proceed calmly to the exterior, and never push others. If the exit is blocked or crowded, use a secondary exit.
- If time permits, shut down any hazardous equipment or processes.
- Provide assistance to those with special needs, if able. If not able, reassure them that you will send help. Provide their location to emergency responders.
- Evacuate the building using stairs and closest exit. Do not use an elevator during fires.
- From a safe location and distance, dial 9-1-1 and call University Police at 715-346-3456 with information about the emergency and its location. Note: When a fire alarm is pulled, University Police receives an electronic alarm signal stating location of the incident.
- Once evacuated, move away from the building a minimum of 100 yards and go to your designated meeting location. Ensure you are accounted for by your Supervisor, Hall Director, or Faculty. Follow directions of fire, police, and University Police. If you are aware of an individual unable to self-evacuate or in need of medical care, immediately call 9-1-1 and tell the dispatcher the exact location of the person(s). Expanded evacuation may be required depending on the hazards present. Follow directions.
- For individuals with disabilities, see the following section, Evacuations of People with Disabilities for applicable instructions.
- The individual that pulled the alarm and/or persons with information regarding stranded occupants or other emergency details must notify responding emergency personnel.

- Do not reenter the building until authorized by emergency command personnel.
- If you observe staff or students not taking an alarm seriously, please encourage them to do so. It may save their life and will reduce the risks to responding emergency personnel.

Shelter-in-Place Procedures – What it Means to “Shelter-in-Place”

If an incident occurs and the buildings or areas around you become unstable, or if the air outdoors becomes dangerous due to toxic or irritating substances, it is usually safer to stay indoors, because leaving the area may expose you to that danger. Thus, to “shelter-in-place” means to make a shelter of the building that you are in, and with a few adjustments this location can be made even safer and more comfortable until it is safe to go outside.

Basic “Shelter-in-Place” Guidance

If an incident occurs and the building you are in is not damaged, stay inside in an interior room until you are told it is safe to come out. If your building is damaged, take your personal belonging (purse, wallet, access card, etc.) and follow the evacuation procedures for your building (close your door, proceed to the nearest exit, and use the stairs instead of the elevators). Once you have evacuated, seek shelter at the nearest University building quickly. If police or fire department personnel are on the scene, follow their directions.

How You Will Know to “Shelter-in-Place”

A shelter-in-place notification may come from several sources, University Police and Security Services, University Communications and Marketing, Residential Living staff, other University employees, a community law enforcement agency, or other authorities utilizing the University’s emergency communications tools.

How to “Shelter-in-Place”

No matter where you are, the basic steps of shelter-in-place will generally remain the same. Should the need ever arise, follow these steps, unless instructed otherwise by local emergency personnel:

- If you are inside, stay where you are. Collect any emergency shelter-in-place supplies and a telephone to be used in case of emergency. If you are outdoors, proceed into the closest building quickly or follow instructions from emergency personnel on the scene.
- Locate a room to shelter inside. It should be:
 - An interior room without windows or with the least number of windows. If there is a large group of people inside a particular building, several rooms maybe necessary.
- Shut and lock all windows and close exterior doors.
- Make a list of the people with you and ask someone (hall staff, faculty, or other staff) to call the list in to University Police (715-346-3456) so they know where you are sheltering. If only students are present, one of the students should call in the list.
- Turn on a radio or TV and listen for further instructions.
- Make yourself comfortable.

5. Addressing Criminal Activity at Non-Campus Locations

The Stevens Point Police Department (SPPD) has primary jurisdiction in all non-campus locations. SPPD routinely works with UW-Stevens Point University Police and the Dean of Students office on any serious incidents occurring at non-campus locations when a UW–Stevens Point student is involved in accordance with UWS Chapter 17. UW-Stevens Point does not operate any non-campus student organization or housing facilities outside of the core campus.

6. Security and Access to Campus Facilities

Chapter UWS 21, Wisconsin Administrative Code, and institutional policies on file in the Office of the Vice Chancellor for Business Affairs, govern general access to and use of the facilities at UW–Stevens Point is governed by campus or community members.

Security is provided in the maintenance of the university’s facilities through a number of mechanisms, including limitations on hours of operation, enforced policies on key allocation, restricting access to those bearing proper identification as university staff or students, the provision of adequate lighting, plus exterior emergency “blue light” and interior “red phone” telephone call stations that are connected directly to UW-Stevens Point University Police for emergency assistance. Examples are the Health Enhancement Center, the Allen Center, and the Dreyfus University Center. Specific security mechanisms may vary with the type of university facility and are managed by the appropriate administrator of each facility. Emergencies may necessitate changes or alterations to any posted schedules.

During normal business hours, the administrative and academic facilities at UW-Stevens Point are open and accessible to students, faculty, staff, and visitors of the university. After normal business hours and during breaks, facilities are locked and only accessible to authorized individuals. University Police sworn and security officers conduct routine security and safety patrols of the academic and administrative buildings to monitor conditions and report any unusual circumstances.

Residence hall doors are locked 24 hours per day and only accessible to current residents with an access card.

7. Security Considerations Used in the Maintenance of Campus Facilities

On an annual basis, administrators from University Police and Security Services, Facilities, Residential Living, and other concerned areas conduct a campus security survey to assess landscaping, locks, alarms, lighting, and communications. Issues identified during the security survey are addressed by the department responsibility for the facility or area of campus.

8 Security Awareness Programs for Students and Employees

University Police and Security Services

University Police offer annual trainings on personal safety, emergency response, and how to respond to active violence. Their website, www.uwsp.edu/protsv, includes information about crime prevention information, educational videos (such as: Shots Fired on Campus and Flashpoint on Campus), and timely warnings are provided on the website.

Office of the Dean of Students

Dean of Students staff provides outreach presentations and information to students, faculty and staff regarding incident reporting, services available, and community rights and responsibilities. Additional presentations by university staff and community agencies surrounding topics of alcohol and other drugs, safety and security, monitoring of the physical environment by University Police, crime prevention, sexual diseases, sexual assault and harassment are provided throughout the year. The Office Dean of Students also publishes student policies, located on the Dean of Students Office website: <http://www.uwsp.edu/dos>

Residential Living

Residential Living professional and student staff participate in regular training programs to remain knowledgeable in their positions. Educational programming opportunities (both passive and active) are provided by residence hall staff throughout the academic year. All students living in the residence halls receive the Residential Living Handbook. This document can be found on the Residential Living website:

<http://www.uwsp.edu/resliving/Documents/PDF/RLhandbook.pdf>

University Centers

Student organization officers are required to attend mandatory bi-annual re-recognition training in order to remain recognized as an active student organization. Officers receive a Student Organization Handbook and this document is published on the Campus Activities and Student Engagement website:

<https://www.uwsp.edu/centers/CASE> Advisers to these organizations are trained upon appointment as a new adviser and every three years after.

Social fraternities and sororities send representatives to workshops on risk management, alcohol and hazing. These students receive information about risk factors for Greek leaders, liability reduction and creating safer communities. Greek leaders have the opportunity to attend the Association of Fraternal Leadership and Values and National Black Greek Leadership Conference.

Threat Assessment Team

The team is charged with assessing and responding to situations where a student, faculty, staff, or visitor poses a threat to other individuals. Members of the team include representatives from Dean of Students, University Police, Residential Living, Counseling Center, and the Campus Executives from both the Marshfield and Wausau branch campuses.

General Crime Prevention Tips:

- Call the police IMMEDIATELY if you see or hear something suspicious. Don't hesitate to dial 911 in an emergency. Be sure to tell them exactly where you are.
- Keep your possessions in sight at all times. Don't leave computers, cell phones, other mobile devices unattended.
- If you leave your office or room, even for a few minutes, lock the door.
- Be alert to potential danger. Trust your instincts.
- Walk with friends whenever possible or use Campus Cab (free service). If jogging, walking or biking alone, stay in well-lit and well-traveled areas.
- Shred documents you discard that contain personal information.

Protective Behaviors:

Victims of sexual assault or other violent crime are NOT responsible for being assaulted. All community members can take protective measures to increase their personal safety and the safety of others.

- When going to a party or a bar, let a friend or roommate know who you are with and where you will be. Leave an address and your phone number with them.
- Go out in groups and ask one member of the group to be the "Designated Friend" (like a Designated Driver) who checks in with members of the group throughout the night.

- Be wary of anyone who does not respect your boundaries around alcohol. Alcohol is the most commonly used predatory drug, otherwise known as a “date rape” drug.
- Do not put your drink down or let someone else get it for you. Colorless, odorless and tasteless drugs are used to facilitate rape or other crimes and can render a victim defenseless and powerless.
- If you see something unsafe, say something. Safety is everyone’s responsibility.

Safety at home:

Inspect your home or contact your landlord to ensure that you:

- Have lights in all entrances
- Have working locks on the entrances to buildings and individual apartments
- Have locks on the windows and alternate entrances such as balcony doors
- Have working smoke detectors
- Have working carbon monoxide detectors on each floor

Additional Tips:

- Don’t put your first name on your mailbox. (ex., J. Doe - not Jane Doe)
- Do not prop open the outside door of a building.
- Always know who is at your door before opening it.

Campus Emergency and Courtesy Telephones

Throughout campus there are emergency, curtesy, and code blue telephones. Each phone connects directly to UW-Stevens Point University Police. Code Blue telephones are found in various outdoor locations across campus and each has a blue light at the top of the kiosk. Additionally, each campus building has a courtesy and emergency phone. If the phone has a dial pad, call 911 or 9-911. All emergency phones are labeled “Emergency Phone.”

9. Alcohol and Drug Policies and Programs9a. Alcohol and Drug Policies

The University of Wisconsin System and UW-Stevens Point prohibit the unlawful possession, use, distribution, manufacture, sale, or dispensing of alcohol and illegal drugs by students and employees on university property or as part of university activities. It is illegal to procure for, sell, dispense, or give away alcohol to anyone who has not reached the legal drinking age of 21 years, and is unaccompanied by a parent, spouse, or guardian who has reached the legal drinking age of 21 years. It is illegal for anyone who has not reached the legal drinking age of 21 years and is unaccompanied by a parent, spouse, or guardian who has reached the legal drinking age of 21 years to procure, possess, or consume alcoholic beverages, subject to exceptions.

UW-Stevens Point and University Police enforce all local, state, and federal laws regarding the possession, use, distribution, manufacture, sale, or dispensing of alcoholic beverages on institution property and at UW-Stevens Point sponsored activities, including underage drinking. UW-Stevens Point, and University Police enforce all local, state, and federal laws regarding the possession, use, distribution, manufacture, sale, or dispensing of illegal drugs on institutional property and [institution]-sponsored activities. UW-Stevens Point expects all students, employees, and visitors to comply with all local, state, and federal alcohol and drug laws. Members of the UW-Stevens Point community who violate local, state, or federal drug and alcohol laws, or who violate UW-Stevens Point or UW-System policies regarding drug and alcohol sale, use, or possession may face criminal and/or disciplinary sanctions.

UWS 18.09(1), Wisconsin Administrative Code, prohibits the use or possession of alcoholic beverages on all university premises except as specifically permitted by institutional regulations. [Institution] has developed specific institutional regulations to permit the use and possession of alcoholic beverages by individuals above the minimum legal drinking age. Students and employees who fail to comply with [institution] regulations are subject to disciplinary action.

