Office Hours: Mondays from 1:00-3:00 p.m. or by appointment

Course Overview

Education 300 is a special topics course designed to provide you with professional and career development. During the course you will receive professional development on career preparation, educational initiatives, and special topics in education. Throughout the course, you will have the opportunity to further your understanding of the InTASC Teaching Standards, professional reflection and teaching practice. Specifically, this course seeks to develop InTASC standard 9.

Professional Learning and Ethical Practice: The teacher engages in ongoing professional learning and uses evidence to continually evaluate his/her practice, particularly the effects of his/her choices and actions on others (learners, families, other professionals, and the community), and adapts practice to meet the needs of each learner.

Course Objectives:

Students will complete a professional resume, letter of reference for a teaching application. Students will complete a WECAN application.

Students will learn best practices in assessment and evaluation.

Students will reflect, discuss, and write on educational initiatives and special topics in education.

Learner Outcomes:

Students will be able:

- to identify and use academic language in their professional career.
- apply reflection and professional conduct within their teaching practice and decision making with students.
- to find, use and document research-based practices in their teaching.
- to demonstrate an understanding of multiple perspectives and forms of diversity and articulate strategies that support all learners.

Essential Questions:

- How does professional reflection improve student learning?
- How do we prepare professional materials for the interview process?
- How do we find and document research-based practices?
- How do you support diversity of thinking in your teaching practice?

Community of Learners

My goal for our learning environment is to establish a culture that is inclusive, respectful, honest and caring. In order to create this community of learners, we should remain open to new ideas, actively listen and be mindful of the diversity in our modern world. As a community, we aim to be respectful to all citizens in this class, regardless of race, ethnicity, religion, gender or sexual orientation. Please remember that professional behavior is expected at all times in the classroom.

COVID Considerations

During these unprecedented times, I am asking that you respect that I have thought about how to best deliver the course content in an efficient and effective format. I have scheduled a limited amount of synchronous meetings to alleviate some of the issues that arise in online teaching. I need you to be present at the zoom lecture times for you get the most out of the course content. All the zoom links can be found on CANVAS in the toolbar named, Zoom. Much of what you learn in this course will prepare you for your teaching career. This course has four sections, and if you cannot make a zoom lecture session, you can always join another section by communicating with me. Just send an email, and I will be sure to get you the appropriate zoom link. If technology issues arise during the course, please communicate with me. Lectures will be taped but will only be provided if you have a legitimate concern or reason you cannot be available at the scheduled class times. Effective communication and professionalism are required in zoom and in all your communication in this class. At this point in your teacher preparation, we are evaluating your ability to perform, communicate and succeed in the teaching profession.

Intellectual Property and Privacy of Recorded Zoom Sessions

Common Core Standards and Rtl

Wisconsin has adopted the common core standards as a means of defining how and what instruction is taught at each grade level. Please refer to the link attached if you want to find the common core standards in a curricular area. http://standards.dpi.wi.gov/stn ccss

Wisconsin has a unique and comprehensive vision for the implementation of the framework for RtI. The attached link provides you that framework as well as additional links to PBIS and SIMS. You are strongly encouraged to use this framework when thinking about instructional design. There is also a wealth of resources for understanding Wisconsin RtI located at the Wisconsin RtI Center website that follows. http://rti.dpi.wi.gov/ http://www.wisconsinrticenter.org/

UWSP Community Bill of Rights and Responsibilities

UWSP values a safe, honest, respectful and inviting learning environment. In order to ensure that each student has the opportunity to succeed, a set of expectations have been developed for all students and instructors. This set of expectations is known as the Rights and Responsibilities document, and it is intended to help establish a positive living and learning environment at UWSP. For information go to:

http://www.uwsp.edu/stuaffairs/Pages/rightsandresponsibilities.aspx

The rights and responsibilities document also includes the policies regarding academic misconduct, which can be found in Chapter 14. A direct link can be found here:

American with Disabilities Act

The American Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal law requiring educational institutions to provide reasonable accommodations for students with disabilities. For more information about UWSP's policies, check here:

http://www.uwsp.edu/stuaffairs/Documents/RightsRespons/ADAPolicyinfo.pdf

If you have a disability and require classroom and/or exam accommodations, please register with the Disability and Assistive Technology Center and then contact me at the beginning of the course. I am happy to help in any way I can. For more information, please visit the Disability and Assistive Technology Center located on the 6th floor of the Learning Resource Center (Library).
