An Awareness Event for Breaking Down Barriers and Creating an Inclusive Community

with Debby Irving

March 1, 2017

DUC Alumni Room

1-3 p.m. - I'm a Good Person! Isn't That Enough?

90 – 120 Community Presentation

Using historical and media images, Debby examines how she used her white-skewed belief system to interpret the world around her. Socialized on a narrow worldview, Debby explores how she spent decades silently reaffirming harmful, archaic racial patterns instead of questioning the racial disparities and tensions she could see and feel. This workshop is designed to support white people in making the paradigm shift from 'fixing' and 'helping' those believed to be inferior, to focusing on internalized white superiority and its role in perpetuating racism at the individual, interpersonal, institutional, and cultural levels. This presentation includes pauses for reflection, dialog, and Q&A.

3-4 p.m. - Book Signing

4-6 p.m. - Leveling the Playing Field

Campus and Faculty Presentation

An interactive workshop that explores opportunities and access through the lens of oppression and intersectionality, including race, class and a historical overview.
