

Psychology 260-2
Introduction to Developmental Psychology
Fall, 2017

Debbie Palmer, Ph.D.

Office phone: 715-346-3953

Office location: B303, Science Building

E-mail: dpalmer@uwsp.edu

Class Meeting Time: Tuesdays, Thursdays, Fridays from 10 – 10:50 AM

Class location: D101, Science Building

Office Hours: Wednesdays 3:30-4:30 pm and Fridays 8:30-9:30 am; other times by appointment

Required Materials:

Textbook: A Topical Approach to Life-Span Development (8th Edition) by John Santrock, which may be obtained via the UWSP's Bookstore/Text Rental.

Additional readings from other sources: I listed the titles in the tentative class lecture and reading schedule starting on page six of this syllabus. I posted the sources on D2L (see below for more info about D2L).

TurningPoint clicker: You are required to lease a clicker from the UWSP IT Service Desk in room 027 of Albertson Hall (Learning Resource Center, aka the library). For UWSP IT Service Desk hours, please visit: <http://www.uwsp.edu/infotech/Pages/ServiceDesk/default.aspx>. You will need your UWSP Student ID to get your clicker. An $8 semester lease fee will be automatically added to your UWSP student bill. Your clicker may be used in any class that requires clickers for the semester. Clickers must be returned to the UWSP's IT Service Desk before the end of finals. Students with unreturned clickers will be billed a late fee and/or may be billed the replacement cost of the clicker. You are expected to have your clicker to use it in class starting on 9/8.

Desire to Learn course website (D2L): By visiting the D2L link on UWSP's website you will find information about our specific course. I will provide downloadable files containing lecture slides, handouts, materials, information about grades, etc. You may receive assistance regarding how to utilize the D2L course website from the UWSP IT Service Desk website at <http://www.uwsp.edu/infotech/Pages/ServiceDesk/default.aspx>, extension 4357 and in room 027 of Albertson Hall (Learning Resource Center, aka the library).

Technical problems are unpleasant, but are not usually a valid excuse for missing deadlines. If you experience problems with UWSP's technology, your own technology, your internet provider, etc., it is your responsibility to make use of all the resources available to you in a timely manner to complete your work. Contacting me to say you are having technical issues is not a sufficient level of effort. Make use of the multiple student computer labs with generous operating hours that are available for your use throughout campus, also where trained staff members can provide you with technical assistance.

Course Description and Goals: The successful completion of this course may count towards the requirements for your major or minor. In addition, the successful completion of this course will provide you three credits within the Social Sciences portion of the Investigation: Understanding the Physical, Social, and Cultural Worlds component of the General Education Program (GEP) here at UWSP.

The broad goal for this course is to introduce you to the discipline of Developmental Psychology, while also meeting specific GEP learning outcome goals, which are:

1. Explain or apply major concepts, methods, or theories used in the social sciences to investigate, analyze, or predict human behavior.
2. Examine and explain how social, cultural, or political institutions influence individuals or groups.

If you have questions about the GEP program, the Psychology major or minor, you are welcome to chat with me; if you have questions about the requirements of your particular major or minor beyond Psychology, please consult your advisor.

Disability Accommodation: UWSP is committed to providing reasonable and appropriate accommodations to students with disabilities and temporary impairments. If you have a disability or acquire a condition during the semester where you need assistance, please contact the Disability and Assistive Technology Center on the 6th floor of Albertson Hall (Learning Resource Center, aka the library) and me as soon as possible. DATC can be reached at 715-346-3365 or DATC@uwsp.edu.

Class Attendance & Participation: Per UWSP policy, attendance is required. Research consistently demonstrates a strong, positive correlation between attendance and overall course grade. I will work hard to be adequately prepared each class meeting and, therefore, expect you to be. This means you need to complete the specified readings and work by the beginning of the class on the dates they are due. Please be in the classroom, and in your seat, at the beginning of class each day. I expect your attendance for the entire class session. Tardiness and/or early departures are discouraged because such actions distract me as well as your fellow classmates. I will conduct this class in a respectful manner and have the same expectation for your conduct. I will deal with any behavior that deviates from these standards swiftly and appropriately. Please consult the later sections on academic honesty and rights and responsibilities within this syllabus for more details.

