Course Description

The purpose of the course is to examine research-based and evidence-based practices for teaching language arts. Students will become knowledgeable of the interconnectedness of the six language arts and how to use reading, writing, speaking, listening, viewing and visually representing to spur knowledge building through a culturally-relevant lens. Course performance tasks will emphasize guiding students toward deep understanding as they read, listen, and view material. Application of Gradual Release of Responsibility, integrated study, and culturally-responsive instruction are also emphasized.

Participants will call on and grow their knowledge from the Reading Methods courses, EDUC 302 & 309.

Practicum Experience

Most students in EDUC 310 will complete an EMB field experience that will provide a rich practicum experience to observe, plan, teach, and assess English Language Arts throughout the elementary school day. Students that are not concurrently enrolled in the EMB block will complete 20 hours of practicum in a classroom to observe, plan, teach, and assess English Language Art skills during an English Language Arts instructional time or an instructional block in which ELA instruction is infused.

Technology Guidelines

Cell phone usage: Research supports that having visual access to a cell phone diminishes our ability to learn. Checking social media, texts, emails, and messages is unprofessional and disrespectful to our class community. Please turn off your phone during class; I will do so as well. If I notice that you are using your phone during class, I may ask you to share what you are researching or ask you to put it away. Thank you for following these guidelines, as they help create a positive learning community.

Online Learning and Collaboration Tools: This course may require posting work online that is viewable only by your classmates and instructors. None of the work submitted online will be shared publicly. Some assignments may require account creation for online programs. Your academic records (grades, student IDs, personal identification information) will not be shared by the course instructor. Confidentiality of student work is imperative, so you should not share the work of your peers publicly without their permission. By participating in these learning activities, you are giving consent to sharing your work with others in this class, and you recognize there is a small risk of your work being shared online beyond the purposes of this course. You will receive an alternate assignment if you elect not to participate in these online assignments due to confidentiality concerns, you will receive an alternate assignment.

Inclusivity Statement

I intend that students from all diverse backgrounds and perspectives be well-served by this course, that students' learning needs be addressed both in and out of class, and that the diversity that the students bring to this class be viewed as a resource strength and benefit. I intend to present materials and activities that are respectful of diversity: gender identity, sexuality, disability, age, socioeconomic status, ethnicity, race, nationality, religion, and culture. Your suggestions are encouraged and appreciated. Please let me know ways to improve the effectiveness of the course for you personally or for other students or student groups. Suppose you have experienced a bias incident (an act of conduct, speech, or expression to which a bias motive is evident as a contributing factor regardless of whether the act is criminal) at UWSP. In that case, you have the right to report it using this link. You may also contact the Dean of Students office directly at dos@uwsp.edu. I commit to doing my part by keeping myself informed on the most recent research and practices that best support inclusive learning.

Confidentiality

Learning requires risk-taking and sharing ideas. Please keep your classmates' ideas and experiences confidential outside the classroom unless permission has been granted to share them.

Attendance & Late Work

Attendance

Consistent attendance is critical to you successfully learning the knowledge, skills, and dispositions of EDUC 310 that will prepare you for your EMB field experience. To make time for an immersion field experience, this is a compressed class. When you miss one class period, you are often missing at least two days of content from a traditional 3-credit class. The instructor is unable to re-teach the material to students that do not attend course sessions. Occasionally illness or other emergencies make attendance impractical or impossible. In these cases, the instructor may approve of an absence. As a result of any absence, the instructor may provide a make-up assignment and deduct participation points. The following points will be deducted from missing class (at the instructor's discretion).

- One absence: 0 points
- Two absences: 5 points
- Three absences: 10 points
- Four or more absences: automatic letter deduction (e.g., A to a B), dispositions meeting, and/or incomplete if absences continue and/or persistent tardiness.

