Class Meetings: Lecture –2:00 – 3:15, M & W, CNR 457

Examinations: for Dr. Crowther

Part I, Monday 2:00 PM, 10/01/12 ***

Part II, Monday 2:00 PM, 10/22/12 ***

Note – The examinations will be held in CNR 457.

Lecture Schedule:

These are the subject areas to be covered: Introduction, History, Epidemiology, Cells and Organs of the Immune System, Nonspecific Resistance, Specific Immunity, Hypersensitivity, and other subjects as time allows.

Point Generating Activities for the First Eight Weeks:

Examinations:

There will be two (2) examinations, the material covered will be determined by the pace of the course and announced in class as to the lectures covered on the exam. Each examination will contain material from the lecture, text, and any outside reading assigned. Each examination will have a value of 100 points.

Note: Dr. Sepsenwol will explain his examination format and scheduling. At the end of the semester the grades from each segment (Drs. Crowther and Sepsenwol) will be combined and a final grade determined.

Grading:

At the end of the semester your total points will be tabulated and grades assigned as follows:

Points	Percent	Letter Grade
200-180	100-90	A to A-
179-160	89-80	B to B-
159-140	79-70	C to C-
139-120	69-60	D to D-
119-0	59-0	F

Make-up examinations: Make-up examinations will be given only if the reason for missing the scheduled examination is fully justified and verified.

Attendance: Students are expected to attend all class meetings. More than two unexcused absences will be considered as sufficient reason for lowering the semester grade by 3 points per unexcused absence.

Cheating: If caught cheating on any point-generating activity it will result in a zero for that portion of the work. Repeated instances of cheating will be referred to the proper administrative authorities with a recommendation that an F be given for the course.

Student Academic Standards and Disciplinary Procedures:

Would you please go to this URL and read "Student Academic Standards and Disciplinary Procedures." <http://www.uwsp.edu/admin/stuaffairs/rights/rightsChap14.pdf>

Graduate Students: Students taking the course for graduate credit will be assigned a special project as a portion of the work and should notify me as soon as possible.

Out of Class Help: Students are urged to seek help from me whenever help is needed. I will be in my office (CNR 444) or laboratory (CNR 433) at times other than posted office hours. Feel free to come in and talk.