This policy covers the possession or consumption of alcoholic beverages by any individual on institutional lands, at institutional facilities, and at all institutional events. This policy is applicable to events held both on and off campus, including those held in other municipalities, states, and nations.

Violation of alcohol and drugs laws or policies by a student may lead to the imposition of a disciplinary sanction, up to and including suspension or expulsion, under s. UWS 17.10, Wis. Adm. Code. Alcohol and drug education programs are utilized as a conduct sanction for alcohol policy violations committed by [institution] students. For alcohol misuse, students may be referred to appropriate intervention programs to address high risk drinking practices among college students. For marijuana use, students may be referred to appropriate intervention programs to identify harm reduction strategies or minimize use. For drug or alcohol violations, students may also be required to alcohol or drug abuse assessments with a licensed clinician. Student organizations or groups violating alcohol and drug policy or laws may also be subject to discipline by UW-[institution] consistent with the [Registered Student Organization Code of Conduct]. Violations of local, state or federal laws may result in civil forfeitures or criminal prosecution.

University employees are also subject to disciplinary sanctions for violation of [institution] policies and of local, state and federal drug and alcohol laws occurring on university property or the worksite or during work time or in the course of their employment, up to and including termination from employment. Disciplinary sanctions are initiated and imposed in accordance with applicable procedural requirements and work rules, as set forth in Wisconsin statutes, administrative rules, faculty and academic staff policies, and university staff policies and procedures. Referral for prosecution under criminal law is also possible. In addition, violations of ss. UWS 18.06(13) and 18.10(1), Wis. Adm. Code may result in additional penalties as allowed under ch. UWS 18, Wis. Adm. Code.

UWSP Chapter 17: Student Non-Academic Misconduct

UWSP Chapter 17 is a part of the University of Wisconsin Administrative Code and was adopted by the Board of Regents as a set of disciplinary procedures for the University of Wisconsin System. It defines conduct by students that may result in university discipline and also describes the sanctions which may be imposed and the procedures for carrying out disciplinary actions. Due process for students accused of misconduct is an important part of these procedures. (Note: Academic misconduct is covered in UWSP Chapter 14. UWSP Chapters 17 and 18 apply to nonacademic student misconduct; faculty and academic staff are governed by UWSP Chapters 4, 7, and 11.)

Nonacademic misconduct policies cover a broad spectrum of conduct involving students' behavior wherever it takes place. A student may be subject to discipline for conduct that is or already has been the subject of criminal action. This means that a student ticketed or arrested by law enforcement may also be subject to misconduct proceedings.

The Chapter 17 process guarantees the following rights:

- Proceedings will be prompt, fair and impartial.
- Proceedings will be conducted by officials who receive, at minimum, annual training on issues related to sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence and/or stalking, and on how to conduct an investigation and hearing process that protects the safety of victims and promotes accountability.
- A hearing examiner's or committee's finding of misconduct will be based on a preponderance of the evidence standard.
- The complainant will have the same opportunity as the respondent to have others present during a disciplinary proceeding, including the opportunity to be accompanied to any related meeting or proceeding by the support person of their choice.
- UW-[institution] will not limit the choice of support person or presence of support person for either the respondent or the complainant in any meeting or institutional disciplinary proceeding; however UW-[institution] may establish restrictions regarding the extent to which the support person may participate in the proceedings that apply equally to both parties.
- The complainant and respondent will receive simultaneous notification of:
 - The result of any institutional disciplinary proceeding that arises from an allegation of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence and/or stalking.
 - UW-[institution] procedures for the complainant and respondent to appeal the result, if available.
 - Any change to the result.
 - When the result becomes final.
- Proceedings will be completed with reasonably prompt timeframes and will include a process that allows for extension of the frames for good cause with written notice to the complainant and respondent of the delay and reason for delay.
- The complainant and respondent will be provided timely notice of any meeting at which the respondent or complainant or both may be present.
- The complainant, respondent and appropriate officials will be provided timely and equal access to any information that will be used during informal and formal disciplinary meetings and hearings.
- Proceedings will be conducted by officials who do not have a conflict of interest or bias for or against the complainant or respondent.

Subchapter I — General

UWS 17.01 Policy statement. The missions of the University of Wisconsin System and its individual institutions can be realized only if the university's teaching, learning, research and service activities occur in living and learning environments that are safe and free from violence, harassment, fraud, theft, disruption and intimidation. In promoting such environments, the university has a responsibility to address student nonacademic misconduct; this responsibility is separate from and independent of any civil or criminal action resulting from a student's conduct. This chapter defines nonacademic misconduct, provides university procedures for effectively addressing misconduct, and offers educational responses to misconduct. The University of Wisconsin System is committed to respecting students' constitutional rights. Nothing in this chapter is intended to restrict students' constitutional rights, including rights of freedom of speech or to peaceably assemble with others.

UWS 17.02 Definitions. In this chapter:

- (1) "Chief administrative officer" means the chancellor of an institution or the chancellor's designees.

At UW-Stevens Point, the Chief administrative officer for conduct is the Dean of Students or their designee.

- (2) "Clear and convincing evidence" means information that would persuade a reasonable person to have a firm belief that a proposition is more likely true than not true. It is a higher standard of proof than "preponderance of the evidence."

This shall include information upon which the university does not intend to rely in reaching a determination regarding responsibility as well as any inculpatory or exculpatory evidence.
 - (b) At least 10 days to submit a written response to the evidence, which the investigator shall consider prior to completion of the final investigative report.

- (6) FINAL INVESTIGATIVE REPORT. The investigator shall create an investigative report that fairly summarizes relevant evidence. The final investigative report may contain recommended determinations as to whether sexual misconduct occurred and specification of any sanction recommended. The final investigative report shall be delivered simultaneously to the respondent and complainant and their advisors, if any, for their review and response at least 10 days prior to a hearing. Upon distribution of the final investigative report to the complainant and respondent, the following conditions shall apply:

 - (b) Before a party or witness answers a cross-examination or other question, the hearing examiner or committee shall first determine whether a question is relevant or not and explain any decision to exclude those questions as not relevant.
 - (c) The hearing examiner or committee may not draw an inference regarding responsibility based solely on a party's or a witness's absence from the hearing or refusal to answer cross-examination questions.
 - (d) At hearings involving Title IX misconduct, if a party or a witness does not submit to cross-examination at the hearing, then the hearing examiner or committee may not rely on any statement of that party or witness made prior to or during the hearing in reaching a determination regarding responsibility.

10. Preparation and Disclosure of Crime Statistics

The Office of the Dean of Students prepared this report to comply with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Crime Statistics Act. This report is prepared in cooperation with the local law enforcement agencies surrounding our main campus, law enforcement agencies with jurisdiction for other UW-Stevens Point properties, University Police, Residential Living, the Campus Activities and Student Engagement office, Emergency Management, the Division of Student Affairs and other campus offices. Each entity provides updated information on the educational efforts and programs to comply with the Clery Act.

Campus crime, arrest and referral statistics include those reported to the Office of the Dean of Students, UWSP University Police, designated campus officials (included but not limited to directors, deans, department heads, designated Residential Living staff, advisors to students/student organizations, athletic coaches), and local law enforcement agencies. The online reporting process available through the Office of the Dean of Students website provides a mechanism for submitting anonymous reports.

Each year, an e-mail notification is made to all enrolled students as well as current faculty and staff that provided the web site to access this report. Copies of the report may also be obtained by contacting the Office of the Dean of Students at dos@uwsp.edu or by calling 715-346-2611. 11. Missing Student Notification

This policy, with its accompanying procedures, establishes a framework for cooperation among members of the university community aimed at locating and assisting students who are reported missing. A student shall be deemed missing when they are absent from the University for more than 24 hours without any known reason. All reports of missing students shall be directed to University Police (715-346-3456). University Police shall investigate each report and decide whether the student is missing in accordance with this policy.

All residential students are informed that they shall have the annual opportunity to identify an individual to be contacted by University Police in the event the student is determined missing (no later than 24 hours after they are determined to be missing). Contact information for the identified person is entered on a student's Gold Card and kept in that student's residence hall. If a missing student is under 18 years of age, University Police is required to notify the parent or guardian, in addition to notifying any additional contact person designated by the student, of the missing student not later than 24 hours after determination was made that the student is missing. University Police will also notify area law enforcement no later than 24 hours after it determines that the student is missing, unless the local law enforcement agency was the entity that made the determination that the student is missing.

However, once a report is made to the University, or the University has notice of an incident of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, confidentiality cannot be guaranteed unless that information is reported directly to confidential resources (e.g., UWSP Counseling Center).

For victims aged 18 and older who report to non-confidential sources, relevant information will be shared only with those who need to know, such as Title IX Coordinators and Deputy Coordinators, complaint investigators, and other individuals who are responsible for handling the school's response to incidents of sexual violence. In the case of minors, UW-Stevens Point employees must report child abuse to Child University Police or local law enforcement.

UW-Stevens Point must respond to court ordered subpoenas that are not prohibited by other applicable law, and may not be able to redact information when responding to a subpoena.

University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point does not discriminate on the basis of sex in its educational programs and sexual harassment and sexual violence are types of sex discrimination. 14a2. Dating Violence - VAWA Definition

Dating violence is defined as violence committed by a person A) who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim; and B) where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on consideration of the following factors:

- The length of the relationship
- The type of relationship

In the state of Wisconsin, a dating relationship is further defined as a romantic or intimate social relationship between two adult individuals but “dating relationship” does not include a casual relationship or an ordinary fraternization between two individuals in a business or social context. A court shall determine if a dating relationship existed by considering the length of the relationship, the type of the relationship, and the frequency of the interaction between the adult individuals involved in the relationship.

- The state of Wisconsin does not have a definition of dating violence as a unique offense.

14b. Education Programs

The University engages in comprehensive educational programming to prevent domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking. Educational programming consists of primary prevention and awareness programs for all incoming students and new employees and ongoing awareness and prevention campaigns for students and faculty that:

- Are culturally relevant, inclusive of diverse communities and identities, sustainable, responsive to community needs, and informed by research, or assessed for value, effectiveness, or outcome
- Consider environmental risk and protective factors as they occur on the individual, relationship, institutional, community and societal levels

- Identifies domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking as defined by the Clery Act as prohibited conduct
- Defines what behavior constitutes domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking, according to any applicable jurisdictional definitions of these terms
- Defines what behavior and actions constitute consent to sexual activity in the State of Wisconsin
- Defines consent in the State of Wisconsin, the standard used by UW-Stevens Point,
- Provides safe and positive options for bystander intervention that may be carried out by an individual to prevent harm or intervene when there is a risk of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking against a person other than the bystander
- Provides information on risk reduction so that students and employees may recognize warning signs of abusive behavior and how to avoid potential attacks
- Provides an overview of information contained in the Annual Security Report in compliance with the Clery Act. Information regarding:
 - Procedures victims should follow if a crime of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking occurs (as described in “Procedures Victims Should Follow if a Crime of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault and Stalking Occurs” below)
 - Existing counseling, health, mental health, victim advocacy, legal assistance, visa and immigration assistance, student financial aid, and other services available for victims, both within the institution and in the community (as described in “Counseling and Other Services for Victims” below); and
 - Options for, available assistance in, and how to request changes to academic, living, transportation, and working situations or protective measures (as described in “Accommodations and Protective Measures Available for Victims” below)

UW-Stevens Point has developed an annual educational campaign for students consisting of a web-based educational program for all new students (Sexual Assault Prevention for Undergraduates); an education session during Welcome Weekend; distribution of educational materials in classroom presentations; ongoing programs throughout the year for all students, including sessions such as: skits, clothesline projects, a residence hall speaker series, an annual poster series, and bystander intervention training opportunities.