Late Work

All EDUC 310 assignments are to be turned in on the designated dates and times. Please make arrangements with the instructor in the case of an emergency. If you cannot meet a deadline, please contact your instructor at least 48 hours in advance. Extensions may be granted at the discretion of the instructor. All late work, if allowed, is subject to point deductions at the discretion of the instructor. Furthermore, work that is submitted after the course has been completed is subject to university policies and procedures related to incompletes.

Safety & Emergency Procedures

The health and safety of our students, faculty, and staff are top priorities at UW-Stevens Point.

COVID-19 Pandemic

Please follow the UWSP policies related to keeping our community safe concerning the COVID-19 pandemic. The policy may change during the semester due to health department requirements, CDC guidelines, and local vaccination and infection rates. Students are recommended to watch their UWSP email for updates, or go here for the most updated information: <https://www.uwsp.edu/coronavirus/Pages/default.aspx>

- Classroom Responsibilities: Please evaluate your own health status regularly and seek appropriate medical attention to treat illness. If you are not feeling well or believe you have been exposed to COVID-19, do not come to class; email your instructor and contact Student Health Service (715-346-4646). Additional classroom responsibilities include that students should:
 - communicate their need to be absent and complete the course requirements as outlined in the syllabus.
 - maintain a minimum of six feet of physical distance from others whenever possible.
 - avoid congregating in groups before or after class; stagger your arrival and departure from the classroom, lab, or meeting room.
 - sit in the same seat every day to make contact tracing easier if that becomes necessary.
 - clean their assigned seating area.

- maintain healthy practices inside and outside of the classroom (e.g., wash your hands/use appropriate hand sanitizer regularly and avoid touching your face).

Other Medical Emergencies

In the event of

- a medical emergency, call 9-1-1 or use campus phone. Offer assistance if trained and willing to do so. Guide emergency responders to the victim(s).
- a tornado warning, proceed to the lowest level interior room without window exposure at [list primary location for shelter closest to classroom,]. See www.uwsp.edu/rmgt/Pages/em/procedures/other/floor-plans.aspx for floor plans showing severe weather shelters on campus. Avoid wide-span structures (gyms, pools, or large classrooms).
- a fire alarm, calmly evacuate the building. Meet at a designated location at least 200 yards away from the building. Notify instructor or emergency response personnel of any missing individuals.
- an active shooter, RUN. HIDE. FIGHT. If trapped, hide, lock doors, turn off lights, spread out, and remain quiet. Call 9-1-1 when it is safe to do so. Follow instructions of emergency responders. See UW-Stevens Point Emergency Procedures at www.uwsp.edu/rmgt/Pages/em/procedures for details on all emergency responses at UW-Stevens Point.

Equal Access for Students with Disabilities

UW-Stevens Point will modify academic program requirements as necessary to ensure that they do not discriminate against qualified applicants or students with disabilities. The modifications should not affect the substance of educational programs or compromise academic standards, nor should they intrude upon academic freedom. Examinations or other procedures used for evaluating students' academic achievements may be adapted. The results of such evaluation must demonstrate the student's achievement in the academic activity rather than describe their disability. If modifications are required due to a disability, please inform the instructor and contact the Disability and Assistive Technology Center to complete an Accommodations Request form. Phone: 346-3365 or Room 609 Albertson Hall.

Care Team

The University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point is committed to the safety and success of all students. The Office of the Dean of Students supports the campus community by reaching out and providing resources in areas where a student may be struggling or experiencing barriers to their success. Faculty and staff are asked to be proactive, supportive, and involved in facilitating the success of our students through early detection, reporting, and intervention. As your instructor, I may contact the Office of the Dean of Students if I sense you require additional support that I may not be able to provide individually. You may also share a concern if you or another member of our campus community needs support, is distressed, or exhibits concerning behavior that is interfering with the academic or personal success or the safety of others by reporting here.