I will use in-class activities, such as TurningPoint clicker sessions, throughout the semester that will allow me to gauge the regularity of your class attendance & participation, as well as comprehension of the material. Be aware that these in-class activities may occur at any point in a class meeting. If you are tardy or depart early, you risk missing an in-class activity. When you use your TurningPoint clicker, I will provide immediate feedback for the class – in an anonymous manner - regarding the correct answers (for questions where correct answers exist) so you can get a sense of your own and classmates' own levels of understanding about the topics. I will not be grading these questions in terms of accuracy. The main purposes of these in-class activities are to allow me to track attendance and participation, gain a sense of understanding of the topics by the class, and if you are doing the assigned readings as expected. If you are present when I do an in-class activity and use your clicker to participate, then you will get full credit. I will let you drop two class days of in-class activities.

I understand on occasion that you may forget to bring your clicker, misplace it, etc. Therefore, I will allow you to sign an attendance sheet twice this term— without penalty - if you are present in class without your clicker when an in-class activity is completed. Anyone who forgets/shows up to class more than twice in a term without a clicker with them when an in-class activity is completed will receive no credit for those class meetings unless that individual comes to office hours or makes an appointment to make up the in-class activity or activities. In the event that a clicker malfunctions (e.g., batteries have died, etc.) you will need to go promptly to the UWSP IT Service Desk in room 027 of Albertson Hall (Learning Resource Center, aka the library) for assistance. You are urged to communicate with me as soon as possible if you believe you have a legitimate reason for not having your clicker with you in class, or if it is malfunctioning, especially if it is for an extended period of time, so I can determine if a waiver of penalties is warranted.

Make-ups of in-class activities due to absences should be unnecessary for most students, but if I determine you have a valid, usually documented excuse, then a make-up of the missed activity or an equivalent alternative would be possible. To make these activities up, you must contact me and stop by during office hours (or via appointment). Please contact me in the event of extenuating circumstances (e.g., extended absence due to hospitalization, etc.).

Please note that I will tolerate no behavior pertaining to clicker usage that violates UWSP's academic honesty policies. You may refer to the academic honesty and rights and responsibilities sections later in this syllabus for details.

To facilitate your ability to communicate with one another, for the purposes of potentially sharing information pertaining to the course, consider obtaining and sharing the following information, as much as you are comfortable doing so: Names, phone numbers, e-mail addresses of classmates you can contact for notes, etc.

Exams: I will give you four exams. Each exam will consist of thirty multiple choice items. The first exam will cover the initial two major topics. The second exam will cover the next two major topics. The third exam will cover the next two major topics. The fourth exam will cover all of the major topics taught this semester. In other words, the last exam is cumulative.

Individuals who wish to take any of the exams at a time other than the scheduled dates must get in contact with me as soon as possible. Typically, in order to be able to take any exam at another time, a reason must be deemed valid by me (usually a valid reason comes with documentation). The Psychology department provides times for students to take makeup exams from a department staff member (so, not me) and those times, along with office hours, are the preferred options for you to come make up an exam. Note that the scheduling of final exams is not something we professors usually control. Professors are able to alter the time at which you take their exams if you have three or more scheduled the same day. You will need to show documentation that you do have three or more finals scheduled for the same day. The Psychology department will also provide times for students to take makeup finals from a department staff member (so, not me), and those times are the preferred ones for making up the final.

I will drop your lowest exam grade this semester. Yes, even if your final exam is your lowest grade, I will drop it. You do not have to notify me that you will not be taking an exam, but if you are able to do so in a timely manner, I would appreciate it as it would allow me to adjust the number of items printed.

If you miss taking any of the exams due to not having a valid reason (usually with supporting documentation, as described above), then that will be the exam grade that is dropped.