The University is continuing to improve upon the annual educational campaign for faculty and staff by regularly participating in and presenting information and materials during new employee orientation and requiring completion of a web-based training program regarding the role of faculty and staff in assisting students who disclose abuse or an assault.

14c. Procedures Victims Should Follow if a Crime of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault and Stalking Occurs

The University has procedures in place that serve to be sensitive to victims who report sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking, including informing individuals about their right to file criminal charges as well as the availability of counseling, health, mental health, victim advocacy, legal assistance, visa and immigration assistance, student financial aid and other services on and/or off campus as well as additional remedies to prevent contact between a complainant and an accused party, such as changes to housing, academic, protective orders, transportation and working situations, if reasonably available. The University will make such accommodations or protective measures, if the victim requests them and if they are reasonable available, regardless of whether the victim chooses to report the crime to University Police or local law enforcement.

- Seek medical attention immediately. A hospital visit is highly recommended. It is important to preserve evidence toward the proof of sexual assault, even if you chose not to make a report to law enforcement.
 - Saint Michael's Hospital ER (off campus), 900 Illinois Ave, Stevens Point, 715-346-5100
Confidential reporting resource; (SANE) Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner services to address injuries, collect evidence, offer medications to prevent STIs and emergency contraception.
 - Marshfield Medical Center ER (off campus), 611 N. St. Josephs Ave., Marshfield, 715-387-7677
Confidential reporting resource; (SANE) Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner services to address injuries, collect evidence, offer medications to prevent STIs and emergency contraception.
 - Aspirus Wausau Hospital ER (off campus), 333 Pine Ridge Blvd., Wausau, 715-847-2000
Confidential reporting resource; (SANE) Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner services to address injuries, collect evidence, offer medications to prevent STIs and emergency contraception.
 - Student Health Service (students on Stevens Point campus) can also carry out a non-evidentiary exam at no cost to students and will keep your visit confidential. Delzell Hall, 715-346-4646.
- Victims of sexual assault, domestic violence, stalking, and dating violence are encouraged to also preserve evidence by saving text messages, instant messages, social networking pages, other communications, and keeping pictures, logs or other copies of documents, if they have any, that would be useful to university adjudicators/investigators or police.
- As time passes, evidence may dissipate or become lost or unavailable, thereby making investigation, possible prosecution, disciplinary proceedings, or obtaining protection from abuse orders related to the incident more difficult. If a victim chooses not to make a complaint regarding an incident, they nevertheless should consider speaking with Campus Public Safety or other law enforcement to preserve evidence in the event that the victim decides to report the incident to law enforcement or the University at a later date to assist in proving that the alleged criminal offense occurred or that may be helpful in obtaining a protection order.
- If you have been the victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, you should report the incident promptly to the Title IX Coordinator, (Eric Roesler, 133 Old Main, Stevens Point, 715-346-3975, eroesler@uwsp.edu, link to online reporting) by calling, writing, or coming into the office to report in person and to University Police, if the victim so desires. University Police can be contacted at 715-346-3456 and are located in the George Stein Building on campus (Stevens Point).
 - Reports of student-against-student interpersonal violence can also be made in person or online through Office of the Dean of Students. The online report can be found at www.uwsp.edu/dos
 - Reports of all domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking made to University Police or the Dean of Students will automatically be referred to the Title IX Coordinator for investigation regardless of if the complainant chooses to pursue criminal or campus charges.
- Reports involving faculty or staff should be reported directly to Human Resources (715-346-2606; 133 Old Main, Stevens Point).
- You are encouraged, but not required, to also report the incident to UWSP University Police or local law enforcement. The Title IX Coordinator or the Office of the Dean of Students can assist you with this process.
- Seek assistance from a professional counselor. Free counseling for students is available through the UWSP Counseling Center and the Counseling Center is a confidential reporting location.

14f. Accommodations and Protective Measures Available for Victims

The Title IX Coordinator or designee will determine whether interim interventions and protective measure should be implemented, and, if so, take steps to implement those protective measures as soon as possible. Examples of interim protective measures include but are not limited to an order of no contact, residence hall relocation, adjustment of course schedules, a leave of absence, or reassignment to a different supervisor or position. These remedies may be applied to one, both, and to other parties involved.

Violations of the Title IX Coordinator's directives and/or protective measures will constitute related violations that may lead to additional disciplinary action. Interim or protective measures imposed may be temporary pending the results of an investigation or may become permanent as determined by the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point.

Upon receipt of a report of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking, UW-Stevens Pont will provide written notification to students and employees about accommodations available to them, including academic, living, transportation, protective orders and working situations. The written notification will include information regarding the accommodation options, available assistance in requesting accommodations, and how to request accommodations and protective measures (i.e., the notification will include the name and contact information for the individual or office that should be contacted to request the accommodations).

At the victim's request, and to the extent of the victim's cooperation and consent, university offices will work cooperatively to assist the victim in obtaining accommodations. If reasonably available, a victim may be offered changes to academic, living, working, protective measures or transportation situations regardless of whether the victim chooses to report the crime to campus police or local law enforcement. Examples of options for a potential change to the academic situation may be to transfer to a different section of a class, withdraw and take a class at another time if there is no option for moving to a different section, etc. Potential changes to living situations may include moving to a different room or residence hall. Possible changes to work situations may include changing working hours. Possible changes in transportation may include having the student or employee park in a different location, assisting the student or employee with a safety escort, etc.

To request changes to academic, living, transportation and/or working situations or protective measures, a victim should contact the Title IX Coordinator (Eric Roesler, 133 Old Main, 715-346-3975, eroesler@uwsp.edu). If the victim wishes to receive assistance in requesting these accommodations, she or he should contact the Office of the Dean of Students (715-346-2611, dos@uwsp.edu, 212 Old Main (Stevens Point campus)).

Rights of Victims and the Institution's Responsibilities for Orders of Protection, "No Contact" Orders, Restraining Orders, or Similar Lawful Orders Issued by a Criminal, Civil, or Tribal Court or by the Institution

The University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point also complies with Wisconsin law in recognizing orders of protection (injunction/restraining orders). Any person who obtains an order of protection or restraining order from Wisconsin or any state should provide a copy to University Police and the Office of the Title IX Coordinator.

A complainant may then meet with University Police and Security Services to develop a safety action plan, which is a plan for campus police and the victim to reduce risk of harm while on campus or coming and going from campus. This plan may include, but in not limited to escorts, special parking arrangements, providing a temporary cellphone, changing classroom locations, or allowing a student to complete assignments from home, etc. The University cannot apply for a legal order of protection, no contact order or restraining order for a victim from the applicable jurisdiction(s). (UWSP Police and Security Services, George Stein Building, Stevens Point campus; 715-346-3456)

UW-Stevens Point may issue an institutional no contact order and/or location restrictions if deemed appropriate or at the request of the victim or accused. If the University receives a report that such an institutional no contact order has been Restraining Orders and No Contact Orders

The following information is provided by the Wisconsin Department of Justice, available at <https://www.doj.state.wi.us/ocvs/victim-rights/restraining-orders>, and the Wisconsin Coalition Against Sexual Assault, available at http://www.wcasa.org/file_open.php?id=184.

Restraining Order

A restraining order is a court order that orders someone not to hurt you, to stay away from you, move out of the house, have no contact with you, or stop harassing you.

To get a restraining order, you must first request papers for a temporary restraining order (TRO). These papers are called the petition. The person completing the petition is called the petitioner and the person you file against is called the respondent. Once you file a TRO petition, the court decides whether or not to issue a TRO based on the information you write in the petition. If the court grants the TRO, the court will schedule a hearing for you to come back to court within 14 days. This hearing is called an injunction hearing. At that hearing you will ask the court to issue a final order of protection, which is called an injunction. An injunction can be granted for up to 2 years for child abuse, and up to 4 years for domestic abuse, harassment, and individuals at risk.¹⁹

Restraining order forms can be found at <http://www.wicourts.gov/forms1/circuit.htm>, under the heading “civil.” In addition, the clerk of court in your county can provide you with the appropriate forms and limited information as to how to complete them. A list of clerks of court by county can be found at <http://www.wicourts.gov/contact/docs/clerks.pdf>.

Sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence and stalking victims sometimes ask if Restraining Orders are necessary if there is no criminal action pending. ROs do provide protections that are unavailable through the criminal trial process, such as the authority for law enforcement to make an immediate arrest if a violation occurs. Sexual assault victims also ask if the RO process can detrimentally impact a criminal case or ask which RO to obtain if the victim’s situation would allow them to obtain more than one type of RO. These can be complicated questions. The victim may want to discuss these concerns with the district attorney or with an advocate at a sexual assault program. Ultimately, these decisions lie with the victim because the victim is the person best able to determine what will keep them safe. For a list of sexual assault programs, please see www.wcasa.org. In addition to providing information to victims about restraining orders, advocates can help victims develop a detailed safety plan and let the victim know what other services might be available to them.²⁰

Harassment Restraining Orders (HROs)

An HRO may be the only remedy available to some victims sexually assaulted or stalked by someone with whom they have not had an intimate relationship. Grounds include but are not limited to:

¹⁹ Wisconsin Department of Justice (2017). Restraining Orders, available at <https://www.doj.state.wi.us/ocvs/victim-rights/restraining-orders>.

The injunction can be granted for up to two years or until the child reaches 18, whichever is first. Firearms surrender is mandatory if a CARO is granted. If the respondent is the parent of the child victim, a CARO may also set or restrict visitation rights.

Enforcing a Restraining Order:

Call the police immediately if the respondent violates the Restraining Order. (911 or University Police and Security Services at 715-346-3456). The respondent has just committed a crime. Ask the police to have the District Attorney's office review the case for charges even if no arrest is made. If the respondent is on probation or parole, give a copy of the Restraining Order to the parole agent and report any violations. You can find out who their probation agent is by calling the Department of Corrections Central Records at (608) 240-3750 and providing the person's name or birthday.

14g. Campus Disciplinary Process Procedures

UWS Chapter 17 is a part of the University of Wisconsin Administrative Code and was adopted by the Board of Regents as a set of disciplinary procedures for the University System. It defines conduct by students that may result in university discipline because it causes harm either to another member of the University community or to the University itself. Due process for students accused of misconduct is an important part of these procedures. (Note: Academic misconduct is covered in UWS Chapter 14.

UWS Chapters 17 and 18 apply to nonacademic student misconduct; faculty and academic staff are governed by UWS Chapters 4, 7, and 11.)

Nonacademic misconduct policies cover a broad spectrum of conduct involving students' behavior wherever it takes place. A student may be subject to discipline for conduct that is or already has been the subject of criminal action. This means that a student ticketed or arrested by law enforcement may also be subject to misconduct proceedings. A student may also be subject to discipline for conduct occurring in campus residence halls.

