SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

COURSE NUMBER: ECED:368/568 SEMESTER/YEAR: Summer 2024 CREDITS: 3

COURSE TITLE: Creative Integrated Curriculum and Methods for Young Children

CLASS DAY & TIME: Monday, June 24th- Friday, July 19th

LOCATION: Online

INSTRUCTOR: Dr. Sarah Beaulieu (she, her, hers)

Email: sbeaulie@uwsp.edu

Office: CPS 451

Office hours: by appointment

Course Description

This course will examine curriculum and methods for using and implementing_expressive arts such as art, drama, music, movement to enhance a child's development and learning often done through play. This course requires a "hands-on" approach as students will actively participate and lead creative activities. Practicum/field experience of 15 hours in an early childhood setting is a course requirement.

Course Learning Outcomes

1.) Students will critically analyze key theoretical frameworks in early childhood education, such as Piaget's stages of cognitive development or Vygotsky's socio-cultural theory, to inform their teaching practices.

2.) Students will integrate academic content from various subjects (e.g., science, math, language arts) into creative expressive activities, fostering cross-disciplinary learning experiences for young children.

3.) Students will create inclusive and culturally responsive learning environments, acknowledging and respecting the diverse backgrounds and needs of young children and their families.

General Education Program Learning Outcomes

KNOWLEDGE (KNOW)

- Students will explain how to integrate learning activities into children's play.

- Students will describe the role of expressive arts in early childhood development.
- Students will identify various forms of expressive arts, including art, drama, music, and movement, and their benefits for young children.
- Students will describe the impact of exploring diversity on their teaching practices.

SKILLS (ABLE TO DO)

- Students will plan activities that incorporate art, drama, music, and movement to enhance children's learning and development.
- Students will demonstrate effective methods for integrating expressive arts into daily classroom routines.
- Students will utilize play-based approaches to incorporate expressive arts into learning experiences.
- Analyze the impact of expressive arts on various domains of child development (cognitive, social, emotional, physical).

DISPOSITION (VALUE/APPRECIATE)

- Students will appreciate creativity within the early childhood classroom.
- Students will value planning meaningful cross-disciplinary activities.
- Students will value culturally diverse and inclusive practices.

Description of Course Assignments

Weekly Reflections 35 pts/week = 140 pts

Students are given choices boards each week and are able to pick at least five meaningful activities, readings, recordings, videos, etc. They will then reflect on their choices each week with the prompts provided.

Developmental Domain Visual 50 pts.

Students will work in small groups or individually to create (or add onto their developmental visual from ECED 262) that will include five developmental domains (physical, cognitive, social/emotional, language, and aesthetics) and will include at least four characteristics within each of the five domain for the six remaining age levels (3 to 8 years old). Specifics and rubric available in CANVAS. This is the signature assessment and therefore students need a score of 80% or higher for a passing course grade.

Practicum Reflection

Students will write a formal paper reflecting on their practicum experiences within addressing the prompts provided by the instructor. Additional specifics and rubric available in CANVAS.

30 pts

Unit Plan

100 pts.

Students will use the Understanding by Design (UbD) framework to develop an extensive unit plan on the theme assigned during class focusing one lesson on each of the following areas: Art, Creative Dramatics, Social Studies, Music, and Language Arts at the 3K, 4K, kindergarten, first, second, or third grade level. Students should integrate diversity and differentiation within the entire unit plan. Unit plan specifics and rubric available in CANVAS. This is the signature assessment and therefore students need a score of 80% or higher for a passing course grade.

Grading Scale

94 – 100% =A	77 – 79% = C+	60 – 63% = D-
90-93% = A-	74 – 76% = C	< 60% = F
87 – 89% = B+	70 – 73% = C-
84 – 86% = B	67 – 69% = D+