Service-Learning: You have the option of requesting to take part in service-learning that will be completed by providing unpaid and uncompensated work at a local community agency. In order to decide whether to request to do service-learning, you ought to read through the descriptions of the opportunities at the various agencies posted to the D2L course site, listen to the information described in class early on in the semester, read about it in this document. You must submit a completed, hard copy of the selection form by the stated deadline (see the last page of this document and D2L). If you wish to request to be placed at an alternate location instead of one of the community agencies being offered, then you need to communicate that interest to me and follow up that communication by submitting a completed service-learning selection form by the stated deadline (see the last page of this document and D2L). Note that some community agencies have more restricted times when you are able to do service, while other community agencies have more flexible times when you are able to do service. Additionally, some agencies require a background check to occur, which takes approximately two weeks to complete. Finally, there are a limited number of placements available at the community agencies. All of these things need to be taken in to consideration when requesting to do service-learning and selecting a location at which to do it.

Once you have submitted a completed selection form, please wait for me to communicate with you via email with a response. If you are able to be placed and wish to accept your placement, then you will submit a hard copy of the completed service-learning agreement form, attend a mandatory orientation meeting led by the agency's personnel, devote a minimum of fifteen volunteer hours of work (unpaid, uncompensated and documented via a time log, not including the orientation) to the agency. You will also submit information about your progress electronically in the designated class meeting time. Towards the end of your service, you will submit reflections in the designated class meeting time. If you are absent during the designated class meetings when progress information and reflections will be submitted, you need to follow the instructions on D2L.

I expect you to complete your service-learning responsibilities in a professional manner. This means you will adhere to standards set forth by the agency regarding dress code and behavior (e.g., punctuality, etc.). Keep in mind you are representing myself as well as UWSP. Any deviations from these expectations may result in a lowering of your course grade or even dismissal from the agency.

Failure to meet posted deadlines will result in deductions. A deduction of 10% will occur for each calendar day (including weekends) that you submit work late. I accept nothing more than seven calendar days past the due date, except when you have a legitimate, usually documented excuse.

Please note that what you communicate with me regarding service-learning may be potentially shared with the appropriate agency staff members.

Service-learning can be used to fulfill your Experiential Learning requirement for the GEP at UWSP. Should you wish to do service-learning and also meet this GEP requirement, you must notify me in a timely manner so that the required form is completed by class time by the stated deadline (information on the deadline can be found on the last page of this document and on D2L). I posted the form on D2L.

Outside Assignments: Students who choose not to participate in service-learning will be required to complete three activities that are designed to connect what is learned in class to pragmatic, applied topics outside of our class meeting time. Guidelines are available on D2L. I listed the deadlines on the last page of this document and on D2L. All completed outside assignments must be submitted to the dropbox folder in an electronic format at the start of class time on the specific due dates. Any individual who does not submit their assignment(s) following the stated guidelines will have their work penalized accordingly. I will have the outside assignment grades and comments available to you via the D2L course website. Late outside assignments are not encouraged. Every calendar day (including weekends) any outside assignment is late a deduction of 10% will occur. I will accept nothing more than seven calendar days past the due date, unless you have a legitimate, usually documented excuse. Please note that as the outside assignments are available on the D2L website at the beginning of the term you are free to complete any or all outside assignments early.

It is not anticipated that you would be able to begin service-learning and then switch to the outside assignments or vice versa. Therefore, please very carefully select which of the options you wish to do. In the case of extenuating circumstances, please communicate with me as soon as possible so we can work together to resolve these issues.

Tutoring: All UWSP students can receive individual tutoring assistance arranged via the Mary K. Croft Tutoring and Learning Center here on campus – please visit the website at <http://www.uwsp.edu/tlc/Pages/default.aspx> for information on their services (and possible fees, when applicable) that are offered.

