Purpose and Course Description

EDUC 381 Educational Psychology. 2 cr. psychological bases of educational procedures and practices; educational implications of physical and mental growth characteristics, emotional behavior, motivation, learning, individual differences, and human relations.

Student Learning Outcomes

By the end of the course, you will be able to:

1. Explain and appreciate the history, culture, and contributions of women and various racial, cultural, language, and economic groups in the United States.
2. Explain and appreciate your own culture.
3. Explain the roots and impacts of discrimination, especially racism and sexism, in American society.
4. Explain strategies for creating spaces that are safe and welcoming, in which everyone can succeed.

Wisconsin Teaching Standards

These standards have been adopted by the School of Education. The standards have been grouped into four general categories to help users organize their thinking about the standards, found on pages 20-21 in the attached advising guide.

Wisconsin Educator Preparation Standards

| Category | Standard | Description |
|----------|----------|-------------|

|------------------------------------|---|---|
| The Learner and Learning | Pupil Development | The teacher understands how pupils grow and develop, recognizing that patterns of learning and development vary individually within and across the cognitive, linguistic, social, emotional, and physical areas. The teacher designs and implements developmentally appropriate and challenging learning experiences for pupils. |
| | Learning Differences | The teacher uses his or her understanding of individual pupil differences and diverse cultures and communities to ensure inclusive learning environments that enable each pupil to meet high standards. |
| | Learning Environments | The teacher works with others to create environments that support individual and collaborative learning, and that encourage positive social interaction, active engagement in learning, and self-motivation. |
| Content | Content Knowledge | The teacher understands the central concepts, tools of inquiry, and structures of each discipline he or she teaches. The teacher creates learning experiences that make the discipline accessible and meaningful for pupils to assure mastery of the content. |
| | Application of Content | The teacher understands how to connect concepts and use differing perspectives to engage pupils in critical thinking, creativity, and collaborative problem solving related to authentic local and global issues. |
| Instructional Practice | Assessment | The teacher understands and uses multiple methods of assessment to engage pupils in their own growth, to monitor pupil progress, and to guide the teacher's and pupil's decision making. |
| | Planning for Instruction | The teacher plans instruction that supports every pupil in meeting rigorous learning goals by drawing upon knowledge of content areas, curriculum, cross-disciplinary skills, pedagogy, pupils, and pupils' communities. |
| | Instructional Strategies | The teacher understands and uses a variety of instructional strategies to encourage pupils to develop a deep understanding of content areas and their connections, and to develop skills to apply knowledge in a meaningful way. |
| Professional Responsibility | Professional Learning and Ethical Practice | The teacher engages in ongoing professional learning. The teacher uses evidence to continuously evaluate the teacher's practice, including the effects of the teacher's choices and actions on pupils, their families, other educators, and the community. The teacher adapts the teacher's practice to meet the needs of each pupil. |
| | Leadership and Collaboration | The teacher seeks appropriate leadership roles and opportunity in order to take responsibility for pupil learning, to collaborate with pupils, their families, educators, and the community, and to advance the profession. |

This course focuses on these Teaching Standards:

EDUC 381 offers good preparation for success in the standards related to The Learner and Learning, Content, Instructional Practice, and Professional Responsibility

Reflective Practitioner

It is imperative that you take the time necessary to reflect on your interactions, disposition, and pedagogy throughout each school year. To be reflective is not being critical of yourself but rather a necessary tool to ensure that you are providing the best service to your students and colleagues. I will provide a myriad of resources to encourage reflection and collaboration in and outside of the classroom.

Professional Learning Communities (PLC)

You will be a part of a Professional Learning Community throughout the semester. I will assign groups, but you will have an opportunity to make requests. You will likely be a part of a PLC when you are hired in a district and there is a significant push toward "Co Plan to Co Serve," a larger cohort of educators that meet regularly to discuss ways in which each student can be best served.

Grading and Course Requirements

About Assignments:

Directions and rubrics for all the assignments are in Canvas. I'm always happy to answer questions on an assignment, so please don't hesitate to ask. I care about your success. I'd rather clear up your confusion today than deduct points on an assignment tomorrow.