UWSP Chapter 17Subchapter III — Procedures for Student Nonacademic Discipline in Sexual Misconduct Cases

UWS 17.151 Sexual misconduct subject to disciplinary action under ss. UWS 17.152 to 17.156. In accordance with s. UWS 17.08, the university may discipline a student for engaging in, attempting to engage in, or assisting others to engage in any of the following types of nonacademic misconduct. Sexual misconduct, as defined in this section, shall use the disciplinary procedure, hearing, appeal, and settlement processes detailed in ss. UWS 17.152 to 17.156.

- (1) SEXUAL HARASSMENT. Conduct on the basis of sex that satisfies any of the following:
 - (a) Unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature directed towards a student, an employee, or a person participating in an education program or activity of the university that when using the legal "reasonable person" standard, is so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that it effectively denies the person equal access to the institution's education program or activity.
 - (b) Unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature directed towards an individual that, when using the legal "reasonable person" standard, is so severe or pervasive and objectively offensive that it has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's academic or work performance or participation in a university sponsored or supported activity.
- (2) SEXUAL ASSAULT. An offense that meets any of the following definitions:
 - (a) Rape: The penetration, no matter how slight, of the vagina or anus, with any body part or object, or oral penetration by a sex organ of another person, without the consent of the complainant.

UWS 17.152 Sexual misconduct disciplinary procedure.

- (1) PROCESS. The investigating officer may proceed in accordance with this section to impose, subject to hearing and appeal rights, one or more of the disciplinary sanctions listed in s. UWS 17.085 \(1\), for sexual misconduct defined in s. UWS 17.151, and conduct described in s. UWS 17.09 may be consolidated with sexual misconduct charges pursuant to this section and consistent with s. UWS 17.08. When responding to sexual misconduct, the university may take the following actions:
- (a) The university may consolidate disciplinary procedures as to allegations of sexual misconduct, as defined in s. UWS 17.151, against more than one respondent, or by more than one complainant against one or more respondents, or by one party against the other party, where the allegations of sexual misconduct arise out of the same facts or circumstances.
 - (b) In consultation with the complainant, the university may choose to address allegations of sexual misconduct with non-disciplinary measures outside the procedures of this chapter. Non-disciplinary measures may include supportive measures and protective measures for complainant, which may or may not involve the respondent.
- (2) TITLE IX MISCONDUCT. Either a complainant or the Title IX Coordinator may file the formal Title IX complaint as defined in s. UWS 17.02 \(8m\). Unless a formal Title IX complaint is dismissed under par. (a) or (b), sexual misconduct under this section shall also be considered “Title IX misconduct” and require associated process. Dismissals will be handled as follows:
- (a) The university shall dismiss a formal Title IX complaint that does not meet all of the following requirements:
 - 1. The alleged conduct is on the basis of sex and meets the definitions of sexual harassment, as defined in s. UWS 17.151 \(1\) \(a\), or sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking, as defined in s. UWS 17.151 \(2\) to \(5\).
 - 2. The alleged conduct occurred within a university “education program or activity,” as defined in s. UWS 17.02 \(7m\).
 - 3. The alleged conduct occurred against the complainant while in the United States.
 - 4. The complainant is participating in or attempting to participate in the university's education program or activity at the time the complaint is filed.
 - (b) The university may dismiss a formal Title IX complaint if any of the following conditions are met at any time during the disciplinary procedure or hearing:
 - 1. The complainant notifies the Title IX Coordinator in writing that the complainant would like to withdraw the formal Title IX complaint or any allegations therein.
 - 2. The respondent is no longer enrolled in the university.
 - 3. Specific circumstances prevent the university from gathering evidence sufficient to reach a determination as to the formal Title IX complaint or allegations therein.
 - (c) Upon dismissal of a formal Title IX complaint, the university shall promptly send written notice of the dismissal and reason therefore simultaneously to the complainant and respondent. The complainant and respondent have the right to appeal the dismissal of a formal Title IX complaint under s. UWS 17.154 \(1\).
 - (d) Dismissal of a formal Title IX complaint does not preclude other university action under this chapter.
- (3) NOTICE OF INVESTIGATION. When the investigating officer concludes that proceedings under this section are warranted, the investigating officer shall promptly distribute a written notice of investigation in person, by telephone or by electronic mail, to the complainant and respondent. The notice of investigation shall include all of the following:

- (a) The details known at the time of issuing notice, including:
 - 1. The identities of the complainant and respondent involved in the incident, if known.
 - 2. The conduct allegedly constituting sexual misconduct.
 - 3. The date and location of alleged incident, if known.
 - (b) Notice to the complainant and respondent that they may have an advisor of their choice, who may be an attorney.
 - (c) Notice to the complainant and respondent that they may inspect and review evidence collected during the investigation.
 - (d) Notice that making a knowingly false statement or refusing to comply regarding a university matter may violate s. UWS 17.09 \(11\) and could result in additional sanctions.
 - (e) Notice that the respondent is presumed not responsible for the alleged sexual misconduct until a determination regarding responsibility is made at the conclusion of the disciplinary procedure.
 - (f) Notice if the sexual misconduct disciplinary procedure also involves Title IX misconduct.
 - (g) Information about the nonacademic misconduct process available under this chapter and about any available informal resolution process.
 - (h) If, during the course of an investigation, the university decides to investigate allegations that are not included in the notice of investigation, the university shall send an amended notice of investigation with additional allegations.
- (4) INVESTIGATION. During the investigation, the investigating officer shall do all of the following:
- (a) Provide an equal opportunity for the parties to present witnesses, including fact and expert witnesses, and other inculpatory and exculpatory evidence.
 - (b) Not restrict the ability of either party to discuss the allegations under investigation or to gather and present relevant evidence.
 - (c) Provide the parties with the same opportunities to have others present during any grievance proceeding, including the opportunity to be accompanied to any related meeting or proceeding by the advisor of their choice, who may be, but is not required to be, an attorney, and not limit the choice or presence of advisor for either the complainant or respondent in any meeting or grievance proceeding; the university may, however, establish restrictions regarding the extent to which the advisor may participate in the proceedings, as long as the restrictions apply equally to both parties.
 - (d) Provide, to a party whose participation is invited or expected, written notice of the date, time, location, participants, and purpose of all hearings, investigative interviews, or other meetings, with sufficient time for the party to prepare to participate.
 - (e) Not access, consider, disclose, or otherwise use a party's records that are made or maintained by a physician, psychiatrist, psychologist, or other recognized professional or paraprofessional acting in the professional's or paraprofessional's capacity, or assisting in that capacity, and which are made and maintained in connection with the provision of treatment to the party, unless the university obtains that party's voluntary, written consent to do so for a grievance process under this section.
- (5) REVIEW OF EVIDENCE. Prior to completion of the final investigative report, as described in sub. \(6\), the university shall provide the complainant and respondent and their advisors, if any:

- (a) The evidence gathered during the university's investigation that is directly related to the allegations of sexual misconduct, in an electronic format or hard copy, regardless of whether obtained from a party or other source, so that each party can meaningfully respond to the evidence prior to conclusion of the investigation. This shall include information upon which the university does not intend to rely in reaching a determination regarding responsibility as well as any inculpatory or exculpatory evidence.
 - (b) At least 10 days to submit a written response to the evidence, which the investigator shall consider prior to completion of the final investigative report.
- (6) FINAL INVESTIGATIVE REPORT. The investigator shall create an investigative report that fairly summarizes relevant evidence. The final investigative report may contain recommended determinations as to whether sexual misconduct occurred and specification of any sanction recommended. The final investigative report shall be delivered simultaneously to the respondent and complainant and their advisors, if any, for their review and response at least 10 days prior to a hearing. Upon distribution of the final investigative report to the complainant and respondent, the following conditions shall apply:
- (a) The complainant and respondent have the right to a hearing under s. UWS 17.153 for a formal determination as to whether sexual misconduct occurred, potential disciplinary sanctions, or both.
 - (b) The university shall proceed under s. UWS 17.153 to schedule a hearing on the matter. A hearing shall be conducted unless the complainant and respondent waive, in writing, the right to such a hearing or otherwise voluntarily choose to proceed with a settlement agreement or informal resolution under s. UWS 17.156.

UWS 17.153 Sexual misconduct hearing.

- (1) The university shall have the right to decide whether a hearing examiner or hearing committee shall hear the matter.
- (2) The university shall take the necessary steps to convene the hearing and shall schedule it within 15 days of the distribution of the final investigative report. The hearing shall be conducted within 45 days of the distribution of the final investigative report, unless a different time period is mutually agreed upon by the complainant, respondent and university or is ordered or permitted by the hearing examiner or committee.
- (3) No less than 10 days in advance of the hearing, the hearing examiner or committee shall obtain from the investigating officer, in writing, the final investigative report and any additional available information of the type described in s. UWS 17.152 (4).
- (4) The hearing shall be conducted in accordance with all of the following guidance and requirements:
 - (a) The hearing process shall further the educational purposes and reflect the university context of nonacademic misconduct proceedings. The process need not conform to state or federal rules of criminal or civil procedure, except as expressly provided in this chapter.
 - (b) Both the complainant and respondent shall have the right to question adverse witnesses, the right to present information and witnesses, the right to be heard on their own behalf, and the right to be accompanied by an advisor of their choice. The advisor may be a lawyer. In accordance with the educational purposes of the hearing, the complainant and respondent are expected to respond on their own behalf to questions asked of them during the hearing.
 - (c) The hearing examiner or committee:
 - 1. Shall admit information that has reasonable value in proving the facts, but may exclude immaterial, irrelevant, or unduly repetitious testimony.
 - 2. May not permit questions and evidence about the complainant's sexual predisposition or prior sexual behavior unless:

- a. Such questions and evidence about the complainant's prior sexual behavior are offered to prove that someone other than the respondent committed the conduct alleged by the complainant, or
 - b. The questions and evidence concern specific incidents of the complainant's prior sexual behavior with respect to the respondent and are offered to prove consent.
 - 3. Shall observe recognized legal privileges including those described in s. UWS 17.152 \(4\) \(e\).
 - 4. May take reasonable steps to maintain order and adopt procedures for the questioning of parties or witnesses appropriate to the circumstances of the testimony, provided the advisors for the complainant and respondent are allowed to effectively cross-examine any party or witness.
- (5) The party's advisors shall conduct cross examination directly, orally, and in real time by the party's advisor. A party may not personally conduct cross examination. The following conditions shall apply:
- (a) If a party does not have an advisor at the hearing to conduct cross-examination, the university shall provide someone, without fee or charge, who may or may not be an attorney, to conduct cross-examination.
 - (b) Before a party or witness answers a cross-examination or other question, the hearing examiner or committee shall first determine whether a question is relevant or not and explain any decision to exclude those questions as not relevant.
 - (c) The hearing examiner or committee may not draw an inference regarding responsibility based solely on a party's or a witness's absence from the hearing or refusal to answer cross-examination questions.
 - (d) At hearings involving Title IX misconduct, if a party or a witness does not submit to cross-examination at the hearing, then the hearing examiner or committee may not rely on any statement of that party or witness made prior to or during the hearing in reaching a determination regarding responsibility.
- (6) If a party fails to appear at a scheduled hearing and to proceed, the hearing examiner or committee may issue a decision based upon the information provided except as described in sub. \(5\) \(d\).
- (7) The hearing examiner or committee shall make a record of the hearing. The record shall include a verbatim record of the testimony, which may be a sound recording, and a file of all evidence presented at the hearing. The respondent and the complainant may access the record, except as may be precluded by applicable state or federal law.
- (8) The hearing examiner or committee shall prepare written findings of fact and a written statement of its decision based upon the record of the hearing, using the preponderance of the evidence standard. The written report shall include all of the following:
- (a) Identification of the allegations potentially constituting sexual misconduct.