Assignment Criteria/Late Work

- Quality: Papers/Assignments must demonstrate scholarship and higher-level thinking skills. Ideas must be clearly stated, using inclusive language. Statements must be supported by concrete examples and reliable references. Paragraphs must be logically organized and coherent with correct spelling and grammar. More than one grammatical/mechanical error per page (on average) does not constitute "A" work. Overall appearance must be polished and professional. Papers must be word-processed and double-spaced.
- Originality: All work must be original for this class. Work done for other classes will not be accepted. Information that is not the student's original work must be documented by citing the source using APA 7th edition.
- Submission Format: Unless otherwise noted, all assignments must be submitted electronically on CANVAS uploaded in student folder on or before the due date by midnight. Each assignment must be submitted as a single WORD document. Each assignment must have the student's name, date, and course number or no grade/feedback will be provided.
- Timeliness/Late Work: One point or one letter grade will be deducted from the assignment grade for each day that work is submitted late. A failing grade, or an incomplete will be given for noncompletion. Any and all course work for the semester is due by midnight on the final course day (Friday, July 19th); any work submitted after this time will not be accepted.

Technology Guidelines

Netiquette Guidelines: Netiquette is a set of rules for behaving properly online. Your instructor and fellow students wish to foster a safe online learning environment. All opinions and experiences, no matter how different or controversial they may be perceived, must be respected in the tolerant spirit of academic discourse. You are encouraged to comment, question, or critique an idea but you are not to attack an individual. Working as a community of learners, we can build a polite and respectful course community.

The following netiquette tips will enhance the learning experience for everyone in the course:

- Do not dominate any discussion.
- Give other students the opportunity to join in the discussion.
- Do not use offensive language. Present ideas appropriately.

- Be cautious in using Internet language. For example, do not capitalize all letters since this suggests shouting.
- Popular emoticons such as (i) or / can be helpful to convey your tone but do not overdo or overuse them.
- Avoid using vernacular and/or slang language. This could possibly lead to misinterpretation.
- Never make fun of someone's ability to read or write.
- Share tips with other students.
- Keep an "open-mind" and be willing to express even your minority opinion. Minority opinions have to be respected.
- Think and edit before you push the "Send" button.
- Do not hesitate to ask for feedback.
- Using humor is acceptable

Online Resources/Programs: This course requires posting of work online that is viewable only by your classmates. None of the work submitted online will be shared publicly. Some assignments require account creation for online programs. Your academic records (grades, student IDs, personal identification information) will not be shared by the instructor of this course. Confidentiality of student work is imperative, so you should not share the work of your peers publicly without their permission. By participating in these assignments, you are giving consent to sharing of your work with others in this class and you recognize there is a small risk of your work being shared online beyond the purposes of this course. If you elect to not participate in these online assignments due to confidentiality concerns, then an alternate assignment will be offered to you.

Inclusivity Statement

It is my intent that students from all diverse backgrounds and perspectives be well-served by this course, that students' learning needs be addressed both in and out of class, and that the diversity that the students bring to this class be viewed as a resource, strength and benefit. It is my intent to present materials and activities that are respectful of diversity: gender identity, sexuality, disability, age, socioeconomic status, ethnicity, race, nationality, religion, and culture. Your suggestions are encouraged and appreciated. Please let me know ways to improve the effectiveness of the course for you personally, or for other students or student groups.

If you have experienced a bias incident (an act of conduct, speech, or expression to which a bias motive is evident as a contributing factor regardless of whether the act is criminal) at UWSP, you have the right to report it using this link. You may also contact the Dean of Students office directly at dos@uwsp.edu.

Confidentiality

Learning requires risk-taking and sharing ideas. Please keep your classmates' ideas and experiences confidential outside the classroom unless permission has been granted to share them.

Communicating with your Instructor

- Email is the quickest way to reach me at: sbeaulie@uwsp.edu
- Zoom Videoconference is also available by request.

Communicate Clearly

Remember some faculty receive as many as 100 emails per day. Yours should be clear, concise, and professional so that your issues can be responded to effectively. Include the entire thread of an ongoing email conversation so that your instructor can recall the history of your issue without searching for other emails you have sent. Sign off with your first and last name. I will not open attachments without messages or messages that are illegible.

Office hours

Individual meetings can be arranged at the request of the student or by the instructor. I do not hold normal office hours during the following weeks: (Thanksgiving week, Spring Break, Summer Break, and finals weeks.)

Attendance

Attending class will likely be the single most important factor in determining your performance and grade in this course, so plan to participate each week.