Please read the directions for each assignment carefully. Depending on the assignment, you will email me, post to Canvas under Discussions, or submit to the Canvas dropbox. If you are emailing me, please send one assignment per email, and use the correct subject. You can lose points by not submitting an assignment correctly.

Please save all emails and assignments for this course until you see a final grade on your transcript or Degree Progress Report, and you are satisfied with your grade.

Late Work

I expect you to complete all assignments on time. An assignment completed on time can receive 100% of the points possible. There will be a deduction of 2.5% a day from your grade if assignments are turned in late without letting me know ahead of time.

About the Instructor

My passion for this course is informed by my positionality as an educator and researcher, and my experiences as a student. I am an African American, heterosexual, cisgender male, and I attended primarily private schools for much of my education. Most often I was the sole student of color in my classes, with teachers who knew little about cultural responsiveness, and as a result I sometimes disengaged from learning feeling like my worldview didn't matter. Over time, as I learned more about my culture and equally importantly the cultures of others, I realized that everyone's opinions and experiences are important for learning regardless of their worldview. so, I made an effort to listen carefully to my classmates, say at least one important thing in each class, and to ask at least one important question. Doing so made me a much better student, so I encourage everyone to do the same.

Dispositions & Conduct

I view my students as pre professionals or current professionals. Your conduct in this course should demonstrate your qualifications for professional responsibilities (e. teaching and guiding young people). I will treat you as a professional, and I expect you to demonstrate your qualifications in many ways. As a teacher, I align my policies and choices with my department's expectations. The School of Education has adopted a model of the dispositions (Links to an external site.) we expect from our students and graduates. I don't expect you to be at the final " level in your dispositions. Instead, I offer this model for your own self-evaluation and goal setting.

Class Climate

I'm dedicated to creating safe, inclusive classes where everyone can succeed. This course is a Safe Zone for LGBTQ+ issues and more. I won't condone disrespectful or discriminatory language or behavior. I extend an open-door invitation to all my students. If you feel unwelcome or unsafe in this course or have any concerns about your ability to succeed, please let me know. We can address the issue together confidentially.

As a teacher, I align my policies and choices with my university's guidance, including the UWSP Community Bill of Rights and Responsibilities (Links to an external site.).

Exceptional Needs

I'm dedicated to accommodating the needs of my students. I don't believe that equal treatment is the same as fair treatment. A course requirement like a deadline may be unfair to you, based on a life event or a disability. If I agree that the requirement is unfair, then I'm happy to make an accommodation. Here are some exceptional needs I have accommodated in the past: learning disability, physical disability, chronic illness, death in the family, car accident, sick child.

As a teacher, I align my policies and choices with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), a federal law that requires educational institutions to provide reasonable accommodations for students with disabilities. Here is more information about UWSP's relevant policies (Links to an external site.). If you have a disability and want accommodation, please register with the Disability Services and Assistive Technology Office (Links to an external site.) and contact me. If you're unfamiliar or uneasy with this process, please contact me anyway, and we'll work through it together.

When contacting me about a life event or other exceptional need, please suggest the specific accommodation(s) you want (e.g., turning in an assignment late without a penalty, taking an Incomplete in this course).

Integrity

I expect you to come to class promptly and regularly, prepared to participate in the activities actively and fully. I expect you to treat me, your colleagues, and anyone else with respect and tolerance. I expect you to take responsibility for managing your life so that you complete all assignments on time. However, life happens from time to time. If you cannot meet these expectations (e.g., attendance, assignments), I expect you to communicate with me and anyone else affected (e.g., your colleagues) as soon as possible.

I have a loose expectation with cell phones. If you need to use it, you've earned the right to. Ultimately it is all of you who are paying for this education. I may approach you after class and inquire about your usage if it appears to be excessive. If it continues to be an issue, it will reflect on your attendance grade. Your physical presence is not adequate enough to be present.