 - (c) Findings of fact supporting the determination.
 - (d) Conclusions regarding the application of this chapter to the facts.
 - (e) A statement of, and rationale for, the result as to each allegation, including a determination regarding responsibility under this subchapter, including any Title IX misconduct, any disciplinary sanctions the university imposes on the respondent, and whether remedies designed to restore or preserve equal access to the university's education program or activity shall be provided by the university to the complainant.

- (f) One or more of the disciplinary sanctions listed in s. UWS 17.085 \(1\), if imposed by the hearing examiner or committee.
 - (g) Procedures and permissible bases for the complainant and respondent to appeal.
- (9) The decision of the hearing examiner or committee shall be prepared within 14 days of the hearing, and delivered simultaneously to the respondent and the complainant, excluding information that may be precluded by state or federal law. If an appeal is filed, the decision regarding responsibility becomes final on the date the university provides the complainant and respondent with the written determination of the result of the appeal. If no appeal is filed, the decision regarding responsibility becomes final once the last date to appeal passes.
- (10) Disciplinary hearings are subject to s. 19.85, Stats., Wisconsin Open Meetings of Governmental Bodies, and may be closed if the respondent or complainant requests a closed hearing or if the hearing examiner or committee determines it is necessary to hold a closed hearing. Deliberations of the committee shall be held in closed session, in accordance with s. 19.85, Stats. As such, proper notice and other applicable rules shall be followed.

UWS 17.154 Appeal to the chancellor for sexual misconduct.

 - (e) The Title IX Coordinator, investigator, hearing examiner, or a member of the hearing committee had a conflict of interest or bias for or against complainants or respondents generally or the individual complainant or respondent that affected the outcome of the matter.
- (3) If the chief administrative officer makes a finding under sub. (2), the chief administrative officer may return the matter for consideration, or may invoke an appropriate remedy of their own. The chief administrative officer's written decision describing the result of the appeal and the rationale for the result shall be communicated simultaneously to the respondent and complainant.
- (4) When an appeal is filed, the chief administrative officer shall notify the other party in writing and give both the complainant and respondent a reasonable, equal opportunity to submit a written statement supporting or challenging the outcome.

14i. Confidentiality

The university will protect the identity of persons who report having been victims of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking to the fullest extent of the law. Victims may request that directory information on file with the University be withheld by request by contacting the Registrar's Office (715-346-2558; 101 Student Services Center, Stevens Point).

Regardless of whether a victim has opted-out of allowing the University to share "directory information," personally identifiable information about the victim and other necessary parties will be treated as confidential and only shared with persons who have a specific need-to-know, i.e., those who are investigating/adjudicating the report or those involved in providing support services to the victim, including accommodations and protective measures. By only sharing personally identifiable information with individuals on a need-to-know basis, the institution will maintain as confidential, any accommodations or protective measures provided to the victim to the extent that maintaining such confidentiality would not impair the ability of the institution to provide the accommodations or protective measures.

The University does not publish the name of crime victims or other identifiable information regarding victims in the Daily Crime Log or in the annual crime statistics that are disclosed in compliance with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act. Furthermore, if a Timely Warning Notice is issued on the basis of a report of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking, the name of the victim and other personally identifiable information about the victim will be withheld.

14j. Rights of Victims & Alleged Assailants of Sexual Assault

36.11(22)(1)(c) Wis. Stats.

- The right of the victim/survivor and alleged assailant to have the same opportunity to have one representative accompany them in a university disciplinary hearing.
- The right of the victim/survivor and alleged assailant to be informed of the outcome of any disciplinary hearing involving sexual assault.
- The right of the victim/survivor and alleged assailant right to appeal the outcome of a formal disciplinary hearing.

14k. Rights for alleged cases of Sexual Assault, Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, and Stalking

In all instances, the process will be conducted in a manner that is consistent with the institution's policy and that is transparent to the accuser and the accused. Usually, the resolution of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking complaints are completed within 60 days of the report. However, each proceeding allows for extensions of timeframes for good cause with written notice to the accuser and the accused of the delay and the reason for the delay. The accuser and the accused will have timely notice for meetings at which the accuser or accused, or both, may be present.

- The accuser, the accused and appropriate officials will have timely and equal access to any information that will be used during formal and informal disciplinary meeting and hearings.

- The institutional disciplinary procedures will not be conducted by officials who have a conflict of interest or bias for or against the accuser or the accused.
- Disciplinary proceedings that provide a prompt, fair, and impartial initial investigation and final resolution.
- Disciplinary proceedings that are conducted by panel members who receive annual training on the issues related to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking and how to conduct an investigation and hearing process that protects the safety of victims and promotes accountability. Training topics include information about the student conduct process, standards of evidence, questioning, and interpersonal violence.
- The same opportunity to have others present throughout disciplinary proceedings as the accused, including the opportunity to be accompanied to any related meeting or proceeding by an advisor of their choice. The University will not limit the choice of advisor or presence for either the accuser or the accused in any meeting or institutional disciplinary proceeding.

14I. Risk Reduction

General guidance

With no intent to victim blame and recognizing that only abusers are responsible for their abuse, the following are some strategies to reduce one's risk of sexual assault or harassment (taken from Rape, Abuse, & Incest National Network, www.rainn.org)

- Be aware of your surroundings. Knowing where you are and who is around you may help you to find a way to get out of a bad situation.
- Try to avoid isolated areas. It is more difficult to get help if no one is around.
- Walk with purpose. Even if you don't know where you are going, act like you do.

- Try not to load yourself down with packages or bags as this can make you appear more vulnerable.
- Make sure your cell phone is with you and charged and that you have cash money.
- Don't allow yourself to be isolated with someone you don't trust or someone you don't know.
- Avoid putting music headphones in both ears so that you can be more aware of your surroundings, especially if you are walking alone.
- When you go to a social gathering, go with a group of friends. Arrive together, check in with each other throughout the evening, and leave together. Knowing where you are and who is around you may help you to find a way out of a bad situation.
- Trust your instincts. If you feel unsafe in any situation, go with your gut. If you see something suspicious, contact law enforcement immediately (local authorities can be reached by calling 911 in most areas of the U.S.).
- Avoid or limit alcohol consumption. Alcohol does not cause sexual assault, but it is often involved or used as a tool. The more alcohol you consume, the more intoxicated you become and the more vulnerable you are to victimization.
- Don't leave your drink unattended while talking, dancing, using the restroom, or making a phone call. If you've left your drink alone, just get a new one.
- Don't accept drinks from people you don't know or trust. If you choose to accept a drink, go with the person to the bar to order it, watch it being poured, and carry it yourself. At parties, don't drink from the punch bowls or other large, common open containers.
- Watch out for your friends, and vice versa. If a friend seems out of it, is way too intoxicated for the amount of alcohol they've had, or is acting out of character, get him or her to a safe place immediately.
- If you suspect you or a friend has been drugged, contact law enforcement immediately (local authorities can be reached by calling 911 in most areas of the U.S.). Be explicit with doctors so they can give you the correct tests (you will need a urine test and possibly others).
- If you need to get out of an uncomfortable or scary situation here are some things that you can try:
 - Remember that being in this situation is not your fault. You did not do anything wrong; it is the person who is making you uncomfortable that is to blame.
 - Be true to yourself. Do not feel obligated to do anything you do not want to do. "I don't want to" is always a good enough reason. Do what feels right to you and what you are comfortable with.
 - Have a code word with your friends or family so that if you do not feel comfortable you can call them and communicate your discomfort without the person you are with knowing. Your friends or family can then come to get you or make up an excuse for you to leave.
 - Lie. If you do not want to hurt the person's feelings it is better to lie and make up a reason to leave than to stay and be uncomfortable, scared, or worse. Some excuses you could use are needing to take care of a friend or family member, not feeling well, having somewhere else that you need to be, etc.
- Try to think of an escape route. How would you try to get out of the room? Where are the doors? Windows? Are there people around who might be able to help you? Is there an emergency phone nearby?
- If you and/or the other person have been drinking, you can say that you would rather wait until you both have your full judgment before doing anything you may regret later

Be an active bystander.

If you witness something happening, step in. Bystanders play a critical role in the prevention of sexual and relationship violence. They are "individuals who observe violence or witness the conditions that perpetuate violence. They are not directly involved but have the choice to intervene, speak up, or do something about it." We want to promote a culture of community accountability where bystanders are actively engaged in the prevention of violence without causing further harm. We may not always know what to do even if we want to help. Below is a list of some ways to be an active bystander. Further information regarding bystander intervention may be found. If you or someone else is in immediate danger, dial 911. This could be when a person is yelling at or being physically abusive towards another and it is not safe for you to interrupt.

- Watch out for your friends and fellow students/employees. If you see someone who looks like they could be in trouble or need help, ask if they are ok.
- Confront people who seclude, hit on, try to make out with, or have sex with people who are incapacitated.
- Create a diversion. Even if you don't know the person who looks in trouble, you can still help. Get them to a safe place
- Speak up when someone discusses plans to take sexual advantage of another person.
- Believe someone who discloses sexual assault, abusive behavior, or experience with stalking.
- Refer people to on or off campus resources listed in this document for support in health, counseling, or with legal assistance
- Remember, it is your campus, so it's your business.

Support survivors

Believe someone who discloses a sexual assault, abusive relationship or experiences with stalking or cyber stalking. Do what you can to connect the person to resources. Encourage the survivor to seek medical attention. This is an important step to ensure the individual is not physically injured. This is also a time when medical staff can connect the person with an advocate and help them to contact law enforcement.

Signs of an abusive dating partner

- Calls you names, insults you or continually criticizes you
- Does not trust you and acts possessive or jealous
- Tries to isolate you from family or friends
- Monitors where you go, who you call and who you spent time with
- Controls finances or refuses to share money
- Punishes you by withholding affection
- Expects you to ask permission
- Threatens to hurt you, your family, your pets or belongings
- Threatens and/or uses a weapon against you
- Has ever forced, coerced or manipulated you into having sex or performing sexual acts
- Accuses you of cheating or is often jealous of your relationships with others of the opposite gender
- Trapped you in your apartment or dorm room and kept you from leaving
- IM, text messages and calls you obsessively to find out where you are and what you are doing.

Avoid being a perpetrator

We all bear the burden of preventing sexual assault and other forms of interpersonal violence. There are many ways to decrease the likelihood of being a perpetrator.

- Remember that sexual assault is a crime. It is never acceptable to use pressure or force in sexual situations, no matter what the circumstances.
- Understand consent and adopt a healthy, respectful approach to sexual relations.

- Silence and passivity are not considered consent.
- A person cannot give consent if they are intoxicated or incapacitated by alcohol or drugs.
- Listen carefully. If someone is not being direct, ask for clarification. Do not fall for the common stereotype that when someone says “No” it really means “Yes.” “No” means “No.”
- Do not automatically assume that sex is inevitable just because someone drinks heavily, dresses provocatively, or agrees to go to your room.
- Be prepared to resist pressure from friends to participate in violent or criminal acts. Get involved in a situation if someone is at risk.

