Course Description and Prerequisites

This is the second elementary-level Russian course in the Department of Global Cultures & Languages. The goal of this course is to develop students' communicative competence in the four skills of listening, speaking, reading, and writing as well as cross-cultural awareness.

Course Learning Objectives/ Outcomes

After successfully completing this course students will be able to:

- Talk about daily activities, schedules, ask and tell time
- Make and respond to invitations
- Reflect on how Russians think about time commitments
- Talk about homes, apartments, rooms, and furnishings
- Conduct a search on the internet to rent an apartment, applying cultural knowledge of rooms and spaces that are included versus not included by default into apartment rental
- Understand patterns of city and rural living and recognize cultural significance of summer homes in Russian society
- Identify traditional meals and beverages, and the sequential order of dishes/courses
- Read menus, order meals at a café or a restaurant
- Talk about family members, their names, ages, professions, where they were born and where they grew up
- Compare various traditional Russian souvenirs
- Ask for advice about purchases, presents and gift giving

Materials & Tools

- All materials (readings, videos, links, etc.) will be uploaded to or linked in Canvas.
- Textbook Голоса / Golosa (Book 1, Fifth Edition, 2012). Richard Robin, Karen Evans-Romaine, Galina Shatalina and Joanna Robin. (Available at the University Textbook Rental).

University of Wisconsin-La Crosse

Course Structure

This is a distance education course. Students from UW-La Crosse and UW-Stevens Point will be joining synchronous meetings on their respective campuses each Monday and Wednesday from 8:55-9:50 a.m. During these live synchronous sessions, we will focus on oral communication and clarification of misconceptions. In preparation for these oral communication sessions, you will complete pre-synchronous meeting activities on Canvas, which will include learning vocabulary via Quizlet with recordings of your instructor's pronunciation, practicing pronunciation in H5P Speak the Word Set assignments, watching videos or interactive presentations in H5P, completing concept checks built in H5P explanations, preparing written drafts of discussion answers. Each Tuesday and Thursday you will have online asynchronous work to complete.

Conversation Partners

The Russian Language Program is fortunate to have a Fulbright scholar from Russia, Tatiana Belokopytova (tbelo113@uwsp.edu), facilitating in our classes. Each student in RUS 102 will be required to meet with a Conversation Partner once every two weeks. The Conversation Partner schedule will be posted to Canvas.

Final Exam

The final exam for the course will be a proficiency-based assessment called the STAMP 4s. This online assessment will be administered on each campus during the regularly scheduled final exam period in either an official language lab (e.g., the LRC in GMH 321 at UWL) or other designated room with technology accommodations. This proctored exam will identify your listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills on the ACTFL proficiency scale. You will receive full credit for the final exam regardless of proficiency outcome as long as you put forth a sincere effort and complete the assessment in its entirety.

Grading Calculations

Your overall grade consists of the following assessments, arranged by type and value.

Category	Total % of Final Grade
Homework and Synchronous Class Assignments	55%
Conversation Partners	5%
Video Presentations	20%
Oral and Written Exams (including the Final Exam)	20%

University of Wisconsin-La Crosse

Grading Scale

La Crosse	Stevens Point
93 % - 100% = A	92.5 and higher = A
89 % - 92 % = AB	90 % - 92.49 % = A-
83 % - 88 % = B	87.5 % - 89.99 % = B+
79 % - 82 % = BC	82.5 % - 87.49 % = B
70% - 78% = C	80%-82.49% =B-
60% - 69 % = D	77.5 % - 79.99 % = C+
59% - below = F	70%- 77.49% = C
	60 % - 69.99 % = D
	59.99 % and lower = F

Synchronous Class Discussions and Role-play

Language proficiency is achieved only through regular and active contact with the target language. You are expected participate in both synchronous and asynchronous activities on a regular basis. As you can see from the grading scheme, your homework and in class assignments makes up 55% of the final grade. If you are unable to attend a synchronous session, please contact Natalia Roberts via email at nroberts@uwlax.edu prior to the class session. Regarding attendance, both absences and tardiness will result in loss of points during synchronous meetings. A large portion of the assignments will be completed in class. However, if you become ill due to COVID-19 or must quarantine, you will need to follow the steps outlined in this syllabus for notifying me, and these absences will not count against your total.

Online Translator Policy

There are many places where you can find help if you need it this semester. These are my top three recommendations:

1. ReversoContext <https://context.reverso.net/translation/english-russian/>
2. Multitran <https://www.multitran.com/c/m.exe?a=1>
3. Word Reference <https://www.wordreference.com/enru/>
4. I am always happy to help with any questions! Please, use my office hours email me so we can find a time to meet.

