Principal Work Location: UW-Stevens Point Main Campus, Noel Fine Arts Center and Chain Exploration Center

Supervisor: Ann Marie Novak, Director of Suzuki Programs

Department: Suzuki – Aber Suzuki Center

The Aber Suzuki Center (ASC) and the American Suzuki Institute (ASI) have long and rich histories at UWSP and in the Suzuki world. Both are among the very first such programs to be established in the US. ASC is home to 230 students throughout the year, and the Institute typically hosts 400-500 students during the summer. The program is a division of the College of Fine Arts and Communication, and it boasts a highly qualified faculty of 13 educators in the following areas: Bass, cello, flute, guitar, harp, piano, viola, violin, voice, and Suzuki Early Childhood Education. The program offers private lessons, group classes, and many performances and outreach activities.

Through the discovery and dissemination of knowledge, UW-Stevens Point stimulates intellectual growth, provides a liberal education, and prepares students for a diverse sustainable world. The university is committed to creating a safe, inclusive learning community for all faculty and staff from a variety of backgrounds.
