DANCE PROGRAM

Round the Corner Joan Karlen, choreographer

DANCE FACULTY

Joan Karlen, Dance Program Coordinator and Professor of Dance, teaches ballet and jazz, composition, camera dance and digital video editing. She has performed throughout the U.S. and Argentina. Joan presented her dance and multimedia work in Germany, the U.K., Portugal, Egypt, Canada, and Argentina. She earned dance degrees from The Juilliard School and New York University. Her teaching has been recognized with UWSP's Leadership Mentor Award, Teaching Excellence Award, the Who's Who Among American Teachers Award, and the UW-System Teaching Scholar Award. Joan is co-director of UW-Stevens Point's Balanced Body Pilates Authorized Training Center.

Jeannie Hill, Associate Professor of Dance, teaches tap, jazz, musical theatre dance, composition and career seminar. In 2010, Jeannie founded Point Tap Festival, a three-day summer workshop uniting tap dancers from across the country to trade steps, stories and share the rhythm. Jeannie's varied performance career informs her choreography, and her ongoing affiliation with Billy Siegenfeld and Jump Rhythm Jazz Project guides her teaching and rhythmic investigation. Jeannie earned a BA in theatre from the University of Vermont and an MFA in dance from University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee Peck School of the Arts.

Michael Estanich, Associate Professor of Dance, teaches modern dance, composition, dance pedagogy, movement analysis, and dance history. Michael earned his MFA from The Ohio State University and his BFA from Denison University. He teaches annually at the American College Dance Association (ACDA) and chairs the summer dance program at the Trollwood Performing Arts School in Moorhead, MN. In 2009, Michael and artistic partner Lucy Riner formed RE|Dance Group as a means to explore long-distance collaboration. He is the North Central Regional Director of ACDA.

Pamela Luedtke, Lecturer of Dance, teaches ballet and modern dance techniques. She was a soloist for the Mary Anthony Dance Theatre in New York City for nine years. Her choreography has been performed in New York, Washington, D.C., California and Wisconsin. Pamela is certified in Educational Kinesiology (Brain Gym®) and is in the process of becoming a Balanced Body Pilates Instructor. She is founder and director of Point Dance Ensemble, and co-founder of The Artist In Residence (AIR) Project, a local non-profit organization dedicated to producing collaborative and innovative performing arts programming.

Amy Beversdorf, Associate Lecturer of Dance, teaches Pilates Mat and co-directs UWSP's Balanced Body Pilates Authorized Training Center. She has been teaching Pilates since 2000, and in 2010 joined the Pilates education branch of Balanced Body Pilates. Amy is owner of Studio B Pilates, Stevens Point, and trains new teachers in Pilates Mat, Reformer, Apparatus, and Anatomy in 3D throughout the United States. Before relocating to Wisconsin, Amy danced professionally in New York. She earned a BFA in dance from the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point, MFA from UW-Milwaukee, and Graduate Laban Certificate in Movement Analysis (CMA) from Columbia College Chicago. Amy is also co-founder of The Artist In Residence (AIR) Project, Stevens Point, a local non-profit organization dedicated to producing collaborative and innovative performing arts programming.

John Strassburg provides accompaniment for ballet, tap, and modern dance classes using piano, percussion, and electronic instrumentation. He composes, arranges and records music for students, faculty, and regional dance companies. John plays solo for special events, and performs on keyboard with Central Wisconsin area bands.

DANCE PRODUCTIONS

You will have opportunities each year to perform in a variety of venues – Jenkins Theatre, our flexible seating black box studio theatre and dance studios. You will also have opportunities to take classes and perform at American College Dance Association (ACDA), present your original research at the National Dance Educators Organization (NDEO) conference, and Council on Undergraduate Research (CUR).

Annual performance opportunities include:

- Danstage, the faculty and guest choreographed concert
- Afterimages, the student choreographed concert
- Theatre and musical theatre main stage and studio productions
- UWSP Players produced studio concerts
- Repertory projects
- Solo and group composition showings
- Camera dance screenings

The range of the dance curriculum inspires students to integrate their experience and knowledge of dance with other art forms and academic fields. Dance majors and minors frequently receive the prestigious UWSP Chancellor's Leadership and Albertson Medallion Awards. Graduates of the dance program are pioneers in creating dance and theatre companies, they perform with regional, national and international dance and theatre companies, and screen their camera dances nationally and internationally. UWSP alumni are entrepreneurs – they own and manage dance studios, become choreographers and artistic directors, and earn graduate degrees from respected programs worldwide.