However, the use of Google or Yandex Translate and other similar online/machine translators is not accepted for work that is evaluated in our course. Although these sites may give you quick answers when you find yourself pressed for time, they are problematic for many reasons. The most serious reason is that they are not an accurate representation of your work, meaning that their use constitutes academic misrepresentation, a violation of the UW-L Honor Code. Any use of Google Translate, Yandex Translate or similar machine translation sites for any part of our class will be processed following the UW System's procedure for academic misrepresentation.

University of Wisconsin-La Crosse

Course Policies and Expectations

Assignments are due on the dates indicated in the Course Schedule. For extenuating circumstances that impact your ability to meet deadlines or participate in class activities, you are responsible for alerting me as soon as possible.

Make-up Policy: Since online homework is accessible at any time and from anywhere with Internet access, you will not be allowed to make up any online homework that you miss due to an absence (unless due to extenuating circumstances related to COVID-19). It is in your best interest to plan ahead, if possible, to complete any online homework that is due when you will be missing class. As for activities in class, please consult with your professor regarding your absence ahead of time.

NOTE: Homework assignments are independent of online, asynchronous class hours!

COVID-19 Health Statement

All UWL students are encouraged to be vaccinated against COVID-19. All students are required to be masked in classrooms and other indoor campus communal spaces. Campus-wide mask guidance may change during the semester. Students with COVID-19 symptoms or reason to believe they were in contact with COVID-19 should call and consult with a health professional, such as the UWL Student Health Center (608-785-8558), regardless of their vaccination status. Students who are ill or engaging in self-quarantine at the direction of a health professional should not attend class. Students in this situation will not be required to provide formal documentation and will not be penalized for absences. However, students should:

- notify instructors in advance of the absence and provide the instructor with an idea of how long the absence may last, if possible
- keep up with classwork if able.
- submit assignments electronically.
- work with instructors to either reschedule or electronically/remotely complete exams, labs, and other academic activities.
- consistently communicate their status to the instructor during the absence.

Instructors have an obligation to provide reasonable accommodation for completing course requirements to students adversely effected by COVID-19. This policy relies on honor, honesty, and mutual respect between instructors and students. Students are expected to report the reason for absence truthfully and instructors are expected to trust the word of their students. UWL codes of conduct and rules for academic integrity apply to COVID-19 situations. Students may be advised by their instructor or academic advisor to consider a medical withdrawal depending on the course as well as timing and severity of illness and students should work with the Office of Student Life if pursuing a medical withdrawal.

COVID-19 and your Instructor

Should I become ill or exposed to the virus and need to self-quarantine, we will move the course to a fully online and synchronous format for as long as I am able. If I am unable to meet during our synchronous meetings, class hours will be fully online and asynchronous until I am able to meet with you again. I will communicate with you via email and Canvas announcements regarding any changes in format during the semester.

University of Wisconsin-La Crosse

Expectations for Graded Work

I provide students feedback and/or scores on assignments that require individualized grading before a further assignment of a similar format is due. Generally, I return work that requires individual feedback within two weeks from the date the work was due. I will notify you if I am unable to grade the work within the two-week timeframe and will identify a revised return date.

Your graded coursework will be returned in compliance with FERPA regulations, such as in class, during my office hours, or via the course management system through which only you will have access to your grades. After you have completed the course, any copies or records of your graded material that I retain will be accessible up to 7 weeks into the next academic term.

UWL Policies & Supports

Academic Integrity & Misconduct

Academic misconduct is a violation of the UWL Student Honor Code and is unacceptable. I expect you to submit your own original work and participate in the course with integrity and high standards of academic honesty. When appropriate, cite original sources, following the style rules of our discipline.

Plagiarism or cheating in any form may result in failure of the assignment or the entire course and may include harsher sanctions. Refer to the Student Handbook for a detailed definition of academic misconduct.

For helpful information on how to avoid plagiarism, go to "Avoiding Plagiarism" on the Murphy Library website. You may also visit the Office of Student Life if you have questions about plagiarism or cheating incidents. Failure to understand what constitutes plagiarism or cheating is not a valid excuse for engaging in academic misconduct. For a light-hearted tutorial on avoiding plagiarism I encourage you to review a ten-minute interactive tutorial from Acadia University: <http://library.acadiau.ca/tutorials/plagiarism/>.

