During our virtual meetings, it's important to stay focused to get the most out of the class. Using your cell phone for activities like texting, social networking, or browsing the internet is considered unprofessional and disruptive. Such behavior not only affects your own learning but can also impact the group's overall experience. Engaging in these activities may result in a disposition concerns form being filed against you. Therefore, please keep distractions to a minimum and remain present throughout the meeting.

If you have a documented disability and require accommodations, please contact Disability Concerns at 715-346-3365 or email datctr@uwsp.edu. You can also fill out a Request for Services form available on their website. For additional resources, visit the Assistive Technology website.
