Welcome, Stevie!

The University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point is pleased to offer you financial aid for the 2025-2026 academic year. We are committed to offering students a variety of federal, state, institutional, and private funds to assist in making your education affordable.

Your financial aid offer is based on your Student Aid Index (SAI), calculated from the information reflected on your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) as well as full-time enrollment, defined as 12 or more credits per semester for undergraduate students. Should your enrollment be less, your offer may be adjusted.

Investing in your education is a step towards a brighter future. With careful planning and responsible resource management, it can be a personally and professionally rewarding experience. We want to ensure you have the information you need to make the best decision about financing your education. It is important to thoroughly review your financial aid offer and the enclosed materials to fully understanding your financial aid options. In this packet, you will find the following:

- Your Financial Aid Offer
- Understanding Your Aid Offer
- Types of Financial Aid
- College Cost Comparison Worksheet
- Next Steps and Details
- Federal Direct Loans
- Federal Direct PLUS Loans
- Private Education Loans
- GradReady

Please note, the Cost of Attendance (COA) listed on your financial aid offer is an estimated cost used to determine your financial aid eligibility. Actual bills are typically sent 2-3 weeks before each semester. All information related to actual costs, billing schedules, payment plans and payment methods can be found on the Student Financial Services office website (uwsp.edu/SFS/Pages/default.aspx). Additionally, financial aid offer amounts are estimated using current information and are subject to change based on final program regulations and allocations.

Should you have any questions about your financial aid offer or the financial aid process, please contact our office. Our staff is fully committed to assisting all students navigating the financial aid process.

On behalf of the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point, we look forward to welcoming you to our community.

Sincerely,

Financial Aid and Veteran Services
UW-Stevens Point
