

If you are a Wisconsin resident at least 60 years of age you may register to audit a course using this form.

To register for audit ------ identify the course and section below and fill in the reverse side of this page. Bring this form to the Office of the Registrar to complete your registration. Courses taken for audit only are free of charge, except for special course fees, per credit distance education fees for online courses, and the cost of texts or materials, provided:

- a. You show proof at the time of registration that you are or will be at least 60 years of age by the first class day of the course you want to audit. Please provide a copy of your driver's license or birth certificate at the time of registration.
- b. You meet the state residency requirements as provided by section 36.27(2)€. Wisc. Stats. More information regarding residency can be found here:

https://www.uwsp.edu/admissions/Pages/Affordability/WIresidencyInfo.aspx

- c. You register on or after the first day the course meets but no later than the deadline for adding courses as published in the university timetable.
- d. There is space available in the class AND the instructor approves your audit registration by signing in the section below on or after the first day of the term.
- e. Please note the following limitations to an audit registration:
 - You may not audit courses that require participation such as private music lessons, or studio art, or courses where your attendance requires additional work for the instructor.
 - You may not audit courses that are part of a service-based pricing program.
 - To audit a course is to attend class regularly without having to take exams, do laboratory work, participate in class discussions, or do any other class work except to listen.
 - You are eligible to use the library and most other university facilities as an auditor. However, since you do not pay segregated fees, you will not be eligible to use the services subsidized by these fees such as Health Services and the Health Enhancement Center.
- f. Courses taken for audit are free of charge, except for special course fees and the cost of texts or materials. A per credit distance education fee will be assessed for online courses. If mixing credit and audit courses during the same term, you will be billed the full tuition rate for all courses.