Please refer to the "Absences due to Military Service" and "Religious Beliefs Accommodation" below. Additionally, below are attendance guidelines as outlined by the UWSP registrar:

- If you must be absent during the term, tell your instructor prior to the class you will miss. If you cannot reach your instructor(s) in an emergency, contact the Dean of Students Office at 715-346-2611 or DOS@uwsp.edu.
- If you are dropped from a class due to non-attendance, you may only be reinstated to the class section using the class add process. Reinstatement to the same section or course is not guaranteed. Your instructors will explain their specific attendance policies to be followed at the beginning of each course.
- If you take part in an off-campus trip by an authorized university group such as an athletic team, musical or dramatic organization, or a class, make appropriate arrangements in advance with the instructor of each class you will miss. If you are absent from classes because of emergencies, off-campus trips, illness, or the like, your instructors will give you a reasonable amount of help in making up the work you have missed.

- If you enroll in a course and cannot begin attending until after classes have already started, you must first get permission from the department offering the course. Otherwise, you may be required to drop the course.
- If you do not make satisfactory arrangements with your instructors regarding excessive absences, you may be dismissed. If you are dismissed from a class, you will receive an F in that course. If you are dismissed from the University, you will receive an F in all enrolled courses.

Absences due to Military Service

As stated in the UWSP Catalog, you will not be penalized for class absence due to unavoidable or legitimate required military obligations, or medical appointments at a VA facility, not to exceed two (2) weeks unless special permission is granted by the instructor. You are responsible for notifying faculty members of such circumstances as far in advance as possible and for providing documentation to the Office of the Dean of Students to verify the reason for the absence. The faculty member is responsible to provide reasonable accommodations or opportunities to make up exams or other course assignments that have an impact on the course grade. For absences due to being deployed for active duty, please refer to the Military Call-Up Instructions for Students.

Religious Beliefs Accommodation

It is UW System policy (UWS 22) to reasonably accommodate your sincerely held religious beliefs with respect to all examinations and other academic requirements.

You will be permitted to make up an exam or other academic requirement at another time or by an alternative method, without any prejudicial effect, if:

- There is a scheduling conflict between your sincerely held religious beliefs and taking the exam or meeting the academic requirements; and
- You have notified your instructor within the first three weeks of the beginning of classes (first week of summer or interim courses) of the specific days or dates that you will request relief from an examination or academic requirement.
- Your instructor will accept the sincerity of your religious beliefs at face value and keep your request confidential.
- Your instructor will schedule a make-up exam or requirement before or after the regularly scheduled exam or requirement.
- You may file any complaints regarding compliance with this policy in the Equity and Affirmative Action Office.

Equal Access for Students with Disabilities

UW-Stevens Point will modify academic program requirements as necessary to ensure that they do not discriminate against qualified applicants or students with disabilities. The modifications should not affect the substance of educational programs or compromise academic standards; nor should they intrude upon academic freedom. Examinations or other procedures used for evaluating students' academic achievements may be adapted. The results of such evaluation must demonstrate the student's achievement in the academic activity, rather than describe his/her disability.

If modifications are required due to a disability, please inform the instructor and contact the Disability and Assistive Technology Center to complete an Accommodations Request form. Phone: 346-3365

Care Team

The University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point is committed to the safety and success of all students. The Office of the Dean of Students supports the campus community by reaching out and providing resources in areas where a student may be struggling or experiencing barriers to their success. Faculty and staff are asked to be proactive, supportive, and involved in facilitating the success of our students through early detection, reporting, and intervention. As your instructor, I may contact the Office of the Dean of Students if I sense you are in need of additional support which individually I may not be able to provide. You may also share a concern if you or another member of our campus community needs support, is distressed, or exhibits concerning behavior that is interfering with the academic or personal success or the safety of others, by reporting here.

Academic Honesty

Academic Integrity is an expectation of each UW-Stevens Point student. Campus community members are responsible for fostering and upholding an environment in which student learning is fair, just, and honest. Through your studies as a student, it is essential to exhibit the highest level of personal honesty and respect for the intellectual property of others. Academic misconduct is unacceptable. It compromises and disrespects the integrity of our university and those who study here. To maintain academic integrity, a student must only claim work which is the authentic work solely of their own, providing correct citations and credit to others as needed. Cheating, fabrication, plagiarism, unauthorized collaboration, and/or helping others commit these acts are examples of academic misconduct, which can result in disciplinary action. Failure to understand what constitutes academic misconduct does not exempt responsibility from engaging in it.