Preventing Stranger Assault and Other Forms of Interpersonal Violence:

Walking on or off campus

- Always be aware of what is going on around you. Stay alert to your surroundings.
- Walk with confidence. Hold your head up / shoulders straight.
- At night, stick to well-lighted, populated areas and walk with another person. Avoid walking alone or in isolated areas.
- Use campus escort services.
- Take special precautions in parking lots, stairwells, elevators, bathrooms, and dark areas with shrubbery. Studies show that many assaults by strangers occur in these places.
- If you suspect you are being followed, go to a place where there are other people as soon as possible. If you choose to run, run as fast as you are able and scream to attract attention or summon help.
- Follow your gut instincts. If you sense that you may be at risk or in danger, try to get out of the situation. For example, if you see a suspicious looking person or someone who makes you feel uncomfortable in a parking lot, leave the area. Report your suspicions to the authorities.

In Residence Halls

- Lock your door at all times, even if you run down the hall for just a few minutes to visit a friend.
- Do not prop security doors open.
- In residence halls accessed only by a special key, do not let anyone without such a key enter, no matter how presentable their appearance or how plausible their request seems. Simply tell them, “I would like to help you out, but we are very concerned about security in this residence,” and direct them to campus security for assistance.
- Be especially aware of security during vacation periods when there are fewer people on campus.

14m. Sexual Harassment

Definitions and Penalties for Sexual Harassment

36.11(22)(1)(a) Wis. Stats.

University policy as well as state and federal law prohibit sexual harassment. Some acts may constitute both assault and sexual harassment. Unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature constitute sexual harassment when:

- Submission to such conduct is a condition of employment, academic progress, or participation in a university program
- Submission to or rejection of such conduct influences employment, academic or university program decisions

- The conduct interferes with an employee's work or a student's academic career, or creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work, learning or program environment

Tangible Action or Quid Pro Quo (This for That) Sexual Harassment

Occurs when employment or academic decisions resulting in a significant change in status are based on an employee or student's submission to or rejection of unwelcome verbal or physical sexual conduct.

Hostile Environment Sexual Harassment Occurs when verbal, non-verbal and/or physical conduct is:

- Sexual and/or based on gender
- Unwelcome, and
- Sufficiently severe and pervasive to interfere with a person's work, learning, or program performance or to create a hostile, intimidating or offensive environment.

The determination of sexual harassment is made on a case-by-case basis looking at the whole record, including the circumstances (such as the nature of the sexual advances) and the context in which the alleged incidents occurred. Some behaviors, which may be acceptable in certain contexts, are inappropriate in the workplace or classroom, particularly if an objection is expressed.

Key points about sexual harassment include:

- Differences in power or status can be a significant component in sexual harassment. A person who seems to acquiesce to sexual conduct may still experience tangible action harassment or hostile environment harassment if the conduct is unwelcome.
- Harassment can occur between men and women or between members of the same gender.
- Sexual harassment may or may not involve a tangible injury (e.g., economic loss, lowered grades). A sexually harassing environment, in and of itself, may constitute a harm.
- Sexual harassment must be addressed and corrected regardless of the position or status of the harasser or the person being harassed.
- Conduct is not always offensive or unwelcome to the same degree when perceived by different people. Courts use a "reasonable person" standard to determine whether the contested behavior constitutes sexual harassment.
- In an academic or program setting, offenders can be faculty, instructors, lecturers, teaching assistants, coaches, tutors, or even fellow students or program participants. In the workplace, offenders can be supervisors, co-workers, or non-employees such as vendors or customers.

PROTECTIVE BEHAVIORS

36.11(22)(1)(d) Wis. Stats.

If You Are Concerned About Possible Sexual Harassment – Faculty/Staff

We encourage early contact—consultation is not escalation. Timely discussion of people's concerns may allow resolution before alternatives become limited. The university will protect confidentiality to the extent possible under the law.

- Seek advice. Consult with your department chair, another divisional resource person, Human Resources, or another campus resource (listed above) to discuss options for resolution.
- Consider informing the individual(s) involved that the conduct is unwelcome and that you expect it to stop.
- Keep notes of what happened, when, where, and who was present. Retain copies of any correspondence.
- You may find it helpful to seek support from a trusted colleague. Be aware of your interest in keeping the matter as confidential as possible.

If You Are Accused of Sexual Harassment

- Early consultation may help avoid claims of retaliation and facilitate resolution of the situation.
- You will be informed of any complaint filed against you and provided with an opportunity to respond to the specific allegations.
- Staff should contact Human Resources
- Students should contact the Dean of Students Office.
- You may choose to seek private legal advice.
- Be honest when questioned about alleged conduct and explain its context.

If You Are in a Position of Authority

(E.g., Principal Investigator, Manager/ Supervisor, Department Chair/Director, Dean)

Sexual harassment can arise in a healthy environment, but it often develops in negative climates. If you have concerns about the climate in your area, consult with one of the resources listed above to learn about proactive measures to improve the climate for all individuals.

- Distribute the Sexual Harassment Policy to new faculty and staff and to all employees periodically and when there are modifications to the policy.
- Periodically remind employees of your expectation that they maintain a harassment free environment. Provide resources (e.g., this document, a link to the sexual harassment Web site).
- Schedule Sexual Harassment Informational Sessions and promote attendance by all department members.
- Encourage employees and students to come forward with questions, concerns, and allegations
- Take every complaint seriously and ensure that others do as well. Ensure that your department appropriately addresses all complaints. If you have questions about the scope of your responsibility, contact Human Resources or the Dean of Students Office.
- Keep allegations confidential except on a “need to know” basis.
- Ensure that no retaliation occurs against the person making the allegations and that the person charged with harassment is not assumed guilty and/or disciplined on the basis of allegations.

For the protection of all parties, comply with all applicable university procedures and ensure that your department fully cooperates with any investigation.

Sexual Assault and Sexual Harassment

Encourage the individual to contact someone who can explain alternatives available to resolve the situation (a Title IX Coordinator or Investigator, department chair or other divisional resource, Human Resources, Dean of Students Office or other campus resources listed above).

If requested, and if you are comfortable doing so, assist the individual in reporting the behavior. Keep allegations confidential, except as necessary to cooperate with appropriate university officials.

<http://www.uwsp.edu/dos/Pages/Anonymous-Report.aspx>.

The purpose of a confidential report is to comply with your wish to keep the matter confidential, while taking steps to ensure the future safety of yourself and others. Campus “Professional Counselors”, when acting as such, are not considered to be a campus security authority and are not required to report crimes for inclusion into the annual disclosure of crime statistics. The rulemaking committee defines counselors as:

- Professional Counselor: An employee of an institution whose official responsibilities include providing psychological counseling to members of the institution’s community and who is functioning within the scope of his or her license or certification.
 - UW-Stevens Point at Marshfield employs one, part-time professional counselor who works under the supervision of the UW-Stevens Point Director of Counseling (Stevens Point campus).
- UW-Stevens Point at Marshfield does not employ any pastoral counselors

3a. Timely Warning Reports Regarding the Occurrence of Clery Act Crimes

UW-Stevens Point at Marshfield will keep the community informed about safety and security matters on campus and maintain compliance with applicable features of the Clery Act (20 USC 1092(f)).

Decisions to issue a timely warning are made on a case-by-case basis in light of the available facts surrounding an incident or alleged crime. Some of the considerations prior to issuing a timely warning include:

- Nature of the crime (serious/non-serious, violent/non-violent)
- The continuing danger to the community or continuing crime pattern (yes/ no)
- The nature of the threat (general/specific target)
- The possible risk of compromising law enforcement efforts

3b. Issuing a Timely Warning

When UW-Stevens Point at Marshfield becomes aware of a situation that meets the criteria for a timely warning, the Campus Executive or their designee will issue a timely warning through all-campus email. For time-critical, urgent threats, the campus may use the Pointer Alert system.

If time permits, the Campus Executive or their designee will confer with local law enforcement, University Police and Security Services, other University administrators prior to issuing a timely warning or emergency notification

Timely warning notices may include information about the type of crime, a description of the assailant(s) if known, how those with information can connect to law enforcement, and safety precautions.

3c. Emergency / Immediate Notifications

UW-Stevens Point has developed a process to notify the campus community in cases of emergency. While it is impossible to predict every significant emergency or dangerous situation that may occur on campus, the following identified situations are examples which may warrant an emergency (immediate) notification after confirmation: armed/hostile intruder; bomb/explosives (threat); communicable disease outbreak; severe weather; terrorist incident; civil unrest; natural disaster; hazardous materials incident and structural fire.

In the event of an emergency, UW-Stevens Point will initiate and provide, without delay, immediate notifications to the appropriate segment(s) of the University community upon the confirmation of a significant emergency or dangerous situation involving an immediate threat to the health or safety of students, employee and visitors.

If the UW-Stevens Point University Police staff, in conjunction with other University administrators, local first responders, Public Health Officials and/or the National Weather Service, confirms that there is an emergency or dangerous situation that poses an immediate threat to the health or safety of some or all members of the UW-Stevens Point community, UWSP Police and Security Services will initiate, determine the content of, and determine the appropriate segment or segments of the campus community to receive the notification. UWSP Police and Security Services will use some or all of the systems described below to communicate the threat to the UW-Stevens Point community or to the appropriate segment of the community, if the threat is limited to a particular building or segment of the population.

UW-Stevens Point will, without delay and taking into account the safety of the community, determine the content of the notification and initiate the notification system, unless issuing a notification will, in the judgment of the first responders (including, but not limited to: the Marshfield Police Department and/or Marshfield Fire Department and Emergency Medical Services), compromise the efforts to assist a victim or to contain, respond to, or otherwise mitigate the emergency.

Pointer Alerts is the name for UW–Steven Point’s emergency notification system. The system is designed to provide information about an active emergency situation that requires the community to take immediate action in order to stay safe. Students and employees are automatically entered into the Pointer Alert via their university email accounts and their cell phone information provided in accessPoint and at MyUWSystem, presuming phone numbers have been updated within each of these separate systems by the student or employee.

Depending on the exact nature of the situation, the system may utilize one or many of the components described below:

- Text messaging: UW-Stevens Point will text subscribers to reach mobile users who may be away from their computers or offices.
- UW-Stevens Point email: UW-Stevens Point email users may receive a mass e-mail warning message.

University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point

Central Wisconsin Environmental Station (CWES)

Clery Act Policy Statements and Information

NOTE: Students, faculty, staff, and guests associated with the Central Wisconsin Environmental Station (CWES) campus are subject to all policies and procedures of the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point. Only campus-specific policy and procedure differences are noted here.

1. Law Enforcement Policies

CWES does not have a campus law enforcement department and does not contract for security. The CWES staff contact University Police and Security Services on the Stevens Point campus for consultation on law enforcement matters.

1a. Relationships with Local Law Enforcement Agencies

Staff at CWES maintain a close working relationship with the local law enforcement agencies. Both formal and informal meetings are held between University Police and Security Services on the Stevens Point campus and local law enforcement to discuss security concerns at CWES.

