

SYLLABUS

EDUCATION 105: COLLEGE READING AND STUDY SKILLS

Instructor: Babak Vaezzadeh

Office: 441 College of Professional Studies (CPS)

Email: bvaezzad@uwsp.edu

Office Hours: Wednesday 11-12, by appointment

TEXT (Rental): Ellis, Dave. Becoming Master Student, Concise. New York:

READ YOUR SYLLABUS CAREFULLY

Course Description:

Education 105 is designed to enable the students to think critically about many aspects of their college lives. This course attempts to address study strategies such as, time management, organizational techniques, effective note taking, reading, writing, and test preparation.

Attendance:

You are expected to attend every class and be an active participant. An unexcused absence will cost 2 points.

Attendance refers not only to physical presence, but also active mental engagement.*

Classroom Etiquette and Courtesy:

This syllabus contains the policies and expectations intended to provide a productive learning atmosphere for ALL students. Please read it carefully.

You are expected to follow basic classroom common courtesy including,

- DO's:
- Arrive on time with proper material
 - Ask pertinent questions
 - Complete assignments on time. Unexcused late assignments are subject to point reduction.
- DON'Ts :
- Side conversation during lecture
 - Reading material other than class related
 - Use of electronic devices such as cell phone, IPod, ear buds, etc.
 - Packing up/leaving before class dismissal by the instructor

Cell Phone Policy:

The use of cell phones in this learning environment is disruptive to me and other students, and therefore prohibited. Cell phones should be silenced and put away UPON YOUR ARRIVAL in class. An infraction of this policy results in final grade reduction without notice.

ADA: Any student with a disability requiring accommodations in this course is encouraged to contact me after class or during office hours. Additionally, students will also need to contact Disability Services in 609 LRC.

Assessment:

Your final grade will be determined by three assignments, your attendance, and a final test. Assignments should be completed by due dates. Medical and personal emergencies will be considered if due dates are not met.

Assignments #1	30 Points
Note taking activity	10 Points
Final Assignment	30 Points
Final Quiz	20 Points
Attendance	10 Points
	<hr/>
Total:	100 Points

The 3 point Rule

- If you have a question:
1. Read the syllabus
 2. Ask a fellow student
 3. Then email me

Grading System: 93-100= A 82-86 = B 72-76 = C
90-92 = A- 80-81 = B- 70-71 = C-
87-89 = B+ 77-79 = C+ 60-69 = D
Students can check their grades on mobilePoint.uwsp.edu

Class Sessions and Topics:

Jan-23	Introduction,
Jan-25	Syllabus, Grading /Value of Higher Education
Jan-30	Master Student/ Successful Transition/ Discovery Wheel
Feb-1	Academic Support Services/ Code of conduct /Writing
Feb-6	Writing/ 1st assignment announced
Feb-8	Career Services Presentation
Feb-13	Effective Note taking Skills/ Activity #1 announced
Feb-15	Multiple Intelligence Survey/ 1st assignment due
Feb-20	Time Management Skills/Personal Strength
Feb-22	Instructor
Feb-27	Time Management/ Activity #1 due
Mar-1	Reading and Memory/ Effective Study Skills
Mar-6	Test Anxiety/Test Taking skills
Mar-8	Communication and speech/ Final assignment due on D2L/ Final test
Mar-13	Etc.

Graded Assignment # 1(hard copy), (30 Points)

Complete the Discovery Wheel in your book. Then do the following,

1. First, on one page, List at least 5 of your personal strengths (2 of which from Discovery Wheel), and 5 of your personal weaknesses (2 of which from Discovery Wheel).
2. Next, on a different page, following the basic format of essay writing, as we have discussed in class, write a paper discussing two areas in your life you need to improve, and explain how you are going to do that.

Your papers should be typed, stapled, and double spaced.

There would be point reduction if any of the above requirements is not met.

Note Taking Activity, (hard copy), (10 Points)

Following the Cornell Note Taking Technique as discussed in class, hand in two complete examples of sample notes taken during lectures in two classes.

Further instructions will be provided in class.

Final Assignment, (D2L), (30 Points)

Following the basic format of essay writing, as discussed in class, compose a paper (at least a page), answering the following,

1. What are some strategies that have proven to be successful, so far, in college?
 2. What are some obstacles that you still need to overcome in college?
 3. What are some strategies you have learned in this class that will help you succeed in college.
- Your paper should be at least one page, double spaced, and in MS Word or PDF format.
 - You must upload your paper to D2L Dropbox titled “Ed 105 Final Assignment “by the deadline.

Ed 105 Learning Outcomes

After completing this course, the students will be able to,

Transition:

- Distinguish the differences between college and high school in the areas of, expectations, study time, teaching styles, assessment, attendance, and organization.

Writing Skill:

- Recognize basic components and the structure of a college research paper.
- Identify the most common mistakes in writing, including grammar and spelling.
- Practice outlining and structuring strategies before composing a paper.
- Compose a paper, following the appropriate structure and the basic components.
- Utilize power words in their writing.

Note Taking:

- Recognize different sections and the structure of Cornell Note Taking System.
- Understand the purpose and the practical applications of the note taking system.
- Take effective notes using Cornell Note Taking System.

Reading Skills:

- Recognize prereading strategies.
- Follow the steps of effective reading system (Muscle Reading).
- Eliminate factors interfering with reading for comprehension.
- Apply effective reading techniques.

Test Taking:

- Identify different assessment tools utilized in college courses.
- Employ effective strategies before and during testing.
- Apply appropriate skills and strategies in taking essay, multiple choice and true/false test questions..
- Utilize effective strategies to reduce test anxiety.

Time Management:

- Understand the importance of time management and the value of setting short and long term goals.
- Reflect on causes of procrastination and learn practical skills to help reduce procrastination.
- Develop different strategies to manage time, such as scheduling, blocking, and planning.

Communication and Speech

The students in Education 105 will also be offered information about the following,

- The intrinsic and extrinsic value of the higher education.
- The operation, location, and type of help offered by different campus support services
- Academic Code of conduct.
- The appropriate code of behavior for positive and productive interaction with university instructors and the faculty.
- Balancing social and academic life in college.
- Career and field of study exploration through information presented by campus Career Service advisor.