As a teacher, I align my policy on academic misconduct (e.g., cheating) with Chapter 14 of the UWSP Bill of Rights and Responsibilities (Links to an external site.). This is my general policy: I will allow you to redo the relevant assignment for no more than 50% possible, and you won't be eligible to earn higher than a B+ in this course (UWSP 14.04 (1) (d, e)). I will honor your right to a conference with me, a written report from me, and contest my decision (UWSP 14.06 (1, 3)).

Coursebook

There is one required rental textbook:

- Durwin, C.C., & Reese-Weber, M. (2017). Ed Psych: Modules (3rd Ed.). Thousand Oaks, CA: SAGE Publications.

Other readings will be handed out in class, posted on Canvas, or obtained independently by students. Please let me know privately if you have difficulty getting supplies for this class, and I will discretely help you.

Inclusivity Statement

It is my intent that students from all diverse backgrounds and perspectives be well-served by this course, that students' learning needs be addressed both in and out of class, and that the diversity that the students bring to this class be viewed as a resource, strength, and benefit. It is my intent to present materials and activities that are respectful of diversity: gender identity, sexuality, disability, age, socioeconomic status, ethnicity, race, nationality, religion, and culture. Your suggestions are encouraged and appreciated. Please let me know ways to improve the effectiveness of the course for you personally, or for other students or student groups.

If you have experienced a bias incident (an act of conduct, speech, or expression to which a bias motive is evident as a contributing factor regardless of whether the act is criminal) at UWSP, you have the right to report it using this link. You may also contact the Dean of Students office directly at dos@uwsp.edu.

I commit to doing my part as well by keeping myself informed on the most recent research and practices that best support inclusive learning.

Addressing Offensive or Archaic Language in Class

Throughout this class, we'll read texts by authors from minority communities. In telling their stories, some of these writers use offensive slurs. I will always provide you with advance warning when this is the case. If such terms are triggering to you, please let me know so that we can decide how to proceed.

I will refrain from replicating offensive language in my lectures, class discussions, and written course materials. If I must reference an offensive term (in speech or in writing), I will do so elliptically--for example: n-word, f-word, etc. I ask that you do the same in your discussions and in your written work. If, in a written assignment, you are quoting from a section of our reading that makes use of an offensive term, please use dashes or asterisks rather than writing out the word (ex: n----- or f). If you are uncertain whether a term is offensive, please email me to ask. If by chance someone accidentally replicates such a term, I will correct the error and ask them to avoid using it in the future, and/or ask the student to resubmit written work after deleting the term in question.

Additionally, some of our readings are historical. As such, they will make use of archaic terms when referring to specific minority groups. I will provide advance warnings when this is the case, and I will use contemporary terms for various identities in all lectures and discussions. I ask that you do the same. If you are unsure of the correct terminology for specific groups, please email me to ask. If by chance someone uses an archaic term during discussion, I will correct the error and ask them to use the contemporary term in future conversations.

As a class, we will discuss and collectively decide how to handle archaic terminology in our writing. Options might include only using such terms when quoting directly from our readings or replacing outdated terminology with the contemporary vocabulary by using brackets--for example [African American] or [LGBTQIA+]. Once we mutually agree upon how we would like to handle such terms in our writing, I will expect everyone to abide by that decision. Those who do not will be asked to correct their work and resubmit it.

Confidentiality

Learning requires risk-taking and sharing ideas. Please keep your classmates' ideas and experiences confidential outside the classroom unless permission has been granted to share them.

Grading Scale

Communicating with your Instructor

Email is the quickest way to reach me at:

Zoom Videoconference is also available by request.

Communicate Clearly

Remember some faculty receive as many as 100 emails per day. Yours should be clear, concise, and professional so that your issues can be responded to effectively. Include the entire thread of an ongoing email conversation so that your instructor can recall the history of your issue without searching for other emails you have sent. Sign off with your first and last name. I will not open attachments without messages or messages that are illegible.