In addition, UWSP has joined with Balanced Body Pilates to become an authorized training center, and now offers the most well-known and innovative Pilates Teacher Training curriculum internationally, giving our students the tools required to begin a successful career as Pilates professionals. The integrated study of dance and Pilates provides additional learning opportunities that are stimulating, personal and rooted in the art and science of movement.

BA IN DRAMA

Stage managers, directors, playwrights, and scholars are as much a part of theatre as actors and designers. The BA degree track offers opportunities to students with a passion for theatre in areas other than those focused upon by our BFA degrees.

The BA is a great program for you if your interests include directing, theatre or stage management, scholarly writing and teaching. With only 44 credits required in theatre courses, the BA gives you the opportunity to add a second UW-Stevens Point major or multiple minors. Transfer students will find the BA desirable in reducing your “time to degree.” With the flexibility of the BA in Drama you can craft the education you need and want.

Classes include:

- Acting
- Directing
- Script Analysis
- Theatre History and Literature
- Theatrical Design
- Playwriting

GARY G. OLSEN

BA Program Coordinator and Chair of the Department of Theatre & Dance, Gary Olsen leads the orientation for all incoming Theatre and Dance majors and minors. He has adjudicated for the American College Theatre Festival and served on the board of directors for the Midwest Section of the United States Institute for Theatre Technology. Gary has served on numerous University committees including Faculty Senate, General Education Program Review Committee and the University Technology Committee. He holds an MFA from Illinois State University.

DR. JENNIFER STOESSNER

Jennifer Stoessner is an educator, playwright and puppeteer from Cleveland, Ohio. She received her BA from Denison University and her MA and PhD degrees from The Ohio State University. After graduating, she moved to San Diego and worked for two years as the education & outreach associate at La Jolla Playhouse.

Jenny has toured professionally with Madcap Productions Puppet Theatre as well as performing her puppet show Held Together with Glue and Tape in several venues including the OSU/Port Clinton Performing Arts Festival. She designed puppets for Shipwrecked! An Entertainment as a Vail Guest Artist-in-Residence at Denison in 2010, was the puppetry coach on Avenue Q at the Springfield Contemporary Theatre, and created a dragon puppet for the MSU Opera Workshop’s production of The Magic Flute. Her most recent puppetry creation is a dance piece entitled “Chrysalides” that featured manipulated objects that combined to form butterflies, fish, and a face. It was performed at Missouri State University, where she taught history, acting, and script analysis for two years.

In addition, she has contributed chapters to Kermit Culture: Critical Perspectives on Jim Henson’s Muppets and The Wider Worlds of Jim Henson.

Brief Encounters

Email to Gary Olsen from Ali Gilbertson (BFA, Acting, 2008)

Dear Gary,

Jake Paque (BFA, Acting 2006) and I opened PHEDRE last weekend. One night during our last week of rehearsal our director was panicking with some things...when I got there she was struggling with covering a couch. I said, "Here, let me do that. You got a staple gun?" So I covered it.

Then we were about to get started with the run and I overheard the director say, "Jake does, I bet Ali does too...Hey Ali! You have fight experience?"

"Ah, yeah, I do."

"Like, you know what you're doing?"

"Yeah, I was a teacher's assistant and fight captain for a show..."

"Awesome. Want to be our fight captain and run a fight call every night?"

Then later that night I was on stage and overheard the director say, "I bet Ali knows how... Hey Ali! Can you do stage makeup?"

"Ah, yeah."

"Like, you're pretty good at it?"

"Took a class...I'm actually very good at it. I love it."

"Awesome. Would you do old age on Kym and Collin every night?"

"Sure!"

She then exclaimed, "Ah! I LOVE these WISCONSIN kids!!"

Thank you,
Ali Gilbertson

DESIGN & TECHNOLOGY FACULTY

Sandy Childers, Program Coordinator, joined the Department of Theatre and Dance in the fall of 2012 as Assistant Professor of Costume and Makeup Design. Sandy earned her MFA in Costume Design from Illinois State University and her BFA in Theatre from the University of Utah. She has designed costumes for both theatre and dance and her work can also be seen in a national commercial. She has designed productions for Illinois Shakespeare Festival, Arkansas Shakespeare Theatre, and Salt Lake Shakespeare, among many others. Her design experience also includes spending eight years as a Fashion Designer in both Seattle and New York City, working for Nordstrom, Lord & Taylor and Mavi Jeans. She has also done freelance work for Marc by Marc Jacobs, Victoria Secret Pink and Converse One Star.