UWSP 14.03 Academic misconduct subject to disciplinary action.

- (1) Academic misconduct is an act in which a student:
- (a) Seeks to claim credit for the work or efforts of another without authorization or citation;
- (b) Uses unauthorized materials or fabricated data in any academic exercise;
- (c) Forges or falsifies academic documents or records;
- (d) Intentionally impedes or damages the academic work of others;
- (e) Engages in conduct aimed at making false representation of a student's academic performance; or

- (f) Assists other students in any of these acts.
- (2) Examples of academic misconduct include, but are not limited to:
 - Cheating on an examination
 - Collaborating with others in work to be presented, contrary to the stated rules of the course
 - Submitting a paper or assignment as one's own work when a part or all of the paper or assignment is the work of another
 - Submitting a paper or assignment that contains ideas or research of others without appropriately identifying the sources of those ideas
 - Stealing examinations or course materials
 - Submitting, if contrary to the rules of a course, work previously presented in another course
 - Tampering with the laboratory experiment or computer program of another student
 - Knowingly and intentionally assisting another student in any of the above, including assistance in an arrangement whereby any work, classroom performance, examination or other activity is submitted or performed by a person other than the student under whose name the work is submitted or performed.

Students suspected of academic misconduct will be asked to meet with the instructor to discuss the concerns. If academic misconduct is evident, procedures for determining disciplinary sanctions will be followed as outlined in the University System Administrative Code, Chapter 14.

Other Campus Policies

FERPA

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) provides students with a right to protect, review, and correct their student records. Staff of the university with a clear educational need to know may also have to access to certain student records. Exceptions to the law include parental notification in cases of alcohol or drug use, and in case of a health or safety concern. FERPA also permits a school to disclose personally identifiable information from a student's education records, without consent, to another school in which the student seeks or intends to enroll.

Title IX

UW-Stevens Point is committed to fostering a safe, productive learning environment. Title IX and institutional policy prohibit discrimination on the basis of sex, which includes harassment, domestic and dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking. In the event that you choose to disclose information about having survived sexual violence, including harassment, rape, sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking, and specify that this violence occurred while a student at UWSP, federal and state laws mandate that I, as your instructor, notify the Title IX Coordinator/Office of the Dean of Students.

Please see the Title IX page for more information for guidance on making confidential reports of misconduct or interpersonal violence, as well as campus and community resources available to students.

Clery Act

The US Department of Education requires universities to disclose and publish campus crime statistics, security information, and fire safety information annually. Statistics for the three previous calendar years and policy statements are released on or before October 1st in our Annual Security Report. Another requirement of the Clery Act, is that the campus community must be given timely warnings of ongoing safety threats and immediate/emergency notifications. For more information about when and how these notices will be sent out, please see our Jeanne Clery Act page.

Drug Free Schools and Communities Act

The Drug Free Schools and Communities Act (DFSCA) requires institutions of higher education to establish policies that address unlawful possession, use, or distribution of alcohol and illicit drugs. The DFSCA also requires the establishment of a drug and alcohol prevention program. The Center for Prevention lists information about alcohol and drugs, their effects, and the legal consequences if found in possession of these substances. Center for Prevention – DFSCA

Copyright infringement

This is the act of exercising, without permission or legal authority, one or more of the exclusive rights granted to the copyright owner under section 106 of the Copyright Act. Each year students violate these laws and campus policies, putting themselves at risk of federal prosecution. For more information about what to expect if you are caught, or to take preventive measures to keep your computing device clean, visit our copyright page.

Voter Registration Information

Register: Did you know you can register to vote and check your voter registration status at vvww.myvote.wi.gov?

Vote: In Wisconsin, you can vote absentee - or vote from home - in any election. You can request your absentee ballot at www.myvote.wi.gov (select "Vote Absentee" on the navigation page).