Office hours

I am available without an appointment on Tues from 9am-11:30am and Thursdays 1pm-3pm (click here to meet on Zoom), but you can schedule a meeting with me (zoom or face to face) for other times as well. Individual meetings can be arranged through an email request, or conversation directly before or after class. I do not hold normal office hours during the following weeks: (Thanksgiving week, Spring Break, Summer Break, and finals weeks.)

Attendance

Attending class is an extremely important factor contributing to your performance and grade in the course. In most class meetings you will have at least one project, exercise, test, and/or discussion that will indirectly impact your grade and your class discussions will count toward participation. The relationship between attendance and achievement in education has been extensively documented in peer reviewed research. Attendance is worth 19 points for this course.

Please refer to the “Absences due to Military Service” and “Religious Beliefs Accommodation” below. Additionally, below are attendance guidelines as outlined by the UWSP registrar:

Attend all your classes regularly. We do not have a system of permitted "cuts." If you decide to drop a class, please do so using myPoint or visit the Enrollment Services Center. Changes in class enrollment will impact your tuition and fee balance, financial aid award and veterans' educational benefit.

During the first eight days of the regular 16-week term, your instructor will take attendance. If you are not in attendance, you may be dropped from the class. You are responsible for dropping any of your enrolled classes.

- If you must be absent during the term, tell your instructor prior to the class you will miss. If you cannot reach your instructor(s) in an emergency, contact the Dean of Students Office at 715-346-2611 or DOS@uwsp.edu.
- If you are dropped from a class due to non-attendance, you may only be reinstated to the class section using the class add process. Reinstatement to the same section or course is not guaranteed. Your instructors will explain their specific attendance policies to be followed at the beginning of each course.
- If you take part in an off-campus trip by an authorized university group such as an athletic team, musical or dramatic organization, or a class, make appropriate arrangements in advance with the instructor of each class you will miss. If you are absent from classes because of emergencies, off-campus trips, illness, or the like, your instructors will give you a reasonable amount of help in making up the work you have missed.
- If you enroll in a course and cannot begin attending until after classes have already started, you must first get permission from the department offering the course. Otherwise, you may be required to drop the course.
- If you do not make satisfactory arrangements with your instructors regarding excessive absences, you may be dismissed. If you are dismissed from a class, you will receive an F in that course. If you are dismissed from the University, you will receive an F in all enrolled courses.

Emergency Procedures

- In a medical emergency, call 9-1-1 or use the Red Emergency Phone in the hallway. Offer assistance if trained and willing to do so. Guide emergency responders to the victim.
- In the event of a tornado warning, proceed to the lowest level interior room without window exposure: any interior hallway or room on the 2nd floor or lower. Avoid wide-span structures (gyms, pools, or large classrooms). See www.uwsp.edu/rmgt/Pages/em/procedures/other/floor-plans.aspx for floor plans showing severe weather shelters on campus. Avoid wide-span structures (gyms, pools, or large classrooms).
- In the event of a fire alarm, evacuate the building calmly. Meet at the 4th Ave (south) doors to the HEC/Quandt Gym. Notify instructor or emergency command personnel of any missing individuals.
- Active Shooter – RUN. HIDE. FIGHT. If trapped, hide, lock doors, turn off lights, spread out and remain quiet. Call 9-1-1 when it is safe to do so. Follow instructions of emergency responders.

- See UW-Stevens Point Emergency Procedures at www.uwsp.edu/rmgt/Pages/em/procedures for details on all emergency response at UW-Stevens Point.

Absences due to Military Service

As stated in the UWSP Catalog, you will not be penalized for class absence due to unavoidable or legitimate required military obligations, or medical appointments at a VA facility, not to exceed two \(2\) weeks unless special permission is granted by the instructor. You are responsible for notifying faculty members of such circumstances as far in advance as possible and for providing documentation to the Office of the Dean of Students to verify the reason for the absence. The faculty member is responsible to provide reasonable accommodations or opportunities to make up exams or other course assignments that have an impact on the course grade. For absences due to being deployed for active duty, please refer to the Military Call-Up Instructions for Students.