1b. Agreements with Local Law Enforcement Agencies

CWES does not have any formal agreements or MOU with local law enforcement agencies.

2. Reporting Procedures

2a. Accurate and Prompt Reporting of all Crimes

The CWES staff encourages all students, faculty, staff, and guests to accurately and promptly report crimes if they are a victim or a witness.

2b. Reporting of Crimes

Crimes or other emergencies that occur on campus should be reported to the Portage County Sheriff by calling 911, by calling the non-emergency number 715-346-1400, or by going to the department at 1500 Strongs Ave. Stevens Point, WI.

Crimes that occur off campus should be reported to the Portage County Sheriff by calling 911, by calling the non-emergency number 715-346-1400, or by going to the department at 1500 Strongs Ave. Stevens Point, WI.

The crimes of rape, fondling, statutory rape, or incest, as well as VAWA offenses of domestic violence, dating violent, or stalking may be reported directly to the Title IX Coordinator. The Title IX Coordinator is Eric Roesler, 133 Old Main, 715-346-3975.

Students, faculty, and staff are also encouraged to report crimes/violations of University policies to the Dean of Students to seek assistance for themselves or to begin an investigation: 2100 Main Street (212 Old Main) Stevens Point, Wisconsin 54481, 715-346-2611. Reports can also be made online at the Dean of Students website: <http://www.uwsp.edu/dos/Pages/Anonymous-Report.aspx>.

Students, faculty, and staff can also share information with the Director of CWES.

2c. Voluntary Confidential Reporting

If you are the victim of a crime and do not want to pursue action within the university conduct process or criminal justice system, you may still want to consider making a confidential report. The Portage County Sheriff's Department can file a report on the details of the incident without revealing your identity. You may also submit an anonymous report online through the website of the Office of the Dean of Students at:

<http://www.uwsp.edu/dos/Pages/Anonymous-Report.aspx>.

The purpose of a confidential report is to comply with your wish to keep the matter confidential, while taking steps to ensure the future safety of yourself and others. With such information, the University can keep an accurate record of the number of incidents involving students, determine where there is a potential pattern of crime regarding a particular location, method, or assailant, and alert the campus community to potential danger. Reports filed in this manner are counted and disclosed in the annual crimes statistics for the institution.

2d. Professional and Pastoral Counselors

Campus "Professional Counselors", when acting as such, are not considered to be a campus security authority and are not required to report crimes for inclusion into the annual disclosure of crime statistics. As a matter of policy, they are encouraged, if and when they deem it appropriate, to inform persons being counseled of the procedures to report crimes on a voluntary basis for inclusion into the annual crime statistics. The rulemaking committee defines counselors as:

- Professional Counselor: An employee of an institution whose official responsibilities include providing psychological counseling to members of the institution's community and who is functioning within the scope of his or her license or certification.
 - Students at CWES can access counseling services on the Stevens Point campus of UW-Stevens Point.
- CWES does not employ any pastoral counselors

3. Timely Warning Procedures

3a. Timely Warning Reports Regarding the Occurrence of Clery Act Crimes

The CWES staff will keep the community informed about safety and security matters on campus and maintain compliance with applicable features of the Clery Act (20 USC 1092(f)). As CWES does not have a campus law enforcement agency, the staff consults with University Police and Securing Services on the Stevens Point campus in regard to timely warnings and emergency notifications.

Decisions to issue a timely warning are made on a case-by-case basis in light of the available facts surrounding an incident or alleged crime. Some of the considerations prior to issuing a timely warning include:

- Nature of the crime (serious/non-serious, violent/non-violent)
- The continuing danger to the community or continuing crime pattern (yes/ no)
- The nature of the threat (general/specific target)
- The possible risk of compromising law enforcement efforts

3b. Issuing a Timely Warning

When the CWES staff becomes aware of a situation that meets the criteria for a timely warning, the facility Director or their designee will issue a timely warning by contacting all staff via walkie-talkie and by posting appropriate information around the property.

If time permits, the Director or their designee will confer with local law enforcement, University Police and Security Services, or other University administrators prior to issuing a timely warning or emergency notification.

Timely warning notices may include information about the type of crime, a description of the assailant(s) if known, how those with information can connect to law enforcement, and safety precautions.

3c. Emergency / Immediate Notifications

UW-Stevens Point has developed a process to notify the campus community in cases of emergency. While it is impossible to predict every significant emergency or dangerous situation that may occur on campus, the following identified situations are examples which may warrant an emergency (immediate) notification after confirmation: armed/hostile intruder; bomb/explosives (threat); communicable disease outbreak; severe weather; terrorist incident; civil unrest; natural disaster; hazardous materials incident and structural fire.

In the event of an emergency, UW-Stevens Point will initiate and provide, without delay, immediate notifications to the appropriate segment(s) of the University community upon the confirmation of a significant emergency or dangerous situation involving an immediate threat to the health or safety of students, employee and visitors.

If the UW-Stevens Point University Police staff, in conjunction with other University administrators, local first responders, Public Health Officials and/or the National Weather Service, confirms that there is an emergency or dangerous situation that poses an immediate threat to the health or safety of some or all members of the UW-Stevens Point community, UWSP Police and Security Services will initiate, determine the content of, and determine the appropriate segment or segments of the campus community to receive the notification. UWSP Police and Security Services will use some or all of the systems described below to communicate the threat to the UW-Stevens Point community or to the appropriate segment of the community if the threat is limited to a particular building or segment of the population.

UW-Stevens Point will, without delay and taking into account the safety of the community, determine the content of the notification and initiate the notification system, unless issuing a notification will, in the judgment of the first responders (including, but not limited to: the Portage County Sheriff and/or Amherst Fire Department and Emergency Medical Services), compromise the efforts to assist a victim or to contain, respond to, or otherwise mitigate the emergency.

Pointer Alerts is the name for UW–Steven Point’s emergency notification system. The system is designed to provide information about an active emergency situation that requires the community to take immediate action in order to stay safe. Students and employees are automatically entered into the Pointer Alert via their university email accounts and their cell phone information provided in accessPoint and at MyUWSystem, presuming phone numbers have been updated within each of these separate systems by the student or employee.

Depending on the exact nature of the situation, the system may utilize one or many of the components described below:

- Text messaging: UW-Stevens Point will text subscribers to reach mobile users who may be away from their computers or offices.
- UW-Stevens Point email: UW-Stevens Point email users may receive a mass e-mail warning message.
- Personal email: Students, faculty, and staff can add a personal email address.
- Campus computers: The campus community is alerted to a concern via a full-screen pop-up.
- Campus webpages: Banner on the top.

Additionally, the staff at CWES ring an exterior bell and contact all staff via walkie-talkie about the emergency situation.

Students, faculty and staff are encouraged to update their contact information or learn more about the Pointer Alerts at <http://www.uwsp.edu/rmgt/Pages/em/pointeralerts/default.aspx>

4. Emergency Response and Evacuation Procedures

The Office of Emergency Management on the main campus of UW-Stevens Point, serves all campuses of the University, to include CWES. Information about emergency response and evacuation procedures can be found on pg. 20 of this report at <https://www.uwsp.edu/emergency/Pages/default.aspx>

5. Addressing Criminal Activity Off Campus

The Portage County Sheriff's Department has primary jurisdiction in all areas off campus. The Sheriff works with UW-Stevens Point University Police, the CWES staff, and the Dean of Students office on any serious incidents occurring off campus when a UW– Stevens Point student is involved in accordance with UWS Chapter 17.08.

6. Security and Access to Campus Facilities

Chapter UWS 21, Wisconsin Administrative Code, and institutional policies on file in the Office of the Vice Chancellor for Business Affairs, govern general access to and use of the facilities at CWES.

Security is provided in the maintenance of the university's facilities through a number of mechanisms, including limitations on hours of operation, enforced policies on key allocation, restricting access to those bearing proper identification as university staff or students, and the provision of adequate lighting. Specific security mechanisms may vary with the type of university facility and are managed by the appropriate administrator of each facility. Emergencies may necessitate changes or alterations to any posted schedules.

7. Security Considerations Used in the Maintenance of Campus Facilities

On an annual basis, CWES staff conduct a campus security survey to assess landscaping, locks, alarms, lighting, and communications. Issues identified during the security survey are addressed by the department responsible for the facility or area of campus.

8a. Security Awareness Programs for Students and Employees

University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point

Treehaven Field Station Campus

Clery Act Policy Statements and Information

NOTE: Students, faculty, staff, and guests associated with the Treehaven Field Station campus are subject to all policies and procedures of the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point. Only campus-specific policy and procedure differences are noted here.

1. Law Enforcement Policies

Treehaven does not have a campus law enforcement department and does not contract for security.

1a. Relationships with Local Law Enforcement Agencies

Staff at Treehaven maintain a close working relationship with the local law enforcement agencies. Both formal and informal meetings are held between University Police and Security Services on the Stevens Point campus and local law enforcement to discuss security concerns at Treehaven.

1b. Agreements with Local Law Enforcement Agencies

Treehaven does not have any formal agreements or MOU with local law enforcement agencies.

2. Reporting Procedures

2a. Accurate and Prompt Reporting of all Crimes

The Treehaven staff encourages all students, faculty, staff, and guests to accurately and promptly report crimes if they are a victim or a witness.

2b. Reporting of Crimes

Crimes or other emergencies that occur on campus should be reported to the Lincoln County Sheriff by calling 911, by calling the non-emergency number 715-536-6272 or by going to the department at 1104 E. 2nd Street, Merrill, WI 54452.

Crimes that occur off campus should be reported to the Portage County Sheriff by calling 911, by calling 911, by calling the non-emergency number 715-536-6272 or by going to the department at 1104 E. 2nd Street, Merrill, WI 54452.

The crimes of rape, fondling, statutory rape, or incest, as well as VAWA offenses of domestic violence, dating violent, or stalking may be reported directly to the Title IX Coordinator. The Title IX Coordinator is Eric Roesler, 133 Old Main, 715-346-3975.

Students, faculty, and staff are also encouraged to report crimes/violations of university policies to the Dean of Students to seek assistance for themselves or to begin an investigation: 2100 Main Street (212 Old Main) Stevens Point, Wisconsin 54481, 715-346-2611. Reports can also be made online at the Dean of Students website: <http://www.uwsp.edu/dos/Pages/Anonymous-Report.aspx>.

2c. Voluntary Confidential Reporting

If you are the victim of a crime and do not want to pursue action within the university conduct process or criminal justice system, you may still want to consider making a confidential report. The Portage County Sheriff's Department can file a report on the details of the incident without revealing your identity. You may also submit an anonymous report online through the website of the Office of the Dean of Students at:

<http://www.uwsp.edu/dos/Pages/Anonymous-Report.aspx>.

The purpose of a confidential report is to comply with your wish to keep the matter confidential, while taking steps to ensure the future safety of yourself and others. With such information, the University can keep an accurate record of the number of incidents involving students, determine where there is a potential pattern of crime regarding a particular location, method, or assailant, and alert the campus community to potential danger. Reports filed in this manner are counted and disclosed in the annual crime statistics for the institution.