Academic Honesty

Academic Integrity is an expectation of each UW-Stevens Point student. Campus community members are responsible for fostering and upholding an environment where student learning is fair, just, and honest. Through your studies as a student, it is essential to exhibit the highest level of personal honesty and respect for the intellectual property of others. Academic misconduct is unacceptable. It compromises and disrespects the integrity of our university and those who study here. To maintain academic integrity, a student must only claim authentic work solely of their own, providing correct citations and credit to others as needed. Cheating, fabrication, plagiarism, unauthorized collaboration, and/or helping others commit these acts are examples of academic misconduct, which can result in disciplinary action. Failure to understand what constitutes academic misconduct does not exempt responsibility from engaging in it.

UWSP 14.03 Academic misconduct subject to disciplinary action.

- (1) Academic misconduct is an act in which a student:
 - (a) Seeks to claim credit for the work or efforts of another without authorization or citation;
 - (b) Uses unauthorized materials or fabricated data in any academic exercise;
 - (c) Forges or falsifies academic documents or records;
 - (d) Intentionally impedes or damages the academic work of others;

(e) Engages in conduct aimed at making false representation of a student's academic performance; or

(f) Assists other students in any of these acts.

(2) Examples of academic misconduct include, but are not limited to:

- Cheating on an examination
- Collaborating with others in work to be presented, contrary to the stated rules of the course
- Submitting a paper or assignment as one's work when a part or all of the paper or assignment is the work of another
- Submitting a paper or assignment that contains ideas or research of others without appropriately identifying the sources of those ideas
- Stealing examinations or course materials
- Submitting, if contrary to the rules of a course, work previously presented in another course
- Tampering with the laboratory experiment or computer program of another student
- Knowingly and intentionally assisting another student in any of the above, including assistance in an arrangement whereby any work, classroom performance, examination, or other activity is submitted or performed by a person other than the student under whose name the work is submitted or performed.

Students suspected of academic misconduct will be asked to meet with the instructor to discuss the concerns. If academic misconduct is evident, procedures for determining disciplinary sanctions will be followed as outlined in the University System Administrative Code, Chapter 14.

Other Campus Policies & Helpful Information

FERPA

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) provides students with a right to protect, review, and correct their student records. Staff of the university with a clear educational need to know may also have access to certain student records. Exceptions to the law include parental notification in cases of alcohol or drug use and in case of a health or safety concern. FERPA also permits a school to disclose personally identifiable information from a student's education records, without consent, to another school in which the student seeks or intends to enroll.

Title IX

UW-Stevens Point is committed to fostering a safe, productive learning environment. Title IX and institutional policy prohibit discrimination on the basis of sex, which includes harassment, domestic and dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking. If you choose to disclose information about having survived sexual violence, including harassment, rape, sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking, and specify that this violence occurred while a student at UWSP, federal and state laws mandate that I, as your instructor, notify the Title IX Coordinator/Office of the Dean of Students. Please see the Title IX page for more information for guidance on making confidential reports of misconduct or interpersonal violence, as well as campus and community resources available to students.

Clery Act

The US Department of Education requires universities to disclose and publish campus crime statistics, security information, and fire safety information annually. Statistics for the three previous calendar years and policy statements are released on or before October 1st in our Annual Security Report. Another requirement of the Clery Act, is that the campus community must be given timely warnings of ongoing safety threats and immediate/emergency notifications. Please see our Jeanne Clery Act page for more information about when and how these notices will be sent out.

Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act

The Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act (DFSCA) requires higher education institutions to establish policies that address unlawful possession, use, or distribution of alcohol and illicit drugs. The DFSCA also requires the establishment of a drug and alcohol prevention program. The Center for Prevention lists information about alcohol and drugs, their effects, and the legal consequences if found in possession of these substances. Center for Prevention – DFSCA

Copyright infringement

This is the act of exercising, without permission or legal authority, one or more of the exclusive rights granted to the copyright owner under section 106 of the Copyright Act. Each year students violate these laws and campus policies, putting themselves at risk of federal prosecution. For more information about what to expect if you are caught or to take preventive measures to keep your computing device clean, visit our copyright page.