Religious Beliefs Accommodation

It is UW System policy (UWS 22) to reasonably accommodate your sincerely held religious beliefs with respect to all examinations and other academic requirements.

You will be permitted to make up an exam or other academic requirement at another time or by an alternative method, without any prejudicial effect, if:

- There is a scheduling conflict between your sincerely held religious beliefs and taking the exam or meeting the academic requirements; and
- You have notified your instructor within the first three weeks of the beginning of classes (first week of summer or interim courses) of the specific days or dates that you will request relief from an examination or academic requirement.
- Your instructor will accept the sincerity of your religious beliefs at face value and keep your request confidential.
- Your instructor will schedule a make-up exam or requirement before or after the regularly scheduled exam or requirement.
- You may file any complaints regarding compliance with this policy in the Equity and Affirmative Action Office.

Equal Access for Students with Disabilities

UW-Stevens Point will modify academic program requirements as necessary to ensure that they do not discriminate against qualified applicants or students with disabilities. The modifications should not affect the substance of educational programs or compromise academic standards; nor should they intrude upon academic freedom. Examinations or other procedures used for evaluating students' academic achievements may be adapted. The results of such evaluation must demonstrate the student's achievement in the academic activity, rather than describe his/her disability.

If modifications are required due to a disability, please inform the instructor and contact the Disability and Assistive Technology Center to complete an Accommodations Request form. Phone: 346-3365 or Room 609 Albertson Hall.

You can contact the Service Desk via email at techhelp@uwsp.edu or at (715) 346-4357 (HELP) or visit this link for more information.

Care Team

The University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point is committed to the safety and success of all students. The Office of the Dean of Students supports the campus community by reaching out and providing resources in areas where a student may be struggling or experiencing barriers to their success. Faculty and staff are asked to be proactive, supportive, and involved in facilitating the success of our students through early detection, reporting, and intervention. As your instructor, I may contact the Office of the Dean of Students if I sense you need additional support which individually, I may not be able to provide. You may also share a concern if you or another member of our campus community needs support, is distressed, or exhibits concerning behavior that is interfering with the academic or personal success or the safety of others, by reporting here.

Academic Honesty

Academic Integrity is an expectation of each UW-Stevens Point student. Campus community members are responsible for fostering and upholding an environment in which student learning is fair, just, and honest. Through your studies as a student, it is essential to exhibit the highest level of personal honesty and respect for the intellectual property of others. Academic misconduct is unacceptable. It compromises and disrespects the integrity of our university and those who study here. To maintain academic integrity, a student must only claim work which is the authentic work solely of their own, providing correct citations and credit to others as needed. Cheating, fabrication, plagiarism, unauthorized collaboration, and/or helping others commit these acts are examples of academic misconduct, which can result in disciplinary action. Failure to understand what constitutes academic misconduct does not exempt responsibility from engaging in it.

UWSP 14.03 Academic misconduct subject to disciplinary action.

- (1) Academic misconduct is an act in which a student:
 - (a) Seeks to claim credit for the work or efforts of another without authorization or citation;
 - (b) Uses unauthorized materials or fabricated data in any academic exercise;

- (c) Forges or falsifies academic documents or records;
- (d) Intentionally impedes or damages the academic work of others;
- (e) Engages in conduct aimed at making false representation of a student's academic performance; or
- (f) Assists other students in any of these acts.

(2) Examples of academic misconduct include, but are not limited to:

- Cheating on an examination
- Collaborating with others in work to be presented, contrary to the stated rules of the course
- Submitting a paper or assignment as one's own work when a part or all of the paper or assignment is the work of another
- Submitting a paper or assignment that contains ideas or research of others without appropriately identifying the sources of those ideas
- Stealing examinations or course materials
- Submitting, if contrary to the rules of a course, work previously presented in another course
- Tampering with the laboratory experiment or computer program of another student
- Knowingly and intentionally assisting another student in any of the above, including assistance in an arrangement whereby any work, classroom performance, examination or other activity is submitted or performed by a person other than the student under whose name the work is submitted or performed.

