

San Francisco, California
Palace of Fine Arts

This fine old structure is an example of the world's most graceful architecture. It is the only building that remains of the 1915 Panama Pacific International Exposition. It is located near the Presidio and the Marina District in San Francisco.

Remember — ?

what a trip I had out to the airport — where I saw you —
The bus left with my luggage and ~~with~~ the car —
next the bus ~~had~~ broke down & we had to transfer to another bus — then the driver left the luggage ~~door~~ door open & had to stop — anyway, I am here & all checked in — leave in 10 minutes
