2009

DIRECTOR'S NOTES:

Welcome to Afterimages 2009! We are thrilled to be exploring the intimate performance space of the Studio Theatre. This year, the process began with the development of twenty new student dance works. After months of investigation and rehearsal, eleven dances have been selected to be a part of Afterimages 2009. This year's program offers a range of choreographic approaches that are full of variety, style, energy, and creativity. We applaud the dancers' commitment to the artistic process and vision of the choreographers. Their ability to work openly and honestly shines through in each piece.

Earlier this year, the Afterimages production team produced Afterimages Outtakes 2009 for the first time. This informal studio showing allowed the non-selected choreographers and dancers the opportunity to share their work in performance with family and friends. It was a wildly successful performance and we look forward to adding this annual event to the Afterimages performance season.

This concert would not be possible without the dedication and contributions made by the costume shop, scene shop, lighting designers, costume designers, stage managers and run crews. We are grateful for their ongoing support of this production. We would also like to give a special thanks to all of our Department of Theatre & Dance mentors, especially Michael Estanich for his support, dedication, and mentorship through the entire Afterimages process.

Thank you for coming and enjoy the show!