Students suspected of academic misconduct will be asked to meet with the instructor to discuss the concerns. If academic misconduct is evident, procedures for determining disciplinary sanctions will be followed as outlined in the University System Administrative Code, Chapter 14.

Other Campus Policies

FERPA

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) provides students with a right to protect, review, and correct their student records. Staff of the university with a clear educational need to know may also have to access to certain student records. Exceptions to the law include parental notification in cases of alcohol or drug use, and in case of a health or safety concern. FERPA also permits a school to disclose personally identifiable information from a student's education records, without consent, to another school in which the student seeks or intends to enroll.

Title IX

UW-Stevens Point is committed to fostering a safe, productive learning environment. Title IX and institutional policy prohibit discrimination on the basis of sex, which includes harassment, domestic and dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking. In the event that you choose to disclose information about having survived sexual violence, including harassment, rape, sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking, and specify that this violence occurred while a student at UWSP, federal and state laws mandate that I, as your instructor, notify the Title IX Coordinator/Office of the Dean of Students.

Please see the Title IX page for more information for guidance on making confidential reports of misconduct or interpersonal violence, as well as campus and community resources available to students.

Clery Act

The US Department of Education requires universities to disclose and publish campus crime statistics, security information, and fire safety information annually. Statistics for the three previous calendar years and policy statements are released on or before October 1st in our Annual Security Report. Another requirement of the Clery Act is that the campus community must be given timely warnings of ongoing safety threats and immediate/emergency notifications. For more information about when and how these notices will be sent out, please see our Jeanne Clery Act page.

Drug Free Schools and Communities Act

The Drug Free Schools and Communities Act (DFSCA) requires institutions of higher education to establish policies that address unlawful possession, use, or distribution of alcohol and illicit drugs. The DFSCA also requires the establishment of a drug and alcohol prevention program. The Center for Prevention lists information about alcohol and drugs, their effects, and the legal consequences if found in possession of these substances. Center for Prevention – DFSCA

Copyright infringement

This is the act of exercising, without permission or legal authority, one or more of the exclusive rights granted to the copyright owner under section 106 of the Copyright Act. Each year students violate these laws and campus policies, putting themselves at risk of federal prosecution. For more information about what to expect if you are caught, or to take preventive measures to keep your computing device clean, visit our copyright page.

Voter Registration Information

Register: Did you know you can register to vote and check your voter registration status at www.myvote.wi.gov?

Vote: In Wisconsin, you can vote absentee - or vote from home - in any election. You can request your absentee ballot at www.myvote.wi.gov (select "Vote Absentee" on the navigation page).

Make a Difference: Sign up to work the polls on election day by contacting your local city clerk office (find your clerk at <https://myvote.wi.gov/en-us/PollWorker>).

For more information on registration and voting procedure, visit your campus resource page at <https://linktr.ee/UWSPGOTV> or www.myvote.wi.gov

School of Education Policies

Students MUST achieve a grade of "C or higher for teacher certification. Any grade lower than a "C will require a repeat of the course.

Assignments

Your final grade in this course will reflect the quality of your work across the semester. It is my goal to help you learn as much as possible from this course. All the assignments are listed on Canvas. Directions and rubrics for all the assignments are listed on Canvas too. Please read the directions and rubrics for each assignment carefully. All assignments must be submitted via Canvas unless otherwise indicated. You must save all your work electronically before submitting it. I'm always happy to answer questions on the assignments; please don't hesitate to ask.

I am not going to be overly strict about font size and type. However, I expect it to be in a font that you would use to send emails to a family or colleague in a professional setting. The "norm" of this is size 12 font Times New Roman or Helvetica.

View Grades/Feedback in Canvas

Points you receive for graded activities will be posted to the Canvas Grade page. Email me if you do not see your assignment grades within 72 hours of submitting the assignment.

Course Requirements

The following are some of the major requirements for the course. There are other assignments and activities as well.

| Assignment | Brief Description | Points |
