This course meets 6:15-7:45 am MWF in the Strength Center (warm up for class meets in MAC), and T and TH at 12:15 – 1:45 p.m. in the MAC, times and locations subject to change due to weather, you must have your own transportation) through October 25, 2018.

Course Description:

This course will provide students the knowledge on how to design and implement an off-season and pre-season conditioning program in order to excel in competitive athletics. This will be accomplished through participation in weight training, running, and various team building activities. The student will perform a variety of activities that are beneficial both aerobically and anaerobically. The course will also focus on other aspects associated with a quality fitness program such as flexibility and nutrition.

Intended Learning Outcomes:

1. Appreciate the benefits of strength training and other fitness activities.
2. Increase the reserve to overcome muscle fatigue.
3. Increase muscular strength, reaction time, speed, quickness, power, explosiveness and flexibility.
4. Increase agility and develop a superior sense of timing.
5. Help reduce the risk of and avoid severe injury when performing physical activities.
6. Increase awareness of self-discipline and dedication.
7. Define terminology associated with strength training and conditioning.
8. Demonstrate proper biomechanics of various strength training and fitness activities.
9. Demonstrate correct spotting techniques

Attendance Policy:

Attendance is mandatory. The only way you can reap the benefits of this course is to attend. Students are expected to participate in a variety of strength training and fitness activities at peak intensity levels. Dress in workout clothes and be prepared to perform activities both indoors and outdoors each class period. If you miss a class, you are expected to make it up. In general, the best way to avoid losing points is to contact me before an absence.

Course Requirements:

All students should be dressed properly for physical activity; this includes having the proper equipment for class. Shorts, tee shirts, and sweats are appropriate. Shoes worn in the gym must be clean & dry. All students are required to participate in all activities unless a note from a doctor or athletic trainer. If advised not to do certain exercises, you may do an alternate exercise to earn your participation points for the day. You are also required to purchase a Strength Center membership.

Course Evaluation Breakdown:

- 40% Attendance
- 40% Participation
- 20 % Final Exam

Grading System:

- 80% Pass
- <80% Fail

Exceptional Needs Policy:

Accommodating a student's needs is important, however, I don't believe that equal treatment is the same as fair treatment. As an instructor, I align my policies and choices with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), a federal law that requires educational institutions to provide reasonable accommodations for students with disabilities. Here is more information about UWSP's relevant policies . If you have a disability and want an accommodation, please register with the Disability Services and Assistive Technology Office  and then contact me.

Integrity Policy:

I expect you to come to class on time and prepared to actively and fully participate in the course. I expect you to treat me and everyone around me with respect, including the facilities. I expect you to take ownership for managing your life so that you be at class on time and ready to participate. If for some reason you are unable to meet these expectations, please let me know and we can come up with a plan. As an instructor, I align my policy on academic misconduct (e.g., cheating) with Chapter 14 of the UWSP Bill of Rights and Responsibilities .

SOE Dispositions Model

As an instructor, I align my policies and choices with my department's expectations. The School of Education has adopted a model of the dispositions  we expect from our students and graduates.