Barbara Cirno came to UWSP after 10 years as Cutter/Draper for Cornell University in Ithaca, NY. She has designed costumes for Cornell, Susquehanna University, and Brown County Community Theatre in Nashville, IN. She has worked as Costume Shop Foreman for Cortland Repertory Theatre and draped for Glimmerglass Opera as well as produced sample garments and production work for an upstate New York children's clothing designer. Barbara has a degree in Fashion Design and was a juried member of the Foothills Craft Guild of East Tennessee.

Wendy Berg Dolan came to the Department of Theatre and Dance in the fall of 2000. She earned a BS from UW-Madison. As the costume shop manager, she brings mentoring and organizational skills to the department. A member of the Handweavers Guild of America, stitching with hand-woven fabrics is her favorite creative joy.

Gregory Kaye joined the Department of Theatre and Dance at UW-Stevens Point in the fall of 2012 as Assistant Professor of Scenic Design. He holds an MFA in Scenic Design from Florida State University, and a BA from St. Norbert College. Before coming to Stevens Point, Greg taught scenic design for four years at the State University of New York, Fredonia. Greg's teaching focuses on bridging the gap between the traditional use of hand-media and newer digital techniques in scenic design, scenic painting, and properties work. In addition to his work in scenic design, he has also written and directed for theatre, as well as worked as a professional lighting designer.

Gary G. Olsen served the department as Director of Theatre Technology for over 20 years before being appointed chairperson in 2006. Gary's production focus is on Lighting and Sound Design as well as Stage Management. He earned his MFA from Illinois State University and BS from University of Wisconsin-La Crosse. Gary has served as a board member of United States Institute for Theatre Technology, Midwest Section, and as an adjudicator for the American College Theatre Festival, Region III. Gary brings additional training experience to his students through his continued participation in seminars that include: Sound Reinforcement and System Design through Synergetic Audio Concepts, Stage Rigging through Rigging Seminars (Donovan & Glerum), Technical Director Safety in Arms, Weapons and Flying through University of Nevada - Las Vegas. Gary teaches Lighting Design I and II, Sound Design and Production and Stage Management.

Scott Wirtz-Olsen joined the UWSP Department of Theatre and Dance in 2013 as Technical Director. He holds an MFA in Design and Technology from Northern Illinois University and his BFA in Design and Technology from UW-Stevens Point. He has been working professionally as a Designer, Technical Director and Production Manager for the last 18 years. He spent two years as Designer and Technical Director at Cardinal Stritch University in Milwaukee, WI. Selected works have been seen at: Music Academy of the West in CA, Madison Children's Theatre in WI, Ash Lawn Opera in VA, Opera Illinois, Bowen Park Opera in IL, First Stage Theatre in WI. Scott's other professional interests include performer Flying and Rigging (he is a member of the North American Association of Flying Effects Directors NAAFED) Rigging, Video Projection and Manipulation, and Scenic Automation.

The Country Wife

The Department's active production schedule will provide Design & Technology majors hands-on experience in creating realized work for theatre and dance shows. You will be immersed in production processes during which the skills you learn in class will allow you to build your portfolio and resume.

MUSICAL THEATRE FACULTY

Mark Hanson, Program Coordinator, holds a Bachelor of Music in Performance from the University of Minnesota at Duluth and a Masters of Music in Music Theatre Conducting from Arizona State University in Tempe. He came to Stevens Point from the San Francisco Bay Area, where he lived for 22 years and taught and conducted in the music and theatre departments including the College of San Mateo, Foothill College, University of San Francisco and Lick-Wilmerding High School.

Mark's regional conducting credits span over 200 productions, including The Will Rogers Follies at American Musical Theatre of San Jose, Disney's Beauty and the Beast at Contra Costa Musical Theatre, Miss Saigon at Broadway By The Bay, Man of La Mancha at Musical Theatre of Arizona, Beehive at San Jose Stage Company, Spring Awakening at Foothill Music Theatre, Carousel and Barnum at Oakland's Woodminster Amphitheatre, My Fair Lady at Minnesota Repertory, and Big River at Iowa's Way Off-Broadway Theatre. Mark has worked on several national tours, including Spamalot, Legally Blonde, Cabaret, The Will Rodgers Follies and Les Misérables.

