Course Description

This course provides a conceptual framework for organizing and analyzing knowledge of human behavior and the social environment with a focus on individuals, families, organizations, and communities. Students will develop an understanding of the complex interactions of biological, psychological, spiritual, economic, political, and socio-cultural forces operating at different system levels. The course integrates HBSE theories and models to examine the complexity and multiple dimensions of the person and the environment. Students examine contemporary challenges and mechanisms of oppression facing individuals, families, organizations, and communities; social work engagement, assessment, intervention, and evaluation is explored across all dimensions of the person and environment.

Note: SOC/SW 376 is a required course for social work majors.

Required Course Materials

Council on Social Work Education Core Competencies

The Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) identifies core competencies (measurable practice behaviors comprised of knowledge, values, and skills) that students must demonstrate and apply throughout their education and that social work programs must infuse into their curricula. This course was designed to provide exposure to these competencies and serve as a foundation for the further development that will take place should a student be admitted into the social work major. Students pursuing further education in social work should familiarize themselves with these competencies.

1. Demonstrate Ethical and Professional Behavior.
2. Engage Diversity and Difference in Practice.
3. Advance Human Rights and Social, Economic, and Environmental Justice.
4. Engage in Practice-Informed Research and Research-Informed Practice.
5. Engage in Policy Practice.
6. Engage with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities.
7. Assess Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities.
8. Intervene with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities.
9. Evaluate Practice with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities.

Course Objectives

Students who successfully complete this course will be able to:

1. Further identify as a professional social worker and demonstrate professional behavior. (Competency 1)
2. Recognize the need to tailor social work approaches in response to client diversity. (Competency 2)
3. Apply knowledge of human behavior and the social environment, person-in-environment, and other multidisciplinary theoretical frameworks to engage with individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities. (Competency 4, 6)
4. Apply knowledge of human behavior and the social environment, person-in-environment, and other multidisciplinary theoretical frameworks in the analysis of assessment data from individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities. (Competency 7)
5. Select appropriate intervention strategies based on the assessment, research knowledge, and values and preferences of individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities. (Competency 7 and 8)
6. Demonstrate skill in carrying out the phases of generalist social work practice including engagement, exploration, assessment, contracting, intervention, evaluation, and termination. (Competencies 6 through 9)
7. Apply understanding of a social movement to advance and advocate for social, economic, or environmental justice policies. (Competency 3 and 5)
8. Use critical self-reflection to develop awareness of personal biases and values in how we understand the complex interactions of biological, psychological, social, spiritual, and cultural dimensions operating at different system levels. (Competency 1 and 2)
9. Understand physical, cognitive, and psychosocial development across the lifespan. (Competency 2, 4, 6-8)

UNIVERSITY POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

First Nation Land Acknowledgement

We would like to recognize that the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point occupies the lands of the Ho Chunk and Menomonee people. Please take a moment to acknowledge and honor this ancestral Ho Chunk and Menomonee land, and the sacred lands of all indigenous peoples.

Rights and Responsibilities

For information on policies and resources associated with being a student at UWSP, please see the Student Handbook at: <https://www.uwsp.edu/dos/Pages/handbook.aspx>

Emergency Procedures

See UW-Stevens Point Emergency Management Plan at <https://www.uwsp.edu/emergency/Pages/emergency-procedures.aspx> for details.

Severe Weather

In the case of inclement weather, please check your email and Canvas course announcements to determine if class will be held in-person or virtually. If the class is cancelled, you may receive instructions to complete an alternate assignment. See UWSP's information about severe weather here:

Policy Related to Sexual Violence on Campus

UWSP is committed to fostering a safe, productive learning environment. Title IX and school policy prohibit discrimination on the basis of sex, which includes harassment, domestic and dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking. Please see the information on the Dean of Students webpage for information on making confidential reports of misconduct or interpersonal violence, as well as campus and community resources available to students. <https://www.uwsp.edu/DOS/sexualassault/Pages/default.aspx>

Special Needs

Students who have special needs that affect their participation in the course may notify the instructor if they wish to have special accommodations considered in either instruction or examination. Students are encouraged to contact the instructor as early in the semester as possible to discuss special needs. If you have a disability or acquire a condition during the semester where you need assistance, please contact the Disability and Assistive Technology Center on the 6th floor of Albertson Hall (library) as soon as possible. Academic Integrity

Academic Integrity is an expectation of each UW-Stevens Point student; work integrity is also an expectation within the social work practice community. Campus community members are responsible for fostering and upholding an environment in which student learning is fair, just, and honest. Through your studies as a UW-Stevens Point student, it is essential to exhibit the highest level of personal honesty and respect for the intellectual property of others. Academic misconduct is unacceptable. It compromises and disrespects the integrity of our university and those who study here. To maintain academic integrity, a student must only claim work which is the authentic work solely of their own, providing correct citations and credit to others as needed. Cheating, fabrication, plagiarism, unauthorized collaboration, and/or helping others commit these acts are examples of academic misconduct, which can result in disciplinary action. Failure to understand what constitutes academic misconduct does not exempt responsibility from engaging in it. Please see this document for guidance: <https://www.uwsp.edu/dos/Documents/AcademicIntegrityBrochure.pdf>

PROFESSIONAL BEHAVIOR AND CLASSROOM EXPECTATIONS

Attendance and Class Participation

Students are expected to attend class regularly, read all assigned texts, and watch assigned multimedia prior to class. If students are unable to attend class- notify instructor prior to class. Participation is actively completing in-class assignments, engaging with your peers in group work, being responsible with partner work, and cooperating in creating a supportive, respectful environment.

