Course Description:

Learn about and employ college success strategies, develop an understanding of how higher education and UW-Stevens Point operates, and make connections with UWSP peers.

Purpose: The purpose of the class is to give students the college success skills necessary to be successful at UW-Stevens Point. Among the skills we will explore throughout the course will be motivation, time management, study skills, test taking skills, habits and self-efficacy.

Learning Outcomes: Upon completing this course, students will be able to:

- ❖ Describe why a college education, in particular a liberal education, is important to them.
- ❖ Identify barriers to college success, as well as ways to overcome those barriers.
- ❖ Identify and apply appropriate note-taking, test-taking, and time-management strategies to their academic studies.
- ❖ Describe the importance of co-curricular involvement and how it enhances their academic study at UWSP.
- ❖ Identify and utilize UWSP programs, resources, and services that will support their academic studies and co-curricular involvement.

Course requirements (to pass this class):

1. Attendance and Participation: Engage yourself in the learning process. You will only get out of this class what you put in. You are allowed two absences. Each absence over 2 will cost you ½ letter grade. It is your responsibility to email me to get the homework assigned that day. You must complete all homework assignments, regardless of your attendance.
2. Assignments: There will be several assignments that reflect the topic for that week. You are required to complete all the assignments, even if you have missed a class. All assignments will add up to 100 total points.

UWSP Community Bill of Rights and Responsibilities

UWSP values a safe, honest, respectful, and inviting learning environment. In order to ensure that each student has the opportunity to succeed, a set of expectations have been developed for all students and instructors. This set of expectations is known as the Rights and Responsibilities document, and it is intended to help establish a positive living and learning environment at UWSP. For more information go to:

<http://www.uwsp.edu/stuaffairs/Pages/rightsandresponsibilites.aspx>.

The Rights and Responsibilities document also includes the policies regarding academic misconduct, which can be found in Chapter 14. A direct link can be found here:

Americans with Disabilities Act

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal law requiring educational institutions to provide reasonable accommodations for students with disabilities. For more information about UWSP's policies, check here:

<http://www.uwsp.edu/stuaffairs/Documents/RightsRespons/ADA/rightsADAPolicyinfo.pdf>.

If you have a disability and require classroom and/or exam accommodations, please register with the Disability Services Office and then contact me at the beginning of the course. I am happy to help in any way I can. For more information, please visit the Disability Services Office, located on the 6th floor of the Learning Resource Center (the Library).