2d. Professional and Pastoral Counselors

Campus "Professional Counselors", when acting as such, are not considered to be a campus security authority and are not required to report crimes for inclusion into the annual disclosure of crime statistics. As a matter of policy, they are encouraged, if and when they deem it appropriate, to inform persons being counseled of the procedures to report crimes on a voluntary basis for inclusion into the annual crime statistics. The rulemaking committee defines counselors as:

- Professional Counselor: An employee of an institution whose official responsibilities include providing psychological counseling to members of the institution's community and who is functioning within the scope of his or her license or certification.
 - Treehaven does not employ any professional counselors.
- Treehaven does not employ any pastoral counselors

3. Timely Warning Procedures

3a. Timely Warning Reports Regarding the Occurrence of Clery Act Crimes

The Treehaven staff will keep the community informed about safety and security matters on campus and maintain compliance with applicable features of the Clery Act (20 USC 1092(f)). As Treehaven does not have a campus law enforcement agency, the staff consults with University Police and Securing Services on the Stevens Point campus in regard to timely warnings and emergency notifications, as time allows.

Decisions to issue a timely warning are made on a case-by-case basis in light of the available facts surrounding an incident or alleged crime. Some of the considerations prior to issuing a timely warning include:

- Nature of the crime (serious/non-serious, violent/non-violent)
- The continuing danger to the community or continuing crime pattern (yes/ no)
- The nature of the threat (general/specific target)
- The possible risk of compromising law enforcement efforts

3b. Issuing a Timely Warning

When the Treehaven staff becomes aware of a situation that meets the criteria for a timely warning, the facility Director or their designee will issue a timely warning by contacting all staff via walkie-talkie and by posting appropriate information around the property.

If time permits, the Director or their designee will confer with local law enforcement, University Police and Security Services, or other University administrators prior to issuing a timely warning or emergency notification.

Timely warning notices may include information about the type of crime, a description of the assailant(s) if known, how those with information can connect to law enforcement, and safety precautions.

3c. Emergency / Immediate Notifications

UW-Stevens Point has developed a process to notify the campus community in cases of emergency. While it is impossible to predict every significant emergency or dangerous situation that may occur on campus, the following identified situations are examples which may warrant an emergency (immediate) notification after confirmation: armed/hostile intruder; bomb/explosives (threat); communicable disease outbreak; severe weather; terrorist incident; civil unrest; natural disaster; hazardous materials incident and structural fire.

In the event of an emergency, UW-Stevens Point will initiate and provide, without delay, immediate notifications to the appropriate segment(s) of the University community upon the confirmation of a significant emergency or dangerous situation involving an immediate threat to the health or safety of students, employee and visitors.

If the UW-Stevens Point University Police staff, in conjunction with other University administrators, local first responders, Public Health Officials and/or the National Weather Service, confirms that there is an emergency or dangerous situation that poses an immediate threat to the health or safety of some or all members of the UW-Stevens Point community, UWSP Police and Security Services will initiate, determine the content of, and determine the appropriate segment or segments of the campus community to receive the notification. UWSP Police and Security Services will use some or all of the systems described below to communicate the threat to the UW-Stevens Point community or to the appropriate segment of the community, if the threat is limited to a particular building or segment of the population.

UW-Stevens Point will, without delay and taking into account the safety of the community, determine the content of the notification and initiate the notification system, unless issuing a notification will, in the judgment of the first responders (including, but not limited to: the Lincoln County Sheriff and/or Tomahawk Fire Department and Emergency Medical Services), compromise the efforts to assist a victim or to contain, respond to, or otherwise mitigate the emergency.

Pointer Alerts is the name for UW–Steven Point’s emergency notification system. The system is designed to provide information about an active emergency situation that requires the community to take immediate action in order to stay safe. Students and employees are automatically entered into the Pointer Alert via their university email accounts and their cell phone information provided in accessPoint and at MyUWSystem, presuming phone numbers have been updated within each of these separate systems by the student or employee.

Depending on the exact nature of the situation, the system may utilize one or many of the components described below:

- Text messaging: UW-Stevens Point will text subscribers to reach mobile users who may be away from their computers or offices.
- UW-Stevens Point email: UW-Stevens Point email users may receive a mass e-mail warning message.
- Personal email: Students, faculty, and staff can add a personal email address.
- Campus computers: The campus community is alerted to a concern via a full-screen pop-up.
- Campus webpages: Banner at the top.

Additionally, the staff immediately contact all staff via walkie-talkie about the emergency situation. Students, faculty and staff are encouraged to update their contact information or learn more about the Pointer Alerts at <https://www.uwsp.edu/emergency/Pages/pointer-alerts.aspx>

4. Emergency Response and Evacuation Procedures

The Office of Emergency Management on the main campus of UW-Stevens Point, serves all campuses of the University, to include Treehaven. Information about emergency response and evacuation procedures can be found on pg. 20 of this report at <https://www.uwsp.edu/emergency/Pages/default.aspx>

5. Addressing Criminal Activity Off Campus

The Portage County Sheriff's Department has primary jurisdiction in all areas off campus. The Sheriff works with UW-Stevens Point University Police, the Treehaven staff, and the Dean of Students office on any serious incidents occurring off campus when a UW– Stevens Point student is involved in accordance with UWS Chapter 17.08.

6. Security and Access to Campus Facilities

Chapter UWS 21, Wisconsin Administrative Code, and institutional policies on file in the Office of the Vice Chancellor for Business Affairs, govern general access to and use of the facilities at Treehaven.

Security is provided in the maintenance of the university's facilities through a number of mechanisms, including limitations on hours of operation, enforced policies on key allocation, restricting access to those bearing proper identification as university staff or students, and the provision of adequate lighting. Specific security mechanisms may vary with the type of university facility and are managed by the appropriate administrator of each facility. Emergencies may necessitate changes or alterations to any posted schedules.

7. Security Considerations Used in the Maintenance of Campus Facilities

On an annual basis, Treehaven staff conduct a campus security survey to assess landscaping, locks, alarms, lighting, and communications. Issues identified during the security survey are addressed by the department responsible for the facility or area of campus.

8a. Security Awareness Programs for Students and Employees

Emergency Management

The Office of Emergency Management leads a required session for new employees of the University. The training focused on campus emergency procedures and Pointer Alerts.

In the event of a fire, the University expects that all campus community members will evacuate by the nearest exit, closing doors and activating the fire alarm system (if one is present) as they leave. Once safely outside a building, it is appropriate to contact 911. Students and/or staff are informed where to relocate to by staff if circumstance warrants at the time of the alarm. In the event fire alarms sound, University policy is that all occupants must evacuate from the building, closing doors as they leave. No training is provided to students or employees in firefighting or suppression activity as this is inherently dangerous and each community member's only duty is to exit safely and quickly, shutting doors along the exit path as they go to contain the spread of flames and smoke, and to activate the alarm as they exit. At no time should the closing of doors or the activation of the alarm delay the exit from the building.

- If you discover a fire:
 - Sound alarm
 - Leave building
 - Call fire department: 911
 - Do NOT attempt to re-enter building
 - If you are alerted to a fire by an alarm:
 - Remain calm
 - Keep low
 - Feel the door If the door or doorknob is hot or the hallway is filled with smoke, seal the cracks around your door, hang an object out your window, call 911, keep low to the floor.
 - If you can exit safely, take your key, close your room door, do not use elevator, leave by the nearest smoke-free exit, and stand clear of the building.
 - Do not re-enter the building until the all-clear is sounded. If you need assistance to evacuate, go to a stairwell landing (preferred location) or if unable to reach a stairwell, a room with a window.
 - Call 911 and request immediate assistance to evacuate. Provide dispatcher with your exact location, phone number, building name, floor and room number.
 - Stay on the phone until the dispatcher instructs you to hang up.
 - You must evacuate the building when the fire alarm sounds.

Reporting Fires

All fires should be reported to the Campus Executive (Marshfield or Wausau), facility Director (CWES or Treehaven) and UW-Stevens Point University Police. In an emergency, call 911.

Fire Safety training and education for residents is covered at floor meetings in the residence halls and during orientation for Treehaven/CWES experiences. This is a review of general fire safety information. Other departments may contact facilities staff to request training.

University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point

Drug Free Schools and Communities Act: Alcohol and Other Drugs Information

The University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point, in collaboration city and community agencies, has created the UW-Stevens Point Center for Prevention. The Center for Prevention seeks to employ best practices to address the alcohol and other drug use culture among members of the UW-Stevens Point community to foster an environment that optimizes learning and engagement for students. The information shared below is included in accordance with the requirements of the Drug Free Schools and Communities Act.

In compliance with the Drug Free Schools and Communities Act, University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point publishes information regarding the University's educational programs related to drug and alcohol abuse prevention; sanctions for violations of federal, state, and local laws and University policy; a description of health risks associated with alcohol and other drug use; and a description of available treatment programs for UWSP students and employees. A complete description of these topics, as provided in the University's annual notification to students and employees, is available online at: <https://www.uwsp.edu/dos/aoda-ipv/Pages/dfcsa.aspx>

Services and Programs

Upon entering the institution UW-Stevens Point new, residential students learn about university alcohol and drug policies, the non-academic behavioral misconduct process, and support services through the Center for Prevention. Electronic Check-up to Go (E-CHUG) for Alcohol and for Marijuana are online programs available to students 24/7 at no cost. Also, several units and departments offer alcohol education including Residential Living, Center for Prevention, and Greek-letter organizations. Additional early intervention and educational services include brief motivational interventions for students. More information about the UW-Stevens Point Center for Prevention can be found at <https://www.uwsp.edu/dos/aoda-ipv>

The Student Health Service screens its patients using the Alcohol Use Disorders Identification Test (AUDIT). The university refers students involved in policy violations to an alcohol and/or marijuana education class.

Campus Resources for Employees

For faculty and staff, the Human Resources supports an Employee Assistance Program. Information for employees can be found at <https://www.uwsp.edu/hr/Pages/Employee%20Relations/Additional-Resources.aspx>

Health Effects of Alcohol and Other Drugs

This is a brief summary of some of the principal health risks and hazards associated with the use of illicit drugs and alcohol. It is neither comprehensive nor exhaustive. For more detailed information concerning the dangers of drugs and alcohol, students should consult your doctor or a drug and alcohol rehabilitation counselor.

Alcohol and Other Depressants (barbiturates, sedatives and tranquilizers) Addiction, accidents as a result of impaired ability and judgment, alcohol overdose, overdose when used with other depressants, causes damage to a developing fetus, heart and liver damage.

Marijuana

Impairs short-term memory, thinking and physical coordination. Can also cause panic reaction and increase the risk of lung cancer and emphysema. Can interfere with judgment, attention span, concentration and overall intellectual performance. Impairs driving ability. May cause psychological dependence and compromise the immune system.

Cocaine

Addiction, cardiovascular system damage including heart attack, brain damage, seizures, lung damage, severe depression, paranoia, psychosis. Similar risks are associated with other stimulants, such as speed and uppers.

Nicotine

Tobacco smoke contains thousands of chemical compounds, many of which are known to cause cancer. Nicotine, which is a central nervous system stimulant, produces an increase in heart and respiration rates, blood pressure, adrenaline production and metabolism. People can rapidly become physically and psychologically dependent on tobacco. Nicotine compromises the immune system.

Inhalants

Inhalants are a diverse group of chemicals that easily evaporate and can cause intoxication when their vapors are inhaled. Most inhalants are central nervous system depressants. Use of these drugs slow down many body functions. High doses can cause severe breathing problems.