Alan Patrick Kenny joined the Department of Theatre and Dance at UW-Stevens Point in the fall of 2012 as Assistant Professor of Theatre & Dance. Alan holds a Master's in Fine Arts in Theatre Directing from the prestigious program at UCLA. Originally from Cincinnati, OH, Alan did his undergraduate work at New York University, receiving a Bachelor of Music degree in Vocal Performance - Music Theatre in 2004. Alan also has a professional career as a musical theatre pianist, music director and conductor. He conducted the North American Tour of Smokey Joe's Cafe and played piano for a year aboard Holland America Line.

Alan started a no-budget summer theatre company in his hometown called New Stage Collective. The company exploded with growth, and as the Producing Artistic Director, Alan transformed the company from an itinerant nomadic summer troupe to a professional non-profit organization with a permanent, rehabbed performance space and a $250,000 operating budget.

PLAYERS: Student Artistic Alliance

Players is a student-run theatre and dance performing arts organization designed to foster interest in social and performance activities at UW-Stevens Point. For over fifty years, the Players organization has produced student-directed and designed productions annually while coordinating other events (such as traveling to shows and workshops) that will broaden your knowledge of theatre and dance. Players welcomes people of all interests: actors, dancers, technicians, designers, directors, playwrights, and composers. The organization actively solicits new plays and performance pieces from the UWSP student body. If you are an aspiring playwright, you might see your work staged for the first time by Players.

Whatever your theatrical and performance interests, Players has a place for you.

THEATRE IN LONDON, a summer trip through the Department of Theatre and Dance, is an exciting opportunity to enjoy plays in the theatre capitol of the world. You'll see plays, hear British guest lecturers, and enjoy visits to the major theatres.

Weekends will be free for your own travel plans. You might venture to Scotland, Stratford-Upon-Avon, Bath, St. Alban's, the English Lake District, or even to Paris.

UW-STEVENS POINT INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMS

UW-Stevens Point offers more than 10 semester-long programs and over 20 short-term study tours over the winter and both the spring and summer breaks. The variety of programs, including dance exchange programs with Liverpool Hope University and University of Limerick, makes it possible to serve most of the students who are interested in studying abroad.

SENIOR SHOWCASE

As an actor in the BFA Acting or BFA Musical Theatre Program at UW-Stevens Point, you will have the opportunity to participate in our highly successful "Senior Showcase" in the heart of New York City. The Showcase provides a real-world experience where graduating seniors travel to New York City to audition and perform for select casting directors and agents in theatre, television, and film.

The Showcase is a semester-long course taught by Mark Hanson (coordinator of the Musical Theatre program) and Tyler Marchant (Acting/Directing) who have both worked professionally in New York for many years. They use their expertise to prepare you to perform audition material for working professionals in individual appointments over several days in New York.

You will have a chance to walk the streets of the entertainment capital of the world and get hands-on advice about finding auditions, preparing appropriate material, unions, taxes, and how to build your acting career. This opportunity has been created to help you segue from your university education to the world of the working professional actor. You will not only have a chance to audition, but you will also receive feedback and advice about the "business" from leading agents and casting directors.

The Senior Showcase is a unique and powerful experience for our graduates. You will be given the tools and knowledge necessary to prevent you from feeling lost amid the immense challenge of starting your career. This opportunity is tailor-made to make this difficult process seem possible and help spread the word of the talent that UW-Stevens Point is cultivating.

"Over the years I've had the privilege of watching students develop their artistic skill in an environment that hones their God-given talents. Their energy is infectious and keeps me thinking young; their gratitude for my sincere interest is something I cherish. They make me laugh, give me shivers, and bring tears to my eyes."

Anne G. Schierl

John and Patty Noel have been long-time supporters of UWSP. Their one-million dollar contribution to the construction of the addition and renovation of the Noel Fine Arts Center helped make that project possible. They also support individual students with their Compass Scholars Scholarship.

"We started the Compass Scholars Scholarship program 10 years ago and now have 20 graduates and 10 students currently in the program. David Murray is one of our Compass Scholars. We are so proud of him and how he has grown and developed his theatre/music skills since coming to UWSP. These kids have truly become part of our lives and we are thankful to them for allowing us into their lives. We have true win-win relationships with all of our involvement with the kids at UWSP."