Optional Reading in the Disciplines discussion groups attached to this course will be available. These are one-credit, pass/fail courses that meet once a week for fifty minutes. The groups will start meeting around the third week of the semester and will allow students opportunities to meet once a week with fellow classmates and a trained peer discussion leader, work to improve understanding of the course material, ask questions in a comfortable and exploratory environment. While there are no guarantees, research has shown that students who participate in discussion sections tend to do better in the associated course. The peer facilitator for these groups will be coming to class to give you additional information about this opportunity and will share dates/times of the group meetings with you. Visit the following link to learn more <http://www.uwsp.edu/tlc/Pages/Reading-In-the-Disciplines-Groups.aspx>

Rights and Responsibilities: UWSP values a safe, honest, respectful, and inviting learning environment. In order to ensure that each student has the opportunity to succeed, a set of expectations exists for both students and professors (see <https://www.uwsp.edu/stuaffairs/Documents/RightsRespons/rightsCommBillRights.pdf>). You must be familiar with and abide by these expectations.

Academic Honesty: Any academic misconduct is in violation of UWSP's policies and is extremely serious. Information about potential disciplinary actions and procedural guidelines pertaining to academic misconduct is in Chapter 14, entitled "Student Academic Standards and Disciplinary Procedures" and is posted online at <http://www.uwsp.edu/stuaffairs/Documents/RightsRespons/SRR-2010/rightsChap14.pdf>

Understand you cannot collaborate in the submission of documentation or writing assignments required as part of the service-learning or outside assignment course options. You may not collaborate in the usage of the TurningPoint clickers. For instance, you may not use a classmate's clicker in class when he/she cannot attend.

Course Withdrawal: If you choose to withdraw from class, you should do so in a timely manner in accordance with published deadlines. Not doing so could result in a failing grade or the loss of reimbursable fees. You can find the published deadlines at the following link: <http://www.uwsp.edu/regrec/Pages/calendars.aspx>

Emergency Procedures: UWSP has an emergency management plan; you can see details about this plan at the following link: <http://www.uwsp.edu/rmgt/Pages/em/procedures/default.aspx>

- In the event of a medical emergency during class, call 911 or use the red emergency phone located in the hallway. If you are trained and willing to do so, assist others. Guide emergency responders to victim.
- In the event of a tornado warning during class, proceed to the lowest level interior room without window exposure in the basement of this building.
- In the event of a fire alarm, evacuate the building in a calm manner. Meet at the front of the Health Enhancement Center (HEC). Notify the emergency command personnel and me of any missing individuals.
- In the event of an active shooter during class– if you can run from the classroom, do so. Hide, lock the door, turn off the lights, spread out and remain quiet if trapped. The recommendation is to fight back if you cannot run away or hide.

Follow instructions of emergency responders.

Notice of Disclosure Responsibility: Due to Wisconsin laws, if any disclosure of unreported neglect or abuse of a child, elder, or disabled individual is made to a University instructor, he or she is required to report such information to the appropriate administrative or law enforcement officials. This includes instances of sexual assault of an adult.

Course Grade Calculation: Attendance and In-Class Participation: 20%, Exams: 60%, Service-Learning or Outside Assignments: 20%.

For service-learning the following formula applies when calculating the 20% listed above: completion of the service-learning selection & agreement forms = 2%; completion of the orientation session provided by the service-learning partners: 2%; completion of service hours via the time log sheet = 10%; completion of the progress report = 2%; completion of the reflections = 4%.

For outside assignments the following formula applies when calculating the 20% listed above:
Outside assignment #1: 6%, Outside assignment #2: 6%, Outside assignment #3: 8 %.

Extra Credit Opportunities: I will offer opportunities for you to earn extra credit this semester. More details are posted to D2L.

Grading Scale:	A ≥ 93%	A- 90% to 92%	B+ 87% to 89%	B 83% to 86%
	B- 80% to 82%	C+ 77% to 79%	C 73% to 76%	C- 70% to 72%
	D 60% to 66%	F less than 60%		D+ 67% to 69%

You should consider the class schedule – starting on the next page – as tentative. I will announce any changes in class, via email, and on D2L.