Concerns, Complaints, and Grievances

Informal Complaints:

If a student has a concern or a complaint about a faculty member or course, the general process for making informal complaints is outlined in steps 1-3 below. Students are welcome to bring a friend or a UWL staff member with them during the following steps. Students who report concerns/complaints/grievances, whether informally or formally, will be protected from retaliation and have the right to expect an investigation and the option to have regular updates on the investigation:

1. The student should speak directly to the instructor.
2. If the student is uncomfortable speaking with the instructor, or they are unsatisfied with the solution, they should go to the chair of the faculty member's home department.
3. If the student is uncomfortable speaking with the department chair, or the chair is the faculty member in question, or they are unsatisfied with the solution, the student should speak with their college dean.

University of Wisconsin-La Crosse

Depending on the specifics of the student's concern, it may be helpful for them to reach out to additional offices:

- Complaints/concerns/grievances about grades, teaching performance, course requirements, course content, incivility, or professional ethics should follow the process outlined above. Students may also wish to seek support from the Student Life office.
- Complaints/concerns/grievances related to hate/bias and discrimination may follow the process outlined above, and in addition or instead students may contact the Campus Climate office and/or submit a hate/bias incident report.
- Complaints/concerns/grievances related to sexual misconduct may begin with the process outlined above, but will need to also involve the Equity & Affirmative Action and Violence Prevention offices, and/or the Title IX Team. Students should know that faculty members are mandatory reporters of sexual misconduct, but that confidential resources are available to them.

Formal Complaints:

If the student is unsatisfied with the solution of their informal complaint, they have the right to file a formal institutional complaint with the Student Life office, as described in the Student Handbook.

Sexual Harassment

As an employee of the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse, I am a mandated reporter of sexual harassment and sexual violence that takes place on campus or otherwise affects the campus community. This means that if I receive detailed or specific information about an incident such as the date, time, location, or identity of the people involved, I am obligated to share this with UWL's Title IX Coordinator in order to enable the university to take appropriate action to ensure the safety and rights of all involved. For students not wishing to make an official report, there are confidential resources available to provide support and discuss the available options. The contact in Student Life is Ingrid Peterson, Violence Prevention Specialist, (608) 785-8062, ipeterson@uwlax.edu. Please see <http://www.uwlax.edu/violence-prevention> for more resources or to file a report.

Religious Accommodations

Per the UWL Undergraduate and Graduate Catalogs, "any student with a conflict between an academic requirement and any religious observance must be given an alternative means of meeting the academic requirement. The student must notify the instructor within the first three weeks of class (within the first week of summer session and short courses) of specific days/dates for which the student will request an accommodation. Instructors may schedule a make-up examination or other academic requirement before or after the regularly scheduled examination or other academic requirement."

Communication about Class Interruptions

In the event of a campus incident that impacts the availability of teaching spaces, any changes or cancellations will be communicated to you via your university email account. Depending on the incident, some or all of the information might be posted on the UW-L home page.

University of Wisconsin-La Crosse

Student Evaluation of Instruction (SEI)

UWL conducts student evaluations electronically. Approximately 2 weeks prior to the conclusion of a course, you will receive an email at your UWL email address directing you to complete an evaluation for each of your courses. In-class time will be provided for students to complete the evaluation in class. Electronic reminders will be sent if you do not complete the evaluation. The evaluation will include numerical ratings and, depending on the department, may provide options for comments. The university takes student feedback very seriously and the information gathered from student evaluations is more valuable when a larger percentage of students complete the evaluation. Please be especially mindful to complete the surveys.

Students with Disabilities

Any student with a documented disability (e.g. ADHD, Autism Spectrum Disorder, Acquired Brain Injury, PTSD, Physical, Sensory, Psychological, or Learning Disability) who needs to arrange academic accommodations must contact The ACCESS Center (165 Murphy Library, 608-785-6900, ACCESSCenter@uwla.edu) and meet with an advisor to register and develop an accommodation plan. In addition to registering with The ACCESS Center, it is the student's responsibility to discuss their academic needs with their instructors. Students are ultimately responsible to communicate their needs with the instructor in a timely manner. Review the ACCESS Center website at: <http://www.uwlax.edu/access-center/>

Veterans and Active Military Personnel

Veterans and active military personnel with special circumstances (e.g., upcoming deployments, drill requirements, disabilities) are welcome and encouraged to communicate these, in advance if possible, to me. For additional information and assistance, contact the Veterans Services Office. Students who need to withdraw from class or from the university due to military orders should be aware of the military duty withdrawal policy.