Confidentiality

The classroom is a safe place for learning, inquiring, and expression; as such, there will be a professional standard of confidentiality maintained in the classroom.

Classroom and Canvas Civility and Respect for Diversity

We will learn to apply self-awareness and self-regulation to identify and manage influences of personal biases and values and show a willingness to learn about diversity. We will communicate using professional, strength based, and person-first language.

Written Assignments

All assignments will be submitted through Canvas on or before the due date unless otherwise specified. All written assignments must adhere to APA guidelines. Please refer to the APA publication manual for additional guidance or utilize the free APA Style Blog: <https://apastyle.apa.org/blog/>

Late Work

Students are expected to find ways to integrate their personal and educational lives to complete course work by the date due. Students are responsible for reaching out to the instructor to negotiate alternate due dates when it may be needed. You must do this at least 24 hours before the due date; however, requesting an extension is not guaranteed. The maximum extension is 3 days per semester. You are welcome to use this extension on one assignment or 3 assignments (1 day extension each). Late assignments without advance notice and those turned in after the agreed extension may result in a deduction of a half letter grade (example from A to A-) per day. No late assignments will be accepted two weeks past due date and no late assignments for presentations or final.

Student Feedback

Students are encouraged to provide feedback during office hours, by phone, by e-mail, and by appointment, if they desire. The instructor welcomes the opportunity to discuss assignments and/or course content.

Course Format

This is an in-person course. We meet on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Schedule and materials are in Canvas. If needed, virtual sessions will be via Zoom. The course includes an emphasis on reflective and applied learning.

Note: The instructor reserves the right to alter components of this syllabus at any time, including assignments and scheduling. Students will be given fair notice if changes occur.

ASSIGNMENTS- SEE DETAILED INSTRUCTIONS IN CANVAS

HBSE Influences Journals (25 points) Competency 1, 6, 7

Students reflect on their personal and professional development related to human behavior and the social environment. Students complete journal entries that reflect on influences shaping their bio-psycho-psychosocial-cultural-spiritual self (5 points each).

Case Study Film Analysis (75 points, Competency 2, 6-8)

This is an opportunity to explore aspects of the environment by highlighting the interaction between person and environment. Using the film, Including Samuel, students will write a paper which synthesizes and integrates course content including phases of social work practice, applies a theoretical perspective, and includes a genogram and an ecomap. See details on Canvas

Lifespan Development Group Teaching (20 points, Competency 1-4, 6-8)

15-minute group presentation consists of describing the physical, cognitive and psychosocial development during one of the phases of the lifespan. Groups will be divided into pre-pregnancy/prenatal, infancy/toddlerhood, early childhood, middle childhood, adolescence, early adulthood, middle adulthood, and late adulthood. Details on Canvas.

Exam

Exam may consist of multiple choice, true/false, short-answer essay, or case study.

Community Action Project (50 points, Competency 1, 6-9)

This assignment involves application of skills of phases of practice through a small-scale community action project. You will explore a community problem utilizing a community action planning approach based on participatory rural appraisal and other theoretical perspectives. The project involves:

- choosing a territorial or relational community and describing the community and its history, community culture and community structure, linkages
- engaging with a community member to gain local knowledge of a problem within the community to further explore an identified problem
- assessing local resources in the community including assets and strengths, social capital, natural and built environment, and identifying community type (community lost, community saved, community liberated)
- propose and plan interventions, outside help, that match community identified priorities/needs and include possible local partnerships
- describe how you would evaluate the effectiveness of the interventions

In-class Assignments: 50 points, Competency 1-9

We will have in-class assignments nearly every class as we engage with course content and our peers to build competency in our understanding of HBSE concepts.

HBSE Digital Story- Final (45 pts), Competency 1, 6, 7

Create a “digital story” -a multimedia story with images, voice, & words that reflects your self-exploration of HBSE influences and emerging professional identity. This is your Final. This assignment is intended to allow students to reflect on their personal and professional development related to human behavior and the social environment. Students may use their journal entries on their biological-psychological-psychosocial-cultural-spiritual self as a guide or inspiration for parts of the blog. Your assignment is to create a digital story using Microsoft SWAY. Choose the type of SWAY you prefer such as blog (standard or enhanced), newsletter, student report, presentation, etc.

Header 1-4: A general description of your biological-psychological-psychosocial-cultural-spiritual self. Be sure and address 4 of the 5 components! State how the overall combination of these characteristics influenced the opportunities and barriers that you have experienced so far in your life.

Header 5: Choose 1 of the models of identity development discussed in class and describe your progress through those stages to include your current stage of development. Choose from Chapter 4 & 5 of textbook: Piaget’s stages of cognitive development, moral development theories, social identity theory, or Erikson’s Stages of Psychosocial Development. Where are you now, and what phases have you passed through?

Header 6: Share and briefly explain a genogram you created for your family system. Describe a family ritual AND your experience of roles, role conflict, or gender roles. (Ch 10)

Header 7: Describe your individual (or family system) life course development using 3 of the 6 aspects of the Life Course perspective (ch 2 & 10)

Header 8: Identify and briefly describe 1 major social movement taking place that has influenced you (or that has taken place) in the larger environment and how your development and worldview are/were affected. Is this a reactive or proactive social movement.

Header 9: Discuss the values you bring with you as you progress through your educational journey and as you prepare for entering your future career. Choose at least 1 of the social work values: service, social justice, dignity and worth of the person, importance of human relationships, integrity, competence.